We are informed that the burning of Wells, January at Tioga was not the work of an incendiary. That is encouraging.
"A SUNDAY" neglected to sign a name to its communication sent, and so it lies over until we can further guarantee of good faith is received. Willing to publish in that event.

Brevet-Major W. A. Nichols, (late Cap) is stopping with his family in this village for a few days. We are glad to note that he was remembered in the days of reward, no less than in the days of fighting duty.
A RELIC.—Mr. H. D. Deming, late of the 15th, has left with us a pen used at the signing of the papers on the capitulation of Gen. Lee. It is a somewhat coarse article, but would shed light freely on such an occasion we judge.

The Wellbore Petroleum Company is now working a good working trim, and will commence boring in a few days. The location of the first well is not yet fixed upon, but will of necessity be where the best surface indications exist, or in that vicinity.
The Republican State Committee met at Harrisburg on the 19th inst., and fixed upon the 17th of August for the session of the State Convention.
The Woodward party held their State Convention on the 24th of August.

The Boys are Coming Home in squads. Every stage brings a fresh instalment of sun-browns, battle-scarred veterans, many, we are glad to see, as thick as bees and as happy as they can get to be. A thousand welcomes to you, boys.

DEATH OF BISHOP POTTER.—The Rt. Rev. J. ONZO POTTER, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, died at San Francisco on the 4th inst. He was one of the most illustrious Churchmen of the times, and his death will be deeply mourned throughout the country. St. Paul's Church, in this borough, will be draped with emblems of mourning to day, and an appropriate discourse will be delivered by the Rector next Sunday.

CONCERT AT THE METRODIT CHURCH.—The Glee Club's rehearsal last Saturday evening was one of the finest musical entertainments ever given in this village. The programme was well selected and artistically arranged; and its only defect being that it gave too much for the quarter. The members' responses in their parts, and under the direction of Dr. Webb everything went on harmoniously. Not the least among many attractions was the Massé & Hamelin Organ, whose clear, sonorous tones, in the skillful manipulation of Miss Wood, filled the church with melody. The house was well filled, though not crowded. We are glad to hear that the Club will follow this with a series of like entertainments, for which we bespeak a generous patronage.

We have received the Annual Report of the Trustees of the Mansfield Normal School, from which we learn that the Institution is prospering, and fairly advancing to a first place among educational institutions. It is fair to infer that much of its prosperity is owed to the reputation, energy, and indomitable perseverance of its Principal, Prof. F. A. ALLEN, in whose lexicon the word "Failure" is marked obsolete. We rejoice in the increasing vigor of the institution, both as it promises well for the cause of Education, and as its success is in some sort a reward for the fortitude under great discouragements of its projectors.

From this Catalogue, its first, we learn that at the attendance at the close of the School year, 24,249, of whom 84 were males and 165 females. The total expense for School years is $173, and "extra" charges. The Trustees state that all the prizes are taken for the next School year, which beg on the 6th of next September. New buildings are to be erected.

A CARD.—The Committee for the Local Festival given in Covington, on Saturday evening July 22, take pleasure in tendering their hearty thanks to the members of the "Mansfield Brass Band" for the favor of their kind attendance on the occasion.
We are happy to say that our receipts amounted to one hundred and sixty dollars and fifty cents, ($160.50) a large proportion of which we are willing to concede was due to the inspiring influence of the stirring strains so kindly discoursed by the young gentlemen of Mansfield. And whenever they go forth on similar missions of encouragement, it is good will, may they garner as rich a harvest of blessing and pleasure as they have so freely scattered in their recent appearance among the people of Covington.
By order of the Com. Assn.

SOLDIERS' AID SOCIETY.
Since our last report we have sent to the U. S. San. Com. a large box containing articles of a great value. And now our public work is done, and we return to our co-workers our heartfelt thanks for their support and liberal donations. May we not all rejoice that our Society has been a decided success? Now for over three years we have been connected with the Branch of the U. S. San. Com. in Philadelphia, and never since our first organization have we been so abundantly in our success. Always with a liberal fund ahead we have been at liberty to do what we thought best.

In a hasty glance over the Secretary's book, we find that Wellbore alone has forwarded to the Com. 2 boxes and 23 barrels of supplies; also 2 cases of pickles, and when we closed up we had 100 supply articles of clothing and edibles, which we distributed among the poor of our place, besides $500 money; there is also a jug and several bags not yet filled for. Now once more for the last time to our friends who have felt an interest in our doings for the Soldiers, we would say adieu, our race is run, but our hearts are warmer, our sympathies more enlarged by our labors—then, as we withdraw from our public work, let us carry into our homes more than ever heretofore, the spirit of true benevolence.
L. M. HOFFMAN,
Associate Manager, W. P. B.

[We congratulate the members of the Society on this appropriate closing up of the work of their portion of the Grand Charity of the Age. Next to the brave fellows who have borne the flag through so many dread fights, to the loyal Women of the country the nation's thanks are due.]

OBITUARY.—In Alexandria, Va., July 28, 1865 MALCOLM A. ROYCE, of Delmar, Pa., aged 20 years.
He enlisted in Co. I, 4th P. V., in September 1861, and was killed in Jan. 1864. He was a member of the Rebels in the September following, at Petersburg and conducted in Salisbury prison for nearly six months. Of the sufferings endured by our brave soldiers in those horrible dens where abuse and neglect did their fearful work, and deliberate starvation was meted out by a merciless foe destitute of human humanity, the bare recital is sickening. It is almost almost double the truth were it not for the emancipated friends returning to us, many bearing in their systems diseases which doom them to a life of suffering and wretchedness. The mournful tales they bear of toaching hearts at home of the comrades who starved and perished.

After weary months, MALCOLM ROYCE has been reunited with his friends in Delmar. In a day last he rejoined his regiment at Alexandria, Va., in a little over a month nature sank under the disease which prison life had engendered, and after a few days of suffering death closed the scene and another victim was added to the long and fearful list of martyred heroes. His remains were brought back to Delmar and laid to rest near the friends of his youth—there to slumber in the hope of a final and glorious resurrection. He was a brave soldier, a fine young man, and tenderly cherished by the loving friends who so deeply and sincerely mourn his early death.

Wellbore, July 17, 1865. JOHN SHAW.

THE ATLANTIC MAGAZINE, seems to ripen in excellence as the summer goes by. "Fire-side Strategy" contains incident enough for a two-volume historical domestic novel, only there is nothing melodramatic in the denouement. There is a good narrative—"My Second Capture"—in which the way an officer got in and out of rebel limbo, is graphically told. But one of the most readable things in the August number is the review of Appleton's reprint of a British book called "The Gentle Life." There is more real critical grit exhibited than we ever noticed in an American review. The writer wields a blade like Saladin's scimitar. The August number may be purchased at the Bookstore.

"OUR YOUNG FOLKS."—Very unlucky are such of our young folks as have not become subscribers to this most delightful serial. Its pages have a magic about them which captivates all, young and old. It is the only one in the year in a literary way. Its cost is so little that few families need be without it $2 a year. Address Ticknor & Field, Boston, Mass.
We acknowledge the receipt of the second and third volumes of Messrs. Ticknor & Field's beautiful series of "Companion Poets for the People," being the Household Words of the best modern American and British poets. The second volume is compiled of Tenneyson, and contains all that most people most like in his poems. The third volume is by our own good Whittier, and is a most charming book. It is entitled "National Lyrics." "Lyrics of Life," by Robert Browning, is next announced, to be followed by "Humorous Poems," by Holmes, and "Religious Poems," by Mrs. Stowe. These volumes are finely illustrated. They will be sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of the price—50 cents. They may also be procured of Mr. H. Young, at the Wellbore Bookstore.

Thousands of our soldiers and their families in every part of the country are now seeking a reliable pension, etc., from the Government. All such are referred to W. B. SARRIS, of Knoxville, Tioga County, Pa., a Pension Agency worthy of entire confidence.
A CARD.—For convenience sake, I take this method of saying to my friends and the voters of this County that, in becoming a candidate for Treasurer, I have no intention of opposing a disabled soldier, already in the field; for that would too well suit the plans of our friends of a certain complexion, who could then step in and quietly milk the cow, while we are busy with the poller by the poller.
But as Mr. Bailey has withdrawn from the field, I have consented to place my name before the public as a candidate for Treasurer.
Becoming an opponent to the two remaining candidates, who are men of high character and honorable gentlemen, it is with the intention of making a little fight entirely bloodless, amicable and friendly—with each one for himself, and Jeff. Davis's patron, for the hindmost. Delmar, July 12, 1865. GEO. W. MARRICK.

The brief period of ten days has seen this family bereft of an only son and two lovely daughters. Mysterious are the providences of God! yet let us not forget that "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth."

U. S. 7-30 Loan.
THIRD SERIES.
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent interest per annum, known as the 7-30 LOAN.
These notes are issued under the date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.
GOLD-BEARING BONDS.
These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7-30 per cent. amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " $100
Ten " " " $500
20 " " " $1000
$1 " " " $5000.

Notes of all the denominations, named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.
The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold at 6 per cent, instead of 7 3/10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.
The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-Thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.
The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would be reduced, and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three tenths per cent. in currency. This is

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.
Less than $250,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within two months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Banks throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.
JAY COOKE,
Subscription Agent, Philadelphia.

Subscriptions will be received by the FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Wellbore, and TIOGA CO. BANK.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN.—

The County of Tioga proposes to raise $25000, by a loan to be secured by Bonds of said County at 7 3/10ths per cent. interest, the Bonds to be payable from 3 to 10 years from date with annual interest at the above rate, and to be issued in amounts to suit the needs of the first day of August.
This loan becomes necessary on account of the inability of the county to realize any portion of the County and Bounty Taxes, upon Unsettled Lands until June, 1865, and also to pay the interest upon the last issue of Bonds going to fill the last fall Quota, and the deficiency in the amount of Taxes to meet the next instalments. All persons, Companies, or Corporations willing to aid the county in its efforts to meet punctually the County Bonds now outstanding and interest, are requested to notify the Commissioners on or before the 1st day of September next.
