At last the Welisboro Petroleum Company has got its engine and tools, and its business takes shape of active operations.

We neglected to notice last week the very fine new Saloon just opened to the public by Mr. M. Bullard. It is a model public resort, being neat, orderly, and tastily furnished; and the public appear to appreciate it. Look in upon him.

Master Charles Thompson, of this village, has Reft with us a copy of the sketch of scenery on Chagfes niver, noticed in this column a few weeks ago. It is decidedly a creditable effort, and Charlie should not ICE CREAN FESTIVAL .- The friends of good church

The Harrisburg Daily Telegraph has been er arged and entirely renewated since the fire, and is n w one of the handsomest, as well as ablest papers in the State. It costs but $6 per year, and we most pordially commend it to all who want a sterling Str te pa-

We are glad to bear that Dr. Packer and Mr. Converse are about to enter into competition with Mr. B., to decide who can do up that sort of thing the brownest. Success to them."

P.S. A new bridge spans the angry creek at the upper end of Main street.

PUBLIC REHEARSAL .- We are requested to an nounce that the choir of the M. E. Church of this borough, will give a public rehearsal at the Methodist Church, Saturday evening, July 22, in aid of a fund to purchase an instrument for the Church: Miss Wood, of Lowell. Mass., will preside at the foster ment, and we have the best of reasons for knowing that the choir has one of the finest entertainments in more for the people of Wellsboro and vicinity and we most heartily commend the entertainment to public patronage. Admission 25 cents. Childr n 15 cents.

GYMRASIUM .- Messrs. F. TRUMAN & E. DESTRUCTIVE FIRE !- About 1 o'clock yesterday morning, the Wool Carding and Cloth Dressing. esublishment owned by Mr. James I. Jackson, on the Charleston road, half a mile cust of this borough, was discovered to be on fire, and in a short time was totelly consumed. The building and machinery were valued at $3000, and being uninsured are a total fost. Tuere was about $1,500 worth of Wool in store also

The fire took near the sill at the north-east co ner, and when first discovered had not reached the i side of the building. This is pretty conclusive evicence of meendiarism. Taking into account the fac' that there had been no fire in the building for many days previous, there is no room for doubt.

The loss falls with great weight and bordship upon Mr. Jackson, who was just on the eve of re noving with his family to the State of Delaware. . le had packed his movables, and would have been on his way to his new home in a few hours. This c lamity will untettle his plans, of course.

We learn that a goodly number of our sitizens were on the ground, though nothing was seen of the Wellsboro Fire Company. A man ran through the streets crying "Fire !" but not loud enough to wake the boys-who sleep soundly while growing.

FIRE AT Troga. We learn that Wells's large tannery at Tioga, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. We have no particulars of moment, but understand that the fire was the work of, an incendiary.

The Monument Question.

MR. EDITOR .- I read with considerable interest the communications of your correspondents—" L. W. G. and "From the River towns," recommending the erection of a monument in memory of the inen of Thosa County who have perished in this war. The subject is one in which every patriot must feel an interest; indeed, I may say that nearly every family has a direct interest in the erection of such a semi-

The plan suggested by "L. W. G.," while it would tot be bad in a county whose wealth was fally developed, can hardly prove practicable in a county like our It would inaugurate local mounments, which cannot, in a new county, be made "to go around." for the reason that not every one, or even five town that, can afford to do justice to their dead in this tapet. But another and more serious cohection to tepect. But another, and more serious objection to bed monuments is that every township or village which boasts of a cemetery would make a point of locality of the control of the control of the cemetery would make a point of locality of the cemetery would make a point of locality of the cemetery would make a point of the cemeter would be cemeter when the cem cating their local monument therein; and this would give rise to perty jealousles, of which, the dear more, we have more than enough already. I therefore substantially agree with your River correspondent, that but one memorial of this kind ought to be erected, and that to this end the liberality of the entire county should be united. The location of the monument should undoubtedly be made as sug'. gested—upon the largest local subscription. It strikes me that this would prove perfectly fair, and nobody could reasonably complain. The competition would be legitimate, free from acrimony, and decisive, if orice agreed upon. Among others, I hope this plan will be adopted.

Supposing a county monument to be agreed upon. it behaves us to agree upon the plan. We ought, certainly, to erect something of which none will be ashamed. Better let it go-better let the rising generation do the work—than to enter upon and prosecate the work in a niggardly manner. I would sug-the gest a pedestal of native conglomerate, say twenty-five feet square at the base, pyramidal in form, and rising to the height of, say twenty feet. Upon this rear a marble column thirty feet high, cylindrical, with an elaborate capitol. The names of the dead might be carved on this shaft, and the battles in which they fought and fell might be put upon its holder into proper pedestal, or base.

The next question will be one of finance. Can we raise the money to defray the cost of such a memo-rial? That will depend upon the means employed. If the ladies who have filled the past four years with labors of love will only take the matter in hand. I have no fears for the result. I see by the papers from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which that the Aid Societies elsewhere are quite generally adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their resolving themselves into Monument Associations; value, according to the rate levied upon other proand in several counties the ground is already broken.

At least half the counties in the State have taken perty. The interest is payable semi-annually by At least half the counties in the State have taken steps to erect the monuments to the illustrious dead of this great war. For one I shall resent the imputation of backwardness upon the part of the people of Tioga County touching so laudable a work. Our people only need organizing to accomplish the labor of love. Who shall systematize, arouse, and stimulate the people? Is there a nobler task awaiting the energies of the willing? I think not. If the several Aid Societies will hold a Convention, and upon free and full conference, decide to moderate its payable semi-annally by covpons attached to each noic, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

A CARD .- For convenience sake, I take this method of saying to my friends and the voters of Tloga in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already County that, in becoming a candidate for Treasurer, I have no intention of opposing a disabled soldier, already in the field; for that would too well suit the arready in the field; for that would too well suit the plans of our friends of a certain complexion, who could then step in and quietly milk the cow, while we should be pulling her by the head and tail.

But as Mr. Bailey has withdrawn from the field, I have consented to place my name before the public as a candidate for Treasurer.

"He made a few desultory remarks," said the schoolmaster. Mrs. Partington stopped suddenly in the bustle she was making around the table for tea, and gazed over her spees thoughtfully at him. Leaning on a plate edgewise, as if to enforce her views by the support it gave her, "I suppose it was because he was weak," said she, "but AYER's PILLS will care him. I never knew'em to fail. They are very solitary in such cases." " Really, madam," replied he. "I cannot guess your meaning." "You said dysentery," said she, laying down the plate and putting a spoon in the preserves. "I said desultory," said he, smiling, "quite adifferent thing."
