

THE AGITATOR is the Official paper of Tioga Co. THE AGITATION IS THE UNITED PART OF THE AGITATION IS THE AGITATION IS THE AGITATION IN THE AGITATION AND A AGOTATION AND A AGO to reach any paper of equal circulation in Northern

ferd hy any paper Pennsylvania. A cross on the margin of a paper, denote the ubscription is about to expire. Papers will be stopped when the subscript in time expires, unless the agent orders their continu-since JAS. LOWREY & S. F. WILSOF A TIORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT LA 24, A will attend the Contri al Tinga, Potter s M McKean counties. (Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1863.

JOHN I. MITCHELL, TTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LA, A Tioga Village, Tioga County, Peun'a. Prompt attention to Collections.

March 1, 1865 .- ly.

JEROME B. NILES.

ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW Wellsboro, Tioga County, Pa., Having been specially licensed by the United States for the Prosecution of Illians for Pensips, inter Pay and Bounties.

Pay and Domines. Particular attention will be given to that diags of business. Wellsboro, Fob. 15, 1865-19*

PENNSYLVANIA HOUSE, CORNER OF MAIN STREET AND THE AVEN Wellsboro. Pa. J. W. BIGONY,.....Proprint.

THIS popular Hotel, having been re-fit id and re-furnished throughout, is now open to be public as a first-class house. [Jan. 1, 1863. D. HART'S ROTEL WELLSBORD, TIUG - CO. PENNA THE subscriber takes this method to infu m This doubtriver and customers that he had, e-enned the conduct of the old "Crystal Foundain Hotel," and will hereafter give it his entire attention. Thankful for past favors, he solicits a renewal of the BAVID HART.

Wellsboro, Nov. 4, 1883.-1y.

IZAAK WALTON HOUSE, Gaines, Tioga County, Pa.

THIS is a new hotel located within easy c HIS is a new hotel localed washing ground in cess of the best fishing and hunting ground in No pain's will be spare! for Northern Pennsylvania. No paint will be spare Ao he accommodation of pleasure seekers and the t, w elling public. [Jan. 1, 1863] elling public.

A. FOLEY, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, &c., &c., REPAIRED AT OLD PRICES. POST OFFICE BUILDING NO. 5, UNION BLOCK. -Wellsboro, May 20, 1863. WM. H. SN . TH H. W. WILLIAMS, WILLIAMS & SMITH, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT L BOUNTY & PENSION AGEN Y. Main Street, Wellsboro, Pa. January 4, 1865-1y.

S. F. SHAIBLIN, BARBER & HAIR-DRESSER, SHOP_OVER C. L. WILCOX'S STORE. Wellsboro, Dec 7, 1864.

WESTERN EXCHANGE HOT KNOXVILLE, BOROUGH, PA.

THE undersigned having leased the above, stel for a term of years would respectfully it from the traveling public that he has put the Hotel in fras-class order for the reception of guests and no t in a

ed the gambler somewhat fiercely. "Listen to me a few moments, and you will know and understand all. There were once three companions named George Harbaugh, James Fawcet, and John Ellery. A little more than a year ago, they murdered an innocent woman and two children, in the village of -, while the husband and father, William Bradway, was away. When he returned and learned all the horrid particulars, he swore a solemn oath that he would never rest in peace ger, "you, with two companions, were at the till he should have hunted them all down, and vilage of _____, on the Red river, on the night of | put an end to their guilty lives. George Harangh was assassingted in the streets

3 MONTHS, 6 MONTHS. 12 MORTHS. $7.50 10.00 $5.75 8.25 10.75 12.00 12.50 15.75 25.00 42.00 60.00

Advertisements not naving the number of inser-tions desired marked upon them, will be published until ordered out and charged accordingly. Posters, Handbills, Bill-Heads, Letter-Heads, and all kinds of Jobbing done in country establishments.

executed nearly and promptly. Justices', Constable's and other BLANKS, constantly on band.

Official Report of the Battle before Petersburg.

HEAD Q'RS 2D BRIG., 3D DIV., 9TH A. C., April 12, 1865.

Maj. JNO. D. BERTOLETTE, A. A. GRN., 3D DIV., 9TH A. C .- MAJOR :- I have the honor to submit the following Report of the action of my 2d brigade during the assault on the enemy's works on the 2d inst.

My report will only embrace the action of the brigade, up to 10 A. M. of the 2d inst., at which time I left the field by order of General Hartranft on account of sickness, turning over the command of the brigade to Col. R. C. Cox, 207th Reg't Pa. Vola.

At 103 P. M., 1st inst., I received orders to mass my brigade at the camp of the 205th and 207th regiments. At 31 A. M., 2d inst., in compliance with orders, I moved my brigade along the "Jerusalem Plank Road" around the right of Fort Sedgwick and massed it in column of regiments directly in rear of our picket line and in the front of the Fort with the 207th in front, the 205th in the year and the 211th in the rear of the 205th. My left rested on the plank road. My brigade Pioneer Corps under charge of Lieut. A. Alexander (Pioneer Officer) was distributed along the front of the leading (Col. R. C. Cox 207th) regiment.

Just before daylight the order to charge was given, and my men moved hastily forward, rossed the enemies picket line, and to the double line of chevaux-de-frise in front of the

A murderous fire of grape, canister and shell, net us at every step, but my Pioneer Corps, aided by the first regiment cut away the obstructions and the regimental colors were planted on the redoubt which is thrown upon the plank road. The guns in the redoubt were at once seized, and my brigade turning to the left captured Fort Mahone, with its guns and a number of prisoners, and also one other Fort name not known) with a like result.

Artillerymen from the rear were at once brought up to work the captured guns, and they were turned upon the enemy with good effect. My men carried ammunition for these guns from Fort Sedgwick, and as the enemy had range of the plain between the two lines, many men were killed or wounded while thus engaged. The enemy made repeated efforts during the forenoon to recapture their line, but each time they were repulsed with heavy loss. It is impossible for me to mention my losses up to this time. To Lieut. A. Alexander (Pioneer Officer) to whom was entrusted the stern duty of cutting the line of the enemy's chevauxde-frise belongs more credit than I can here ascribe him. He was severely wounded and died after being taken to the rear. Major B. M. Morrow, commanding the 205th regiment P. V., who was severely wounded discharged his whole duty up to the hour of his fall. / I commend him to the favorable consideration of the Commanding General. I much regret his loss.

To Col. R. C. Cox, who commanded the leadng regiment, I owe the entire good su that attended the charge. Foremost among those who scaled the enemy's works, cheering his men by his courage, preparing them to meet the many charges of the enemy to retake their lines, and thus beating them back each time with heavy losses in killed and wounded. He is deserving of the highest praise. For the action of the brigade from 10 o'clock on the full report of casualties, and the number of guns and prisoners captured, I would respectfully refer you to Col. R. C. Cox's Report. All of which is respectfully submitted. I have the henor to be, very respectfully, Your obedient servant. J. A. MATHEWS. Col. Commanding Brigade.

class order for the reception of guests and no 1 and will be spared in the accommodation of transfer, and at far as the situation will allow, he will keep' is irst class Hotel, in all things, except prices, which will be moderate. Please try us and judge for yourse res. Knoxville, Oct. 19, 1864-tf. J. H. MART

REVENUE STAMPS.

TOHN M. PHELPS, Deputy Collector of A ina-field, has just received a large lot of Refine Stams, of all denominations, from one cent up Any person wishing Stamps can get them at my mer in Mansfield, or of M. BULLARD, Assistant Asay sor at Wellsboro, Pa. J M. Pillet Mansfield, May 2, 1864.

P. NEWELL, DENTIST,

MANSFIELD. TIOGA COUNTY; P

Is prepared to operate in all the improveme s in I the various departments of filling, extractis (in-tering artificial dentures, &c. Mansfeld, August 10, 1864-19.

WELLSBORO HOTEI (Oorner Main Street and the Avenue.)

WELLSBORD, PA.

B. B. HOLIDAY, Proprietor.

One of the most popular Houses in the cginty, This Hotel is the principal Stage-house in Well Poro Stages leave daily as follows: For Tioga, at 9 a. m.; For Troy, at 8 a. m. For Jersey Shore every Tuesday and Friday at 2 - m. For Coudersport, every Tuesday and Friday at 2 p. m Stages Arrive-From Tioga, at 12 1-2 .0 Jock p.m. From Troy, at 6 o'clack p. mi : From Jarsey Shore, Tuesday and Friday 11 a. m. : From Co. lere otore, Tuesday and Friday II a. m.: From Co. tele-port, Tuesday and Friday II a. m.: N. B.-Jimny Cowden, the weil-known. h itler, will be found on hand. Wellsboro, Oct. 5, 1864-1y.

HUGH YOUNG BOOKSELLER & STATIO JER,

AND DEALER IN

American Clocks, American, English, an't Swiss. Watches, Jewelry, Silver Plated Ware. Spiotacles, Picture Frames, Photographic Albums, Stern pecopes, Microscopes, Perfumery, Yankee Notions, Fahing Takle and Flies, and Fancy and Toilet Art clus. SCHOOL BOOKS of every kind us d in the Complex contention and eart by mai (* oth County, constantly on hand and sent by mai, 42 otherwise, to order. NO. 5, UNION BLOCK, WELLSBORG PA.

TO FISHERMEN.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he has a fine assortment of the ce brased ROCHESTER TROUT FLIES New York Trout Flies, Silk Braided Lives, Sen Grass and Hair Lines, Kinsey Huoks on Suels, Reels, Leaders, Gut, and a fine lot of

ROCHESTER FLY RODS

Hooks, &c., &c. Shop in rear of Wm. Rol rts' Tin and Stove Store. Wellsboro, April 19, 1865-3m.

TOR SALE .- HOUSE & LOT on May . Street L adjoining Wright & Bailey's Store. 2 acres land in Delmer, between John Gray and Me rick. House and Lot on Covington Street. For terms, apply to HENRY SHERWOOD, Esq. Wellsboro, May 31, 1865-tf.

WALTER A. WOOD'S PRIZE MOW R .- The WALTER A. WOOD'S PRIZE MOW R.—The Wood Mower has been in general u e for the Pat for years. It embraces all the qualit mecces-sary to make a perfect Mower. It recomm hds itself to every fatuar for the simplicity of its cor struction. It is prored to be the lightest draft. It these the Preference for durability, easy management, ind good work—Machines fully warranted. Send t & Circu-ian—Price $125 delivered on the cars at C roifig. EDGAR HILL, Agent, Coroing R. T. C. L. KIMBALL, Ag't, Wellsbe o, Pa. May 81, 1865-47.

Corning, N. Y., May 17, 1865. THE BIG FIGHT having bean closed up by Messrs. Grant, Sherman Sheridan, & Co.,

and first door east of Hungerford's Bank.

nore recently adopted. Don't buy until

YOU HAVE RXAMINED, OUR STOCK AND

STORE DIRECTLY OPPOSITE THE DICKIN-

... SON HOUSE,

SMITH & WAITE,

PRICES: Sames Low

KELLY & PURVIS

have volunteered for a war of extermination against high Prices, and will be found entreacted behind a huge file of

NEW AND CHEAP GOODS

at the old OSGOOD STAND, where their communitions with New York cannot be interrupted. They have just received a good stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS, such as Prints, Delaines, Barages, Muslins, Hosiery, such as Frints, Defaines, Datages, In tanks, Informations, Notions, Boots and Shoes, etc., in fact everything i the Dry Goods line may be found at our counter and purchased at prices corresponding to the late

HEAVY FALL IN GOODS.

We sloo invite purchasers to examine our find stock of A.S.S. i i tea chuir

GROOERIES.

Can't be beat this side of New York. Remember the place. "Osgood's Corner." KELLY & PURVIS.

Wellaboro, Apr. 22, 1865-1y.

T ETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION HAVING L been granted to the undersigned on the estate of To a fond husband and father this was a Josiah L. Butler, late of Delmar, deceased, those in-terrible blow ; and for a day and a night Wilvice payment, and those having claims against the immediate walking some of his dwelling, some of the still smo-same will present them to CALVIN F. BUTLER, king ruins of his dwelling, some of the time Delmar, May 17, '65.6th Adm'r. Walking slowly around them in the time

ROCHESTER & N. Y. TROUT FLIES.-I have

1 Gross of ROCHESTER TROUT FLIES, 1 do of NEW YORK "

Snells with or without hooks, Fly Rods, Reels, and Braided Silk Lines. 1 L. A. SEARS, 1 Dealer in Fishing Tackle, &c. Wellaboro, Mny 24, 1865.

NOTICE.-The Supervisors of Richmond Town-ship will meet at the honse of W. B. Ripley, in said township, on Saturday, June 10th, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of letting a job on a new read P. M., for the purpose of letting a job on a new road commencing at said Ripley's and running a south course 275 rods to intersect with the "Old Road" on Lamb's Creek. All interseted are invited to attend. D. J. HUSTED, ZIMRI ALLEN, Superv're. Three men were named—George Harl farm contains about 107 acres, about 65 acres cleared. the balance valuable woodland. It is well watered the balance valuable woodland. It is well watered Bradway, and threatened revenge, though the Harbaugh fell by my hand; I shall not spare ton, and ignorant as a bodman, went to an house is two stories, comfortable, and the outbildings latter little dreamed at the time that anything you, and then to hunt down John Ellery ! Say artist to have his portrait taken. "Will you of grafted fruit, some 75 trees. Terms casy. Apply to the subscriber, on the premises. Charleston, May 31, '65... HENRY GIFFORD.

Richmond, May 31, 1865-2w.

N my bed and board without any just cause or provocation, this is to forbid all persons harboring or trusting her on my account as I shall pay no debts of her contracting after this date. Rutiand, May 31, 1865-3t*

• .

the sixth of September last ?" ers, and outlaws from different quarters, with such females and children as looked, to them for support. Mrs. Bradway, who had been well educated and brought up in refined soci ety, sought in vain among them for suitable associates and con panions, and, being a stranger in a strange land, toon became depressed and homesick; Under the peculiar circumstunces, she unguardedly made some remarks nut complimentary to the place and its inhabi tants; and these remarks being reported, with such additions and exaggerations as scandalmongers generally use for embellishments, she she soon found herself surrounded by open enemies, and subjected to such petty annoyances and persecutions as little, malicious minds de light to inflict upon those they secretly believe, to be their superiors, and both envy and hate

But Mrs. Bradway was sadly disappointed in finding the place so different from what she had pictured in her fancy. The settlement was new, and everything was rough. The houses, many of them, were built of loge, and even the hest of them lacked the finish of her

Northern home, while the forniture was gener ally of the plainest and egarsest description, and scanty gt that. But worse than all the rest were, the inhabitants; composed principally of rough speculators, negro traders, gamfor that cause. - Six months had not passed away ere William Bradway felt the necessity of removing his family from that unpleasant and lawless local ity, and this he was preparing to do, when an awful tragedy occurred which changed the peaceful man into a bloody avenger. Some business at a neighboring settlement called him from home for a couple of days and on his return he found his house in ashes, and learned that his wife and children: had all been murdered under the most atrocious and aggravaling circumstances-his poor wife, previous to her throat being cut, having heen subjected to treatment worse than death by the three-ruffians concerned in the horrible affair.

on the ground, and some of the time standing and gozing at them with an abstracted air, as if he were recalling the past, or looking into the future. He had shown no violent sorrow even at the first, but had received the awful in telligence as one mentally stupefied-as one who could not clearly : believe the facts and comprehend the whole extent of his loss. It was observed that his features suddenly became deadly white, even to his lips, and then gradually changed to a livid hue, which remained, with ut alternation, and without being after-"Who did it?" he inquired, in a tope of unnat

Three men were named-George Harbaugh, James Fawcet, and John Ellery. These men FARM FOR SALE—Situated on the Spencer's were known as gamblers and desperadoes, and had been suspected of being robbers and mur east of Whitney's Corners, in Charleston township, derers. They did not live in the village, but had visited it occasionally and one of them had visited it occasionally, and one of them had, some time previously, had a quarrel with so terrible was meant as had been accomplished. It is but justice to say that, though the minutes are numbered?" Bradways, as previously mentioned, had made themselves very unpopular in the place, there fian. NOTICE.-Whereas, my wile SARAH, has left were very few of the residents who openly sanc-my bed and board without any just cause or tioned the horrid crimes that had been commitwith a just punishment; but though the ruffians had made-no secret-of their fiendish-deeds, and had even boasted of them before they left the

"Ho! what's this ?" cried the ruffian springhis bosom.

not, perhaps you can put me in the way to find

"What do you owe me for, and how much ?"

inquired the gambler, taking his hand from his

S"I am right, then, in supposing, I address

"Yes that's my name. What's yours, wher'd

"If I am not mistaken," pursued the stranthe person I seek ?"

George Habaugh himself ?"

we ever meet before ?"

hosom.-`

"He had not time for more, ere with a flash and a crack, a ball passed through his breast. As he staggered and fell, shouting murder, a sharp knife was drawn across his throat and the name of William Bradway hissed into his dving ear. It was the last earthly sound he ever heard. He was found murdered, but his assassin was not discovered.

> During the winter following, James Fawcet went among the Choctaws to purchase horses, While trading with the Indians he fell in with a small dealer, who, for a triffing consideration, offered to assist him in taking his horses to the settlement some two hundred miles distant, where he expected to dispose of them at a heavy profit. The bargsin was struck, and, with fifteen horses, James Fawcet set off with his assistant through a long stretch of wilderness. On the second night, as the gambler and mursuddenly startled by finding a noose dropped over his head and shoulders and drawn around his body, so as to pinion his arms. In less than a minute, notwithstanding a vigorous re-earth as helpless as an infant. "What's the meaning of this? Do you intend to murder me?" demanded, in a voicemade tremulous by fear.

....I suppose you do not recollect ever having seen me before you met me in the Indian ,village ?" - said the man who had been acting as his assistant, as he now stood over his prostrate form.

"No, of course not! Where had I ever een you before ?" replied Fawcet.

The other removed a wig of long hair, and patch from one eye, and then quickly said: 'Do vou know me now?" "Well, it does seem as if I have seen you before, but I can't tell where," said the ruf-

"Do you remember the woman and children you helped to murder on the 6th of last September ?"

"Hal you're Bradway !" cried the villain. in a tone of despair.

"William Bradway, at your service-the same in name as, when you knew me, but not the same nature. Then I would not have harmed you; but now I would execute the vengeance of a wronged husband and father."

"Mercy !" grasped Fawcet. "Did you show any ?"

"You will not murder me?" "You must die, I have sworn it. I have followed you to rid the earth of a monster .--your prayers, if you have any to say, for your "Mercy, mercy !" gasped the terrified ruf-

The avenger made no further reply, but deliberately proceeded to fasten a rope, with a noose, around the neck of Fawcet. This done, he dragged him to a sapling, bent it over, secured the other end of the rope near its top, and let it go.

With a wild, unearthly yell, the second DUTTY & WINDOW GLASS at ... had even boasted of them before they left the With a wild, unearthly yell, the second richest gravy; whereas, if only a BOX'S DRUG STORE. | place, no one had made any attempt to arisest murderer was jerked up from the earth, and it is flabby, pale, and flavorless.

cogdoches, James Fawcet was hung in the west. ing back, and again thrusting his hand into and John Ellery was poisoned in Natchez." "But I am John Ellery !" cried the gambler, the very picture of horror. "No need to tell me that, who have hunted you to your death !" said the other. "I am William Bradway !"

"Good Heaven !@m I then poisoned ?" shriek ed the wicked man, as new pangs seized him. "Yes, beyond hope! In five minutes you will be a corpse."

"Murder !- help !" the dying man began to CTV.

"None of that !" said Bradway, springing upon him like a tiger, and forcing a hanker shief into his mouth, which he held there till the man fell down in spasms, when he turned to the table and quickly selected his own money from the gambler's and put it in his pock-

The poison was quick and sure and in less than half an hour from his last drink of spirits derer sat smoking before the camp fire, he was the murderer was a corpse. Waiting only to be certain of his death, Bradway went down stairs and told some of the people of the house that his companion either had the cholers or had fallen down in a fit, and they had better go up and see to him. He then hastened sistance on his part, he lay stretched on the down to the river, got on board the first passing steamer, and before night was many miles away from the scene of his last act of vengeance.

> William Bradway subsequently went to Texas, joined a band of rangers, and was finally killed in a fight with a party of guerrillas on the western frontier. His companions all spoke of him as a quiet determined man, who was never known to smile.

> BE DECIDED .- There is something in decis ion of character which never fails to command respect. Be decided, then. Learn to say yes, and no. They are little words, but allpowerful when uttered in the right spirit. Let there be no vacillation in your bearing-nothing like a disposition to be driven about by every wind of doctrine, or to do the will of others instead of your own. Be decided ! Consider well every important step before yon take it. Then there will be seldom any necessity to take a single step backward.

WEIGHT OF MILK .- S. S. Otis writes to the Rural New Yorker that he carefully weighed equal quantities, about a gallon each, and found milk to weigh seven pounds fifteen ounces : water seven pounds fourteen ounces ;cream seven pounds thirteen ounces; skimmed milk eight pounds.

A rich petroleum worker, gaunt as a skelehave it taken in oil or water-colors ?" inquired the artist. ... 'Ile, of course," replied he, "It comes to me more natural; and, besides it makes me look fatter."

MUTTON .- A late English writer says that a sheep, to be in high order for the palate of the epicare, should not be killed earlier than five years old; at which age the mutton will be of a dark color, rich and succulent, and full of richest gravy; whereas, if only two years old, HEAD QUARTERS 207TH REG'T P. V.,] April 12th, 1865.

Maj. JNO. D. BERTOLETTE, A. A. GEN'L, 3d Div., 9th A. C .- MAJOR :- I have the honor to submit the following report of the action of the Second Brigade, from 10 o'clock A. M., the 2d instant to 10 A. M. 3d. inst.

I was put in command of the Brigade at 10 o'clock A. M., at which time I was with my regiment in the works of the enemy, which had so shortly before been captured from them. The other two regiments were occupying the same line, the 211th were mostly on the right. and the 205th on the left. It is difficult to state the exact localities of the regiments, for while the charge was being made, the men of one regiment became mixed with those of others. and the peculiar position we occupied, prevented me from rectifying the matter at that time. Lieut. Col. Dodd of the 211th regiment with part of his own, and part of the 207th regiment occupied Fort Mahone, and to him is due the honor of securing artillerymen to work the guns of the fort against the enemy, which so materially aided us in holding our position. During the day, repeated charges were made by the enemy to drive us back, but each time they were met with such determined resistance by my men that they were compelled to fall back to their second line with heavy loss. At one time during the afternoon they succeeded in driving the men of the lat brigade, 2d division, 9th A. C., out of a fort on my left, and this recapturing gave them an enfilading fire on part of my brigade. After resisting this fire for about two hours holding our line, part of my left was compelled to give way and fall back in disorder, but reinforcements came up at this time, and my entire line was re established. We then held our position until after dark when I ordered my men to move the enemies chevaux-de-frise from our rear over the first line of the enemy's works and construct a new line with it in our front. About 9 o'clock A. M., I received orders to establish my head quarters in rear of our old picket line, where I remained until 24 A. M. the 3d inst., when by direction of Gen. Hartranft, I moved two of my regiments (205th and 207th) back to the picket line and sent the 211th to report to Col. Harriman, commanding brigade of 1st division, 9th A. C. At 44 A. M., received intelligence that the enemy had withdrawn from their lines and was ordered to push my two regiments forward. I did so and entered Petersburg unmolested. After waiting there about two hours, I was ordered by