A Terrible Duel.

A few years since as a New-England gentleman, whose name we shall call Brown, was passing a few days in one of our western cities, he had the misfortune, unintentionally, to offend the susceptible honor of a tall Militia Colonel, who was one of his fellow boarders.—His apologies not being satisfactory, a challenge was sent to him, which, however, he declined, from conscientious scruples. The Colonel, who, by the way, had won in two or three encounters quite a reputation as a duelist, at once conceived that his opponent was a coward, and resolved to disgrace him in the face of all the assembled wisdom of the house. Accordingly, the next day, at dinner-time, in marched the duelist, armed with a cowhide, and advancing to Brown's chair, proceeded to dust his jacket in the most approved style.—Brown was astonished. Luckily, he had been lieutenant of militia in his native State, and he knew the importance of incommoding his enemy by a diversion. So, seizing a gravy tureen, he tossed the contents into the face of the belligerent Colonel, and before he could recover from the drowning sensation thus occasioned, he sprang upon the table, and began to shower upon him with a liberal hand the contents of the dishes around.

"You are an infernal——"

"Coward!" the Colonel was about to say, but at that a plate of greens struck full upon his mouth, and the word was blockaded, lost for ever.

"Ha!" cried the New-Englander, whose blood was now up, "fond of greens, are you? take a potato, too?" and he hurled a telling volley of hard potatoes at him.

"Excellent eggs here, capital with calves head," and crash came a plate of soft boiled eggs against the side of his cranium.

The blows of the cowhide, which had hitherto descended upon the Yankee's head and shoulders, now began to fall more weakly and wildly, and it became evident that the assailant, half stunned, choked, and partially blinded, was getting the worst of it. His courage was oozing out.

"Take a turkey?" shouted Brown, as a noble old gobbler decended fairly upon the colonel's head, and bursting, filled his hair and eyes with delicious looking stuffing. "Here's the fringes," he continued, as the squash and jelly followed after.

By this time the Colonel was irretrievably defeated; and his merciless opponent seized a huge plum pudding, steaming hot, and holding it above his head with both hands, seemed to bury him beneath it. He quailed with terror, and throwing down his cowhide, turned about and made a rush for the door.

"Stop for the pudding, colonel, stop for the pudding." He did not escape from the ridicule which the affair occasioned. He subsequently challenged four persons, against whom his ire was particularly excited, and they all consented to fight, but availing themselves of the privilege of the challenged party, appointed pudding bags for their weapons.—At length the unhappy duelist, finding no one willing to shoot or be shot at, was obliged to quit the State.

A Touch of Petroleum.—Close to the lands of the Centre Oil Company there lives an old chap who is worth a mint. Ignorant, of course, dumb luck has made him rich. His household pets consist of a terrier dog and stupid daughter, both of whom engage his attention. The former provided for, he determined to "accomplish" his daughter. To this end he came to the city. He bought a piano and a harp, and a guitar, and a car load of music books, and so forth, winding up his business by engaging a first-class intellectual and music tutor, with all of which he started for the "region." The documents were of course soon arranged for business. The tutor set to work and toiled like a Trojan, but with no success. Despairing of ultimate triumph, the tutor went to the oil king and made a clean breast of it.

"Why, what the world's the matter?" asked the father.

"Well," answered the tutor, "Kitty has got a piano, and guitar, and harp, and music, and books, and all that, but she wants capacity—that's all."

"Well, by the Lord Harry," cried the oil king, "if that is all, just buy it. I've got the stuff, and if money will get it she shall have capacity or anything else.

MANHOOD:

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.: also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. Price in a sealed envelope, only six cents.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.—

Prepared by WILLIAM H. GREGG, M. D.,

Graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, formerly Assistant Physician in the Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector of the New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D Morgan.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP HAS PRODUCED A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE,

What may seem almost incredible, is that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable, are frequently cured in a few days or weeks; and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal-minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

During the last five years we have contended with obstacles, and overcome opposition, as heretofore as were ever encountered by any reformers.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Is a positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an Impure State of the Blood, and for all (hereditary) Diseases transmitted from Parent to Child.

PARALYSIS.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-giving Power.

DYSPEPSIA.

Indigestion, Weight at Stomach, Flatulence, Liver Complaint, Want of Appetite, Bad Breath, Constipation, Biliousness.

SCROPULA.

Struma, King's Evil, Glandular Swellings, Erysipelas Ulceration, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary and acquired) filling life with untold misery, is, by all usual medical remedies, incurable.

RHEUMATISM.

[Arthritis], Lumbago. Neuralgia, Sciatica, Gout, Tic Doloreaux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of twenty or forty years' standing, have been cured by us.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums, and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, and all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigures the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

For all Forms of Ulcerative Diseases,

Either of the Nose, Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead, or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

Moth Patches upon the female face, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion and remove the deposit, which is directly under the skin.

Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Languor, Dizziness, Indigestion, Weak Stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, will be relieved by the use of Constitution Life Syrup.

As a General Blood-Purifying Agent, the Life Syrup, stands unrivaled by any preparation in the world.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death is the result. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP is the Poor Man's Friend, and the Rich Man's Blessing.
