

A Theatrical Incident.

Some years ago, the manager of a well regulated theatre, somewhere along the line of the Erie Canal, engaged a good-looking and bony young lady as a supernumerary. It happened that the young lady in question had formerly officiated as a "hand" on board a canal boat, a fact which was extremely anxious to conceal. She evinced such anxiety to master the details of her newly chosen profession, and soon exhibited a more than ordinary degree of comic talent. She was daily promoted, and in time became a general favorite with both the manager and the public. One night she was announced to appear in a favorite part, a couple of boatmen found their way into the pit, near the footlights, particularly anxious to see the new famous comedienne. The house was crowded, and after the subsidence of the general applause which greeted her appearance, one of the boatmen clasped his companion on the shoulder, and with an emphatic expletive, exclaimed loud enough to be heard over half the house: "Bill, I know that gal!" "Pshaw!" said Bill, "dry up!" "But I'm darned if I don't know her, Bill. It's the gal that used to be on the boat, the gal that used to sail with me!" "Tom!" said Bill, "you're a fool, and if you don't stop your infernal snacking, you'll get put out!" "Sal Flukins! You know a sight if you think that's her!" "Tom was silenced, but not convinced. He watched the actress in all her actions with intense interest, and ere long broke out again: "I tell you, Bill, that's her—I know 'tis. You can't fool me—I know her too well!" "Bill, who's a good deal interested in the play, was out of all patience at this persistent interruption on the part of Tom. He gave him a tremendous nudge in the ribs with his elbow, as an emphatic hint for him to keep quiet. Tom without minding the admonition, said: "You just wait—I'll fix her, keep your eye on me." Sure enough he did fix her. Watching his opportunity when the actress was deeply absorbed in her part, he sung out in a voice that rang through the galleries: "Low Bridge!" From force of habit, the actress instantly and involuntarily ducked her head to avoid the anticipated collision. Down came the house with a perfect thunder of applause at this "palpable hit," high above which Tom's voice could be heard, as he returned Bill's punch in the ribs with as great interest: "Didn't I tell you, old boy, I know'd 'twas her. You couldn't fool me."

THE SIMPLE SECRET.—Twenty clerks in a store, twenty hands in a printing office—twenty young men in a village. All want to get along in the world, and expect to do so. One of the clerks will rise to be a partner and make a fortune. One of the printers will own a newspaper and become an influential and prosperous citizen. One of the villagers will get a handsome farm, and live like a patriarch. But which is destined to become the lucky? There is no luck about it. The thing is almost as sure as the Rule of Three. The young fellow who will distance his competitors is he who masters his business, who preserves his integrity, who lives cleanly and purely, who never gets in debt, who gains friends by deserving them. There are some ways to fortune that look shorter than this old dusty highway. But the staunch men of the community, the men who achieve something really worth having—good fortune, good name, and a serene old age—all go this way.

WOOD'S IMPROVED PRIZE GRASS MOWER.—The advantages of this machine over all others, is its simplicity of construction, light and durability, absence of clogging, light weight, and will cut all kinds of grass, wet or dry, lodged or standing. It has no side draft, no weight on the horse necks, cutter bar can be raised with ease, and in an instant pass obstructions. It is the cheapest and best mower in market. It has been tested in the most premium of any mowers in the world. Farmers can not find a better mower, a one can pay for one easier than ever again. It will kill less farmers' produce to pay for one of these machines this year than it ever did before. All kinds of fixtures can be procured by leaving orders with Fever and inflammation are vital actions. Disease is obstructed vital action. The great question to be decided is, where is the obstruction and the proper remedy. Dr. Van Horne, by a Phrenological examination of the head and other organs can detect obstruction and give remedies that act in harmony with the Laws of Life without debility. A GOOD INVESTMENT!

There is no better investment than the 7-30 Loan, but all families have to make other investments in the way of Family articles, and if they can be purchased at a saving from the regular rates, it makes a good investment.

I claim to be selling all kinds of goods that I deal in, such as mentioned below, at as reasonable rates as any firm in the State, and at great deal lower than a large proportion of dealers. The advantages I claim are, a larger sale of goods in proportion to my expenses than most any house in the country, also no losses by old goods or credit accounts. I do not carry a very heavy stock, but intend to keep all goods that can be sold to advantage, making no leads as is customary in many houses to draw trade; selling a few goods very low and making up on others, but selling all goods at a very low scale of profits, and giving small buyers as good a chance as large ones. I believe that one man's money is as good as another's and should buy as many goods as the money is Greenbacks, and will not consent to compete on the

JEV PRINCIPLE.

All goods we have in the house are marked in plain figures at the price we can afford to sell them.

Particular attention is invited to the following departments, as containing a great many bargains in

SEASONABLE GOODS.

DRESS GOODS.

This Stock is large and new, at very low prices, the reduction being from 25 to 60 per cent. from early Spring Prices.

CLOAKS, WALKING SACQUES, CLOAK CLOTHS, TRIMMINGS, &c.

We make this a specialty, and can not be beat by any one, as our numerous customers can testify.

SUN UMBRELLAS.

All sizes—about as cheap as ever.

CHEAP PANT CLOTH for common wear. A large stock.

HOUSEKEEPING GOODS.

Such as Table Linen, Toweling, Napkins, Table Spreads, &c., bought at the low rates of April.

BOOTS & SHOES.

We will not be undersold in any goods in this line.

HOOP SKIRTS.

All kinds and sizes at but little more than old rates.

CARPETS.

We have fitted up a large, convenient, and well lighted room, and put in a good stock of Carpets bought at the low rates of last month, which are now selling at the prices made then; notwithstanding the great advance in goods. Any one in need of such goods can well afford to buy now as they will be no lower this season.

I shall continue to try and deserve the liberal share of trade, I have yearly received from this and neighboring counties, and if good goods sold at the bottom of this market, and fair dealing in every way will hold true, I will not lose mine.

September 1st, 1863.

FROM THIS DATE, FOR READY PAY ONLY! CUSTOM BOOTS AND SHOES; Leather, Findings, &c. CASH PAID FOR HIDES, PELTS, DEER SKINS AND FURS.

DR. FRANKLIN SAYS:

"When you have anything to advertise, tell the public of it in plain, simple language." I am manufacturing good custom made Boots and Shoes which I will sell at fair prices, and only for READY PAY. Such work cannot be sold at low rates per pair as eastern made slip-work, but it can and will be sold at prices which will enable the purchaser to protect his feet with good substantial boots more cheaply than with a poor slip-work article, which, even if it chanced not to fall in pieces with the first weeks service, is but a doubtful protection in wet and cold weather. Try me.

Buck and Doeskins Wanted, in the red and short blue, for which I will pay cash and good price.

Beef-Hides and Calfskins Wanted, or which I will also pay cash.

Sheep Pelts Wanted, for which I will also pay cash and the highest market price.
