OUR CANDIDATES.

If harmony and good feeling give evidence of health and vigor, the proceeding of the Convention of last Friday must go far to establish the repute of Tioga county for sound political health and an unimpaired Constitution. In composition, intelligence, temper, and business capacity, it is the universally expressed opinion that it took precedence of all its predecessors in this county. Its unanimity was decidedly marked, all its nominations, save two,

Of Hon. H. W. WILLIAMS, the nominee for Additional Law Judge of this Judicial District, we can repeat the favorable mention we have heretofore made. His talents and attainments are of a high order and undisputed wherever he is known. We learn from members of the bar, and others, residing in the counties composing the western portion of the district, in which he held the May term courts, that he displayed unusual qualifications and Brown. It has been alleged the I wrote to the President, asking that my regiftent be sent to the front.

Had I done such a thing,-direc as asserted -it would have broken my compission and dismissed me from the service; b cause, such communications have to be sent shrough the regularlichannels, and so of course, it would bave to pass through Regimentul Head Quarteri-and there it would appear of the record. That rather see a certified copy of the record, than to take some men's word for t. It would seem from all I hear, that I was lery fond of getting myself into trouble-and y the record don't say so. But assertion gues writher with some than proof.-

When the regiment was ordered to the front, I was, and had been for ten days, a member of a general Court-Mortial, sitting : Chambers. burg, and the first I knew of the regiment being ordered front, was, an order to join my command, which had been ordere I to rendezyous at Harrisburg,-organize, a' d report as soon as possible, at Washington -- which we did. Tobeyed orders, as every officer and soldier has to do: The occasion of our going front was that almost disastrous battle of the Wilderness. Gen. Couch was or leved to send every available man to the arm?, and he did send all but forty men, which wat the number that he had in his department toulefend Chambersburg, when that Oity was bu ned.

THIRD, It is complained that a gave orders in the regiment that were object mable. Let me state here for the bed fit of all concerned, that I never was in co mand of the 187th regiment, except about two, hours, on the 18th of June, 1864, -the last twi hours that I was with it, during, the third cys battle in front of Petersburg-and should for have been in command then-only the Co onel ran the wrong way-and being the senior officer present, the command devolved on me

Previous to that time, all orders ever given, the Colonel in command, - and if they were wrong, who was to blame ?--whe responsible ? An order was given, it is asser-ed, by myself, to shoot any man who could not eep up on the march. We were marching it the enemy's country-to straggle beyond the ines was certain capture-an order was git in to the rear-guard, to leave no men behin -and fifteen guard, miles is the greatest distance ve marched in one day, while joining the army, to allow no man to straggle-a common ord'r in the army -necessary for every man's safe y. The order was: to bring all men along, et en if you had to use the bayonet, not to men 3 tho could not walk-we had ambulances for them-but to men who would not. The order was given by the Colonel in command, and 'ransmitted by myself to the regiment-such or ers must be,all are not saints in the army-s me are "bum-mers" and some "play off;"-isk old soldiers about such orders. FOURTE. Some fellow who must draw his breath from the infernal regions, shocks deceney and finds believers, by saying ! I do not care for the loss of my leg-rather have the pension, than the leg.

All'I have to say to such monsti sus depravity is that I should certainly like it long enough to introduce it to him.

Listly, in this interesting collection, is the assertion that I was shot by my wn men,-as dark and damnable a falsehood at ever fell from human lips, over which devile m ist hold high carnival and Satan himself preside.

The facts in this case, as in the others, are known. Let any man who has said this, dare to come out and say it publicly, o? over his own signature, and he can have an "pportunity to make his words good.

These are but a part-but enough to mention bere-of the scandalous slanders put in circufitness for the high position, and gave marked Tation, and they did well the part they were satisfaction in the discharge of its duties. This intended to perform.

Now I challenge any enemy of mine-and I have the enmity of men whose fiendship I do pot ask ; you show me a man wip has no enemies, and I will show you a can with very little integrity and decision of character-who would not do his duty under all sircumstances. A man whom no man wishes ill, must have been born with his hands in his pockets and his tongue tied : the enmity that I have incurred, I would incur again a thousand times, under the like circumstances -and now I challenge, I say, any accuser of mine, to come out like a man, and before the people of the county seat, publicly make his charges, and if I can not disprove and refute them-then I will abide the result. But if one or more will not. Sthus openly prefer their charged, and hear my definie. then let them forever h id their peace, and their back-wounding calo bny, or be set Town as inprincipled and unst rupulous slanderers and calumniators ! These trumped up charges sometimes rebound and suggest to sensible people the story of the "mits and beam;" and to say the least, it is not the sign of a "good soldier, to whine when him has to meet danger and the enemy,-although it is some-"times convenient to find a scape goat. Fi would suit me well, to have these things. "and all others, as openly and plainly stated wow is they have been venomically reiterated of late-asking only fairness, 110t favor. 'An 'impartial judge hears both side: before giving ·bis decision-I only await th courage and candor of my defamers, to statt mine.

and education, and in all respects worthy of AGITATOR. preferment. He was Sergeant Major of the 207th regiment, and lost an arm in the desperate fight before Petersburg last April.

Such is the ticket presented for the suffrages of the unconditionally loyal-freemen of Tioga. There is not a man on the ticket who has not been, heart and hand, an earnest and unequivocal supporter of the Government from the beginning of the war for Freedom to the present hour. Our common duty is to go to work vigorously and elect them. In justice to the Union State ticket we must repeat our majority of last fall. Our opponents are sleepless. The hour when Republicans can safely sit down and wait for success has not arrived. Labor and sleepless vigilance, unconquerable love of Right and hatred of Wrong-these are the only safeguards of civil liberty.

Perhaps the most laughable instance of selfstultification on record is that which may be found in the nominations of the Copperhead State Convention, held at Harrisburg last Thursday. That Convention nominated as its candidate for Auditor General, Col. W. H. H. DAVIS, of Bucks county.

Now the Copperhead party of Pennsylvania from the beginning of the war for national existence has persistently declared, that the war was begun and waged as "an Abolition War," cruel, unnecessary, destructive of civil liberey, and in manifest violation of the Constitution. Now Col. Davis has been an active participant in this "Abolition war ;" this war upon civil liberty; this war upon the Constitution; this cruel, relentless persecution of the South ; this (to quote from the Chicago platform) "four years of failure."

The question now arises : Is the nomination of Col. W. H. H. Davis, the active participator in "an abolition war," de., de., to be taken as a recognition of, and a reward for his patriotic services; or is it strategy, of the G. B. McClellan order ; or is it the effect of the sudden, unlooked for, and undesired collapse of the rebellion ? Which ?

But we forget; the Democracy, like the Ethiop and the leopard, change not. They still regard the war as a failure, an abolition war, a war upon Constitutional rights; and so regarding it they nominate one of "Lincoln's hirelings" to lead their State ticket 1

What delicate sarcasm 1

It reminds us of the rate and the meal-tub; the only difference being, that when you take Col. Davis off the ticket you will find, not the cunning old cat, but that same venomous old spake that crawled into his hole when Lee surrendered.

It won't do, gentlemen ; the trick is too thin.

The Jersey Shore Herald republishes an old and abandoned quibble on the word "loyal." The editor fortifies the quibble by assert that the meaning of the word cannot have dergone change. The meaning of all defi tive terms always is modified by circamst ces of condition and application. Thus, a izen of the United States is loyal to the g ernment; a British subject is loyal to mouth piece of a king, or emperor; whereas, the Jersey Shore Herald seems to be but the monthpiece of Messrs. Piatt & Gamble, neither of whom can be called king, or sovereign. We venture so much for the information of Republican Co. Convention.

the neople lately in rebellion, in the judgment of this Convention, has not been accepted in the spirit of honest loyalty and gratitude ; but with such evidence of defiance and hostility as to compel us to the conviction that they cannot safely be entrusted with the political rights which they forfeited by their treason until they have proved their acceptance of the result of the war, by co-operation in constitutional provisions, and giving to all men within their borders their inalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Fourth. That having conquered the rebellious States they should be held in subjection. and the treatment they are to receive and the laws which are to govern them should be re ferred to the law-making power of the nation, to which it legitimately belongs.

Fifth. That as the late Rebellion was wantonly precipitated by the property holders of the South, it is but just that they should pay the expenses of the war, and Congress should declare as forfeited and vested in the .Government the property of all Rebels whose estates exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars, and that the proceeds of the property so confiscated should be applied to increase the pensions of those entitled thereto by the casualties of the war, to pay the damages done by the enemy to loyal citizens, and to reduce the burden of the national debt.

Sixth. That it is the duty of Congress so to revise the revenue laws as to afford increased protection to American industry, to secure the development of the industrial wealth of the people, to render labor profitable and remanerative, to build up a home market for our agricul. turists, to attract capital to the mineral fields of the country, and to provide revenue for the maintenance of the public credit; and this Convention recognizes the chief enemy to a policy of protection in that European power which for four years has furnished piratical vessels of war to the Rebels. and thus endeavored to drive our commerce from the seas.

Seventh. That any attempt by foreign nations to establish a monarchical government on this continent is evidence of a design to destroy republican institutions. Regard for our own safety and for the future scentity of the Republic demands that no such attempt shall succeed.

Eighth. That it is the duty of Congress to secure the full Federal bounty to all honorably discharged soldiers, irrespective of the date of their enlistment.

Ninth. That we recognize in Edwin M. Stanton, the fearless, honest, and able head of the Department of War, a public servant who has deserved well of his country, and has borne himself so clear in his great office as to merit the earnest gratitude of all loyal men, and we tender to him, and to his distinguished colleagues in the Cabinet, our thanks for their valuable services in the cause of liberty and law.

Tenth. That the constant devotion of Governor Cartin to the best interests of the State and nation during the last four years, and his indefutigable efforts on all occasions to pay the just debt of gratitude we owe our national defenders, not merely by words but also by deeds, entitles him to the thanks of every loyal oiti zen of Pennsylvania.

Eleventh. That this Convention, represent ing the loyal people of Pennsylvania, recognize the claims of our citizen soldiers on our confidence and gratitude, and that in nominations for offices an especial regard should be paid to the claims of those who have faithfully served their country in the army or navy in the suppression of the Rebellion.

Twelfth. That the leaders of the Democrat ic party stand arraigned before the people of Pennsylvania for constantly obstructing the efforts of the constituted authorities to maintain the life of the Republic. They did this by inflaming the passions of their ignorant followers against the legally elected officers of the Federal Government, and refraining from all re-12 votes | proaches against treason or armed traitors; by 22 votes procuring a decision from the Democratic Jadges There being no choice, the Convention pro- of our Supreme Court denying the right of the ceeded to a second ballot, with the following Government to the services of the citizens of

Wellsboro, Aug. 30, 1865-tf. A. FOLEY. THE WELLSBORO ACADEMY .-

The Trustees of the Wellsboro Academy are gradfied in being able to state to the public that they have succeeded in organizing a Board of Instruction, and in making such arrangements that they can confi-dently promise that the school will be a decided suc-cess and will not be exceeded in thoroughness and range of studies, by any Institution of the kind in Northern Pennsylvania. - The Board of Instruction will consist of the following Teachers:

Prof. D. D. VAN ALLEN, A. B., late Professor of Natural Sciences and Modern Languages, in the Dans. ville (N. Y..) Seminary, is a graduate of one of the best New York Colleges, and has already enrued a wide and favorable reputation as an Instructor and Disciplinarian. His varied experience of five years in prominent schools of New-York has eminently fitted him for the responsible position which he is about to cocupy. "He is a thorough-going scholar, and has had unu-sucl good success as a Teacher."--Prof. Ford, Elmira

HOLLAND, Vice-Preceptress, is a gradu-ate of the Elmira Female Academy, in which Indu-tion she gained a high roputation for acturate and thorough scholarship. The Principal of the Academy says of her: "Miss H. is a young woman of the very best qualifications for the teachers' work, and she nossenses, in addition, what is a service here it is possesses, in addition, what is as available as it is rare, great enthusiasm and love for the service." Mrs. JULIET SEREWOOD and Miss H. W. TODD, both experienced teachers will be connected with the Acad-emy and give instruction in Vocal and Instrumental Music. Mrs. MARY BRYDEN will teach Drawing and Painting, both in oil and water colors. Music will be taught at the residences of the teachers, or at the houses of the pupils having instruments and residing in Wellsboro, as may be desired, and each pupil will be left perfectly free to select her own teacher, the Principal not at all interfering in that branch. Mrs. Bryden will also occupy a studio in her own house, separate and apart from the Academy buildings. Mr. Van Allen is a graduate of one of the best and most practical of the New York Colleges, is an experienced and seccessful teacher, a man of great energy of character, and will make the Academy a working Institution. Miss Van Allen is a teacher also of large experience, has always been successful in her vocation, is well qualified for the position of Preceptress, and will no doubt, be an able adjunct to her brother, the Principal, in the well ordering and government of the School Miss Holland is a young lady of great force and earnestnses of character, a graduate of a first class Female Seminary, in which she took a high rank ss a student and has had some experience in teaching. Of Mrs. Sherwood and Miss Todd nothing need be said to the citizens of Wellsboro. They are too well known here as excellent teachers as well as excellent women to need any endorsement by the trustees. To those coming from abroad, we will, however, say that they will justify any confidence that may be placed in them, both as teachers and christian ladies All that is said above may also be said of Mrs. Bryden. She is a woman of excellent taste, has had experience in teaching and is devoted to Painting as an art. She has now a plass at her own house. The School will be opened on THURSDAY, the 7th day of September. September. J. L. ROBINSON, Pres't, WILLFAM BACHE, JOHN R. BOWEN, LEVI I. NICHOLS, Trustees.

DE. WM. T. HUMPHREY, the nominee for Assembly; is well and favorably known as a skillful and popular physician in this county. He is not less favorably known in that portion of the Army of the Potomas composed of the famons Pennsylvania Reserves. He entered the service on the breaking out of the war as Surgeon of the "Old Bucktails," and rose so rapidly in reputation in the Surgeon-General's Office that he was promoted to the 'position of a Medical Director, which position he filled with credit up to the time of his honorable discharge but a few months prior to the collapse of the rebellion. Dr. Humphrey is a man of strong, practical mind, and will reflect credit upon the choice of the people of his district. J. B. NILLS, Esq., our candidate for District Attorney, is so well and favorably known as the present incumbent of that office, as well as one of the most industrious and talented members of the Tioga bar, that further mention is needless. He has come up from the ranks by dint of excellent natural abilities; disciplined by unremitting effort and a perseverance that deserves, and will receive, recognition.

NEW YORK, August 4th. FRIEND REID: Thank you for yours of the 3d. Your inquiries are laughable. The facts are these:

We elect an editor of the Tribune annually by a stock vote (one hundred shares one vote each.) Once, many years ago, two votes were cast against me for editor-none before nor since.

I have never heard that any stockholder desired my withdrawal from the Tribune.

I mean to reduce my work on it at the ear liest moment, and have so stated to all who have a right to know. I am overwhelmed with labor. I grow old, and want rest and comfort. My idea is to get somebody else to take the laboring oar, receive the kicks and cuffs, and let me farm a little, travel a little, fish some. and write when in the spirit. Such is my dream. I hope to realize at least a part of it during the year 1866, but I may not till some time later. You know how circumstances control everything. At present I am writing about an average of two columns per day for the Tribune-too much; I mean to write less whenever I can.

That's all I know about the matter. Perhaps they know more at the Herald office. Vol, II., I grieve to say, does not get on so fast as it should. I have too much other work, As be has proved faithful and efficient in the a very sick wife, and am not very well myself, office he now fills, the people can ask no better | and the weather is good for corn and turnips, evidence of his fitness and capability for the but bad for history. The Union Party of Pennsylvania, in State Convention assembled, declare,

First. That as representatives of the loval people of this Commonwealth, we reverently desire to offer our gratitude to Almighty God, whose favor has vouchsafed victory to the National arms, enabled us to eradicate the crime of slavery from our land, to render treason against the Republic impossible for evermore, and next to Him, our thanks are due, and are hereby tendered to our brave soldiers and sailors, who, by their endurance, sacrifices and il- the working men of Pennsylvania from Britishlustrious heroism, have secured to their country peace, and to the down-trodden everywhere an asylum of liberty; who have shown that the war for the restoration of the Union is not a failure, and whose valor has proven for all time the fact that this Government of the people, by the people, for the people, is as invincible in its strength as it has been efficient in its operations. Second. That, revering the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the great martyr of liberty, we cannot show greater honor to his name than by a generous support of his fellow patrict and successor, Andrew Johnson, the President of the United States, who has been called to complete the task he had left unfinished. His unbending patriotism in the past is a sure guaranty that in the momentous future the authority of the Government will be upheld and the rights secured.

Third. That the mild and generous method

this State for the defence of their imperiled 7 votes | country; by discouraging men from volunteer-24 votes | ing into the armies of the Union, thus render-12 votes ing it necessary to succumb to treason or pay 26 votes large bounties, and so burdening every ward. township and borough in the State with debt to fill the ranks of our armies; by opposing the enlistment of negroes for our defense, although one white man less was required for every black one who could be enlisted, and this nated for Auditor for one year, by acclamation. at the very moment when the battle of Gettys-Messrs. D. Heise and E. P. Deane, both of burg was raging on the soil of Penneylvania, Delmar, were severally named for the office of and the result of that decisive battle was un-County Surveyor. After a brief discussion, the certain ; by denying to our soldiers the right names of both gentlemen were withdrawn, and to vote while fighting for the flag of our fathers, the name of Mr. Darius L. Deane, of Delmar | on the plea that such rights were not allowed was presented, in lieu thereof; when on mo- by our Constitution, and by opposing an amendtion, Darius L. Deane was nominated for the ment which removed their objections and exempted our brave soldiers from this disability; by exaggerating the public indebtedness, denying the public credit, and teaching that the resources of the North were unequal to the suppression of the Rebellion ; by a shameful opposition to measures extending relief to the families of Union soldiers, and by a malignant sitting at Harrisburg, meeting with the appro- effort by these means to insure the success of val of this Committee, we would reccommend the Rebels in the field, or such a protraction of this Convention to adopt the same,--which are the war as would exhaust the nation in its effort to subdue their friends; by now heaping abuse upon the Government for punishing ass assins and their accomplices; by demanding; the release of leading traitors; by frowning down all attempts to bring to punishment the fiends who starved our soldiers, and by assuring Rebels that neither in person or property shall they be punished for their crimes. And, if anything were wanting to complete their imfamy, we have it in their determined opposition to free labor, and to a tariff which, while it would make labor profitable by protecting competition, would largely increase the revenue essential to the maintenance of public faith and credit.

That in addition to the above we recommend the following: That the voting population of a County should determine the amount of its representation in a Political conference. That the adoption of such a basis of representation in the several conferences would be just, equitable, and consonant with the spirit of our institutions and that we request our conferees to bring this subject to the attention of the representatives of the several counties, with which we are connected.

All of which is respectfully submitted. S. B. ELLIOTT, Chairman,

J. G. PARKHUST, Sec'y. The following named gentlemen were appointed Conferees to meet with Conferees from Potand liberties of all the citizens of the Republic ter, McKean, Elk, and Cameron Counties, in Judicial Conference, and with Conferences from Potter, McKean and Clinton, County, in
