

A HINT TO BOYS.—Under the heading, "A Good Boy Wanted," says the Agriculturalist, a gentleman of New York advertised in one of the daily papers. Upon entering his office the next morning, there stood a crowd of forty or fifty boys waiting to see him. All were strangers, and of course it was rather difficult to select the best one of the company. But there were a few signs by which he could be decided at once that many of these boys were not wanted, from which our young friends may take hint. Several of the boys had uncombed hair, and unwashed hands and faces. If they could not be kept their own persons neat they would not be likely to do their work nicely, so they were passed over without further notice. One boy looked bright and smart; but he kept crowding his way to the front of all others and thrusting himself into notice. It was readily to be seen that he was too "smart." Then came a boy with a book peeping out of his breast pocket—a cheap trashy novel—he was not wanted; his mind would be following the hero of the wonderful story through impossible adventures, while his work suffered. One boy fell to quarreling with his neighbor; another had to be reprimanded for meddling with articles in the office; a third choked tobacco; neither of these was wanted. From the remaining few, after dismissing the above classes, the boy was selected who could bring the best testimonials of honesty, intelligence, and industry; so you see a good name is worth much and a good character will be sure, sooner or later, to bring a good reputation and its rewards.

A Good One.—The other day it was Sunday—soon after the assassination of our noble President, there were found suspended near a certain pulpit two flags draped in mourning. This was at old Tappan Town, Rockland county, and in the ancient orthodox church of that place, not twenty rods from the old "Seventy-Six House," where Andre was confined, tried, and sentenced, and no half a mile from where he was executed, buried, and long after, exhumed. "Dem vlags must come down," said one of the not over loyal members of the congregation. "No bizzness in chara; no holdicks ought to go into der church." "It is not politics," said a lay bystander; "it is a token of grief and respect for our dead President." "It's holdicks all der same," was the reply; "mas' come down." "Let 'em be dis time," said a brother Dutchman, in political accord with the objector; "Booth is kill, too!" "Is he?" said the old coppershead; "den let der vlags stand!"

DRAINING.—Surface drains are not so good as underdrains, yet they are very useful. A furrow made by a plow will drain off more water in a day than the sun will evaporate in a week. If there is any water lying on land that you wish to plow this summer, lose no time in draining it off. It will pay tenfold.

A little boy at school, when called upon to recite his lesson, was asked, "Of what is the German Diet composed?" The boy replied, "Sour-kraut, schnapps, lager beer, and mix-combous."

Soft words butter no parule, but a new honest presented to a wife will cover a multitude of her husband's sins.

September 1st, 1863. FROM THIS DATE, FOR READY PAY ONLY! CUSTOM BOOTS AND SHOES; Leather, Findings, &c. CASH PAID FOR HIDES, PELTS, DEER SKINS AND FURS. DR. FRANKLIN SAYS: "When you have anything to advertise, tell the public of it in plain, simple language." I am manufacturing good custom made Boots and Shoes which I will sell at fair prices, and only for READY PAY. Such work cannot be sold at as low rates as pair as custom-made shop-work, but it can and will be sold at prices which will enable the purchaser to protect his feet with good substantial boots more cheaply than with a poor shop-made article, which, even if it changes good to fall in pieces with the first weeks service, is but a doubtful protection in wet and cold weather. Try me. Buck and Doeskins Wanted, in the red and short blue, for which I will pay cash and a good price. Beef-Hides and Calfskins Wanted, for which I will also pay cash. Sheep Pelts Wanted, for which I will also pay cash and the highest market price. An assortment of sole, upper, calfskins and linings, pegs, thread, nails, awls, knives, shoe-hammers, &c., &c., kept constantly on hand, which I will sell cheap for cash. Shop on Main Street between Willcox's and Bullard's. G. W. SEARS. N. B. I can't give credit, because, to be plain, I haven't got it to give. Wellboro, Sept. 9, 1863.
