The Williamsport Bulletin says, that during the heavy showers of Monday week, a discharge of electricity took place at the Crescent Iron and Nail Works in that city, so severe as to prostrate persons a hundred yards distant. The lightning passed thro' the furnaces and rolling mill, knocking the workmen down, but doing no serious damage.

STRAWBERRIES .- Mr. Geo. W. Hathaway, of Tioga, writes that he sent us a box of Wilson's Scedling strawberries, taken from a patch of 16 square rods, which has yielded twenty-seven hushels of berries up to date, and will yield a bushel a day for some days. We regret to say that the box never reached us, but assure the liberal giver of our grateful appreciation of his attempted favor. Who can beat Mr. Hath way in Strawberry culture?

Letter from Mrs. Holstein.

ANNAPOLIS, 8th June, 1865. My Dear Cousin:—I know not whether in our wandering this spring you have at all kept rack of the For over two months we have been stellonary at ns. For over two months we have been attituding at this place; come to remain two weeks and the sime-bas now lengthened into months, and here we still are, probably may remain until Sanitary Commission operation are dispensed with. William has taken Major Hower place, and is Superintendent here We are now the only Sanitary Commission presenta-tives in this Secesh town, and with only to persons to do what six formerly were engaged it, you may know we are busy. One Hospital has be; I vacated, and the work much leas, yet it occupies on time from 6 A M and the work much leas, yet it occupies on 6 A. M. until evening.

Well, I sat down to tell you of the co items of a box, which we were just unpacking. The first thing that attracted my notice was a packag of dried blackberries, marked Wellsboro; then cu tants from the same place; another Munsfield, some i om Kuoxville, and one with Mrs. L. Moore Hotch itse name, and so on. : I know it is a satisfaction to remote societies, to know where the articles they have so care, fully prepared, "do reach the soldiers, and are not all used up by Doctors' nurses and attendants." I can truthfully vouch for thousands of dollars' worth pas-sing directly through my hands to those in Hospital, and yet a case in point occurs to me which happened only yesterday. I was writing in my busband's office, when three soldiers came to the door, asking for towhen tares solders came to the door, asking for to-bacco, handkerchiefs, and many little articles, which were given them. As they were leaving, one said, "these are the first things I ever had from the Sani-tary Commission." "Where do you come from, sol-dier?" was my quick rejoinder. "St. Johns, mam." Do you ever have pickles, stewed apples, onions, to-matoes, &c. "Oh yes." Did you know they came from "Sanitary?" "No mam, never knew that."

Well, they are sent by the barrel, and so with many things, both in light and full diet, which the patients never know anything about.

I have wandered from my fruit box. The packages taken from it went to Camp Parole and St. Johns. both places filled with returned prisoners. There they are interested by valuable trusty wamen, who they are prepared by valuable, trusty women, who attend to the issuing of them to the patients. At St. Johns there are still a number of miserable looking. starved men. who came from Jacksonville, Fla., and Hilton Head, about a week since. They were left there to recruit, when the rest of their comrades were sent North—they were too emaciated to bear the journey. There are a few still to be gathered up at different resting places, by the way, and of those now here, many must die. It is merely a question of time, nere, many must die. It is merely a question of time, as to how long they can survive, after being systematically starved to that degree, that when good nourishing food is offered them, the enfeebled stomach rejects it. I have never known in Hospitals, such an abundance of good food, as is here given to those starved men. Any delicacy they wish, provided it is not injurious to them, they will get.

A. M. Holstrin.

Ma. Cose: The amount of our debt, county and town-ship, does not, I am informed, vary much from $400,000. To pay this debt requires heavy taxation, and with taxation a good deal of able financiering. Our county debt alone, I am told, is over $300,000. Such being the case, our tax-payers will see at a glance that the management and final ilquidation of the debt is a matter, to them, of great importance. The debt must be paid. However its creation may be viewed, as wise or unwise, one thing is certain—there can be no repouldation. It must be paid. It is well portance. The debt must be paid. However its creation may be viewed, as wise or unwise, one thing is certain—there can be no repudiation. It must be paid. It is well enough to look the thing in the face.

What is to be done? Shall we leave the liquidation of this debt to chance? or what is the same thing, shall we commit it to unskilful hand? Tho whole management of it, must of necessity be given to our County Commissioners. Shall we elect our best men-a man, this fail, of tried integrity—of financial ability—one who understands failly the position of our county affairs, or shall we elect a mere politician, a man honest it may be, but one of no particular qualification for the office.

It reems to me there can be but one answer. Let us elect the man best qualified for the office. Permit me then, Mr. Editor, to suggest one man who will, I do not doubt, strike every one as the very man for the office of County Commissioner. I mean CHARLES. V.EH., of Liberty. He has been County Auditor for a number of years and in saying that "he is one of the best men in the county," I am only repeating what every one who knows him has said again and again.

Charles F. Veil is honest and eminently capable. We can discourse was a deserved eulogy on the character and habits of deceased, who was a young man of excel-lent reputation, respected very highly for his steady habits, integrity and general good qualities as a citizen and neighbor. And here porhaps, it would be as well to end this necessarily imperfect tribute; for what more, or better can be said of a man than that he fought and fell in defense of the Liberties and Constitution of his Country?

He went, regardless of all personal considerations and interests, leaving a wife and child, and all the pleasant associations of home and friends, for the scenes of active war, where he well knew that strong scenes of active war, where he well know that strong hands and stont hearts were needed to strengthen and encourage those who had faced so many battles, and to fill the places of those who had fallen ere the final victory was won! His place cannot be filled! A void of sorrow renders desolate the hearts of many to whom he was dear, which alas! no joy over the great end accomplished, can compensate! And yet, how much heter then to heve died in vain

THIRD SERIES, $230.000.000

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as

7-30 LOAN. These notes are issued under the date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, udds from one to three per cent, per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by covpous attached to each note, which may be cut of and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7-30 per cent. amounts to---One cent per day on a $50 note. " $100 ..." " $500 · " Two cents " " Ten " " " $500 20 " " " $1000 ". $1 " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The Notes of this Third Sesies are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold at 6 per cent instead of 7 3 10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three tenths per cent. in currency. This is

This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within two months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders. JAY COOKE.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forchead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for same days. A skifful physician applied nitrate of aliver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his lands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having trued every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your Sarsaparilla, and applying the lodide of potash lotton, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second.
