MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of Dr. Cutwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhoea, or seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. Price in a sealed envelope, only six cents. The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps, by addressing CHAS. J. CLINE, & CO., 127 Bowery, New York, Post-Office Box, 4586. INACTIVITY.—If a steam engine is stopped suddenly and left unused for a long period, the piston rods rust in the cylinder, the packing corrodes the rods, and dust thickly covers every part.

When the human frame is inactive and torpid for a length of time, the muscles relax, the nerves lose their tone, the organs refuse to perform their functions. And the whole of the great machine—the human frame—is disorganized.

Day in, day out, men sit poring over ledgers and day-books until they are addled, and figures swim before their eyes. When evening comes, and business hours are over, instead of taking a walk so as to send the blood dancing and tingling to the remotest part of their frames, they pop into some car and drowsily roll to their doors. A very great portion of the minor ailments flesh is heir to is caused by laziness.

An afflicted individual goes to a doctor; "Something is wrong inside," but he doesn't know exactly where. Thereupon the physicians look grave, and say, "ANI Dyspepsia; and forthwith orders tonics, drastic purges, and what not, when all the man wants is a two mile tramp in the Central Park, or a good old fashioned jouncing on a hard-trotting horse.

A certain eastern potentate, feeling himself out of sorts on one occasion, sent for his physician and demanded a cure.

"Take this mace," said the physician, "mount a horse and swing the instrument back and forth, riding meanwhile at full gallop. Certain darts concealed in the handle will then exude; your excellency will absorb them and be cured." And he was, says the legend; the shrewd man of medicine knew full well that all the king required was fresh air and exercise, and he took this method of prescribing them.

It is better to wear out: than to rust out, and shoe leather is far less costly than medical advice.

Stretching the legs relieves the tension on the pulse strings, and the cheapest as well as the best medicine for dullness, head-aches, blue devils, stupidity, hypochondria, ill temper, and total depravity, is fresh air and sunlight. These are sovereign remedies, but because they are easily obtained, do not taste bad, and cost nothing, few use them.—Scientific American.

FUNERALS.—The Hartford Press says a new and very sensible fashion is beginning to prevail in that city in regard to funerals. It is this:

The funeral services are held, the assembly is dismissed, and all except the family and other relations of the deceased return to their homes; afterwards, the horse and carriage come, and the body is accompanied to the grave by the family only. This gives the immediate relatives an opportunity to take leave of the deceased and to perform the least sad offices privately; and in case of families who are poor or in only moderate circumstances, it saves much needless expense. A respectable funeral, economically managed, now costs $75 to $100, while, if carriages are provided for all friends and acquaintances who choose to ride, the expenses often amount to $300 or $400.—There is no good reason why a family in affliction should be called upon to pay for sympathizing friends at the rate of $1 each.

A little boy of three summers had gone to bed with his parents tired, cross, and crying, from romping of the day, and on into the night kept up his peevishness, until the father was satisfied that the difficulty had degenerated into sheer ill nature. Having exhausted moral suasion, he gave the youngster a thorough "slapping." The little fellow lay "obedient" a few moments, and then turning and throwing his arms about his father's neck, he said in a new-found tone of cheerfulness, "Pa, you do know what's good for me, don't you?"

If you love others, they will love you. If you speak kindly to them, they will speak kindly. Love is repaid with love, and hatred with hatred. Would you hear a sweet and pleasant echo, speak sweetly and pleasantly yourself.

TIOGA CO. COURT PROCLAMATION.—Whereas, the Hon. Robert G. White, President Judge for the 4th Judicial District of Pennsylvania, and Royal Wheeler and Victor Case, Esq's, Associate Judges in Tioga County, have issued their precept, bearing date the 10th day of April 1865, and to me directed, for the holding of the Orphan's Court, Court of Common Pleas, General Quarter Sessions and Oyer and Terminer, at Wellsboro, for the County of Tioga, on the 5th Monday of May, (being the 29th day) 1865, and to continue the same for the County of Tioga, to appear in their own proper persons, with their records, inquisitions, examinations and remembrances, to do those things which their offices and in their behalf appertain to be done, and all witnesses and other persons prosecuting in behalf of the Commonwealth against any person or persons, are required to be then and there attending, and not to depart at their peril. Jurors are requested to be punctual in their attendance at the appointed time, agreeably to notice.

Given under my hand and seal at the Sheriff's Office, in Wellsboro, the 20th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five. LEROY TABOR Sheriff.

MONTHLY MAGAZINES. Employing and paying for good Literary talent than any other Magazine in the country, we differ ourselves that no Department of the PACIFIC MONTHLY will suffer neglect from the want of able and well-known LITERARY CONTRIBUTORS, representing some of the principal shining lights of the Literary world. We shall make such additional engagements as circumstances may demand. Your special attention is called to our ILLUSTRATIONS, which are produced, without regard to expense, by an efficient corps of artists whose best designs MONTHLY and McLEMAN, unequalled as Designers and Engravers. We call the attention of the Public to the production of first-class illustrations of the varied, novel and picturesque scenery and local views of the GOLDEN STATES AND TERRITORIES OF THE PACIFIC. With Descriptive Views and Reading Matter, affording the most reliable and comprehensive medium in existence for full information in regard to California, Oregon, Nevada, and their contiguous and adjacent territories, the information we give in regard to the Pacific States, alone, is worth ten times the Subscription Price of our Magazine. The twelve numbers, a year's subscription, when neatly bound, affording two splendid volumes, suitable for the DRAWING-ROOM, LIBRARY, or THE COUNTING-HOUSE, and costing but FIVE DOLLARS, which in years to come can not be purchased for any price. Our EDITORIAL DRAWER will abound with selections of Wit, Original Stories, Comic Sketches, and Light Literature, culled from a well-garnished storehouse of fun, fact and anecdote, affording interesting light reading matter for the Parlor and Fire-side. COMIC ILLUSTRATIONS. This Department of the Monthly, under the immediate supervision of McLEMAN, the celebrated Comic delineator, will be as full of rich in Wit, Merriment, and appropriate Design. FASHION PLATES. Having made special arrangements with Miss Deane's, 473 Broadway, New York, for contributions to our Fashion Department, we call the attention of the Ladies to the same, and commend our Monthly to their notice, as containing more information in regard to Dress and the Toilet, than any other Magazine published. SUBSCRIBE NOW! Now is the time to subscribe, and have your volume complete for 1865. We will furnish Back Numbers to such as do not subscribe in time for the January or February number. But to be sure and get them without delay, send in your subscriptions early. Our Subscription Price is FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR, Payable in Advance, upon the receipt of which our receipt for the same will be sent in return. PREMIUMS IN GOLD. As an additional inducement to subscribers, we shall distribute among our Subscribers a large list of valuable Premiums, relying upon an extraordinary large Subscription List to compensate us for our liberality.
