THE TIUGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

Stranger 2 War at 1 will stand by him and Congress in co apelling them to soknowledge our triumph and their defeat, Slavery is dead, and must and shall be buried. The spirit of slavery must die and be baried with it. The aristocracy of the South. which has fostered and upheld sla ery, and which inaugurated the late terrible c.vil war. must be shorn of its power. Already it is at work stirring up opposition to the pol by of the Government, and creating hostility a d bitterness among the people. For two vars we carried on the war without striking at he cause of the war; indeed, we rather gua; led and protected it. At last, Abraham Line in, when his time had come, on the memorablel st day of January, 1863, struck at slavery. The result is before us. And yet it still stimes as if no lessons are sufficient to reach the uthors of the rebellion. It is fast becoming manifest that no permanent peace, even with he death of slavery, can be secured until the acthors and supporters of slavery are subdued. In the words of our present patriotic President, "This aristocracy is antagonistic to the pirciples of free democratic government, and the time bas come when this rebellious element of Aristocracy must be punished. The time has 4 ine when their lands must be confiscated, they istocracy must be put down, and their possessi 'is divided among the worthier laborers of the had. This result will throw into our National Treasury many millions of dollars justly firfe ted by the treason of their former owners.

What loyal man can object that by means of this fund a few of the comforts, if not the luxuries of life, should be added to the tables of those widows throughout the land whose firesides have been made desolate by the war, or rather by the treason which caused it? Who will object that the bounties and "jensions of our soldiers, by whom the victory we won and the nation saved, should, be increased and a triffe added to the pecuniary comp insation so justly due them for the sacrifices mide? Who can object that by means of thesi funds so justly forfeited a large portion of fir national debt should be extinguished, and hereby the taxes of all classes of our people | iminished, and a mart of the heavy load impos i upon the shoulders of our people by treast a thus remored by treason itself? Having proclaimed the freedom of the slave, let us jot weaken ourselves or endanger his condition by any controversy among ourselves about his present position or the extent of his privilagis, but care fully and surely provide that the fixedom thus proclaimed shall be firmly and irr vocably established and secured through all time to come. Let unity of action and a cheerful sequiescence in the decision of the majority mails our deliberations; let the glory, perpetuity, and success of our common country, alone, be our object, and all will be well.

HENRY W. WILLIAMS, of Wellsboro. FOR ASSEMBLY.

DR. WM. T. HUMPHREY, of Oceola. FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY,

JEROME B. NILES, of Middlebury.

FOR TREASURER, CHARLES F. MILLER, of Tioga.

FOR COMMISSIONER, EPHRAIM HART, of Charleston.

POR AUDITORS, DAVID L. AIKEN, of Tioga, 3 years, CHARLES F. VEIL, of Liberty, 1 year.

CORRECTION .- A very mortifying omission occurred in our notice of candidates last week, by which Mr. E. HART, our worthy friend and neighbor, the candidate for Commissioner, was passed over without mention. It being our custom when pressed for time to put editorial into type without committing it to paper; and on the occasion referred to being constantly interrupted by business calls, we "lost copy."

We can assure the freemen of Tioga that they have in their candidate for Commissioner a man whose integrity has never known stain, and, whose character as a man, and as a servant of the public, ranks first-class. We have known him intimately for eleven years, and therefore know what we affirm. He will discharge the duties of the office for which he is named with ability and conscientious fidelity.

NO BETTER, THANK YOU!

Once upon a time (so goes the story) there lived an old fellow whose bodily ills were more in number than his fingers and toes, counted together. And, as often happens in such cases, the doctors disagreed. A majority of them agreed that the old fellow was breaking down under the weight of a life of debauchery and unbridled excess ; but some thought it possible to eradicate a part of the diseases under which he groaned, so that he might eke out the balance of an ill-spent life in reasonable peace. To this and the doctors set to work. They bled, and cupped, and leeched, and puked, and purged ; they administered tonics, and alteratives; they drenched his stupid internals with mineral waters ; they prescribed rest, and exercise; they enjoined a generous diet; and aba no other man on the same rolls. "But in addi- stinence; and they prescribed mountain bir, and sea breezes; and by some means they succeeded in putting all the old gentleman's complaints into a sort of comatose state, save one. One trouble, he declared to be as bad as ever, and beyond their united skill. When questioned as to the nature of that obstinate ill, he refused the desired information and turned enappish. On being pressed to disclose the symptoms on all hands, and on many occasions. the old man lost his temper entirely, and facing his persecutors exclaimed ; "You infernal, meddlesome scoundrels !' D've'think I'm going to let you knock the foundation from under my constitutional right to grant and groan !" Nearly every Copperhead sheet we open is a fresh reminder of this obstinate old gentleman who "enjoyed very poor health, thank you." A grave council of political doctors has been deliberating over the remains of the democratic party for a long period of time. Their prescriptions have failed to effect anything like a cure for the complication of diseases which so sorely afflicts that poor old body. In fact, the enile fellow is determined not to waive his constitutional right to groan. Let him groan. Not long ago these Coppery editors filled the and with an interblended noise of bitter invective against the Administration, condemnation of the war and its objects, and wails for a slaughter occasioned by the hobnobbing of the faction which they champion with treason during the last dozen years of its power. But the rebellion perished in a sudden, to them an unlooked for and undesired collapse; and the modern Othello awoke one fine morning to find his occupation gone. For a brief period there was comparative silence in the semi-rebel lines. And but for the " marder of Booth," and the ' treble murder of Mrs. Suratt, Payne, and Atzerott,"-as these editors were fond of defining the execution of the four assassine, probably there might have been silence in the camp | county in the State would have been forced to of political Ishmael to this day. But of late a new disease has set in ; and unless some composing bolus be administered there is danger that the constitutional right of promises and platforms are likely to be worth. the patient to groan may expire by limitation. The new disease is "Inequality of Taxation." The fact that Congress exempted the bonds and notes which constitute the evidence of the public debt incurred in the late war from taxation, is made the theme of column upon column of furious denunciation. Not to delay, lic indebtedness! You haven't forgot that, let us look at the facts :

not have been carried on without resort to bor. In a lugubrious commentary upon the recent funds and invest in public stocks :

Therefore, the Government went into the money market like any other borrower, having the means to make its notes preferable to any others. It was legitimate traffic; and aided rain. by its legal advantage, the Government and ceeded in getting all the cash it wanted, at the same time establishing its credit, at home and abroad, on a firmer foundation than it ever had

So it came to pass that the friends of the renublic preferred its securities before all others. before real estate, even ; and the sympathizers with treason, not believing in the stability of the Government, refused to lend ; and now the latter are raving because the Government creditors .pay no local tax on their investments, while those who churlishly refused to assist the Government in its distress, and invested in fancy-stocks, or real estate, find themselves confronted by the tax gatherer at every corner.

It is a clear case of misplaced confidence. But these attempted destroyers of the public credit are caught in their own trap. They failed, and must take the consequences of failure. Many men called in their capital at a sacrifice and paid it into the common treasury: These grumblers stood by and sneered. Now they may gnash their teeth and howl about the inequality of taxation to their fill. We understand them; in two years they will talk about Repudiation. This growl is the distant muttering of the storm.

Restore this unprincipled party to power, and they will signalize their restoration by repudiating National and State indebtedness contracted to prosecute the war for national existence I

" DEMOCRATIC" Co. CONVENTION .--- We publish elsewhere, for public information, the official report of that deliberate body, together with the resolutions adopted. We were unable to be present, but from old residenters we earn that not more, and probably less than half of the county was represented in the Convention. It will doubtless occur to others as it does to us, that the "Democratic" party of this county has changed hands; for in looking over the report we miss the names of Mesars. Henry and D. L. Sherwood, Stephen Pierce, Apollos Pitts, M. F. Elliott, and others, and recognize none save that of the venerable Chairman, who was taken in, we suppose, to keep the new proprietors in countenance. Manifold are the mutations in earthly affairs : but this reminds us of the play of Hamlet with Hamlet omitted. It must be all right; the old proprietors have had a long and fruitless tussel with unparallelled adversity, and can properly retire upon their honors. So, welcome Young War Esgles !

The ticket is a very good one. To the candidates personally, we make no objection. But we feel it to be a duty to put in a plea in bar of their election. We shall not consent to the wresting of our old acquaintance, KIRKENDALL, from the domestic and rural delights of his retreat in Jackson, to expose him to the corrupting influences, of Harrisburg. Therefore we hall vote to keep him at home, and urge others to do likewise. Wetregret that he should be found in bad political company. And so of the remainder of the ticket. The fact is that they are put forward by the party which, during four years of struggle against traitors, withheld its sympathy from the Constitutionsl government and gave all it had to give to traitors in arms against it. We but repeat the irreversible verdict of history; and exclusion from political place is the mildest punishment that can be inflicted upon men who forgot their country in the day of its awfal trial. We agree with that one of their reaolutions which prefers measures before men; and so agreeing, urge the defeat of these men as the representatives of a ruinous policy. The resolutions are but a renewal of old charges and specifications against the party in power,-charges twice passed upon by the people of Tioga last year, and a verdict of acquittal rendered by the jury without leaving the box.

The Tioga County Democratic Convention met at the Court House, Thursday evening, August 31, 1865. It was called to order by appointment of Goodrich, and Geo. W. Ryon, Esqs. Secretaries. The Credentials of delegates were then presented, and their names recorded. On motion of Geo. W. Ryon, a Committee of three was appointed by the Chair to draft resolutions. Messrs. Geo. W. Ryon, Frank W. Clark, and H. H. Schaffer, were said Committee, and reported as follows :

Resolved, That inasmuch as the great struggle which has attracted our undivided attention and co inued unceasingly for the past four years has ceased, measures should be adopted to bind up the Nation's wounds and secure peace, prosperity, and domestic tranquility to her citizens—to allay passions and an-imosities and pre-existing prejudices, and thereby secure concord and harmony among the people.

Resolved, That the right of trial by jury by civil rocess, the great safeguard of American liberty, hould be preserved inviolate—that the trials by military commission that have been instituted by the party in power, are dangerous infractions of the Con-stitutions; are unwarranted; without precedent, and in direct violation of the organic law of the country; that they deserve the emphatic condemnation of every liberty-loving, constitution abiding citizen.

Resolved, That we are unresorvedly in favor of equal taxation; that the rich as well as the poor should bear the burthens growing out of the devas-tating war just terminated; that in assessing bounty and local taxes; government securities and govern-ment bonds should be taxed in the same ratio as other property-and that the law exempting such bonds from taxation is unjust, arbitrary, and unequal; that while it exonerates the rich from the responsibilities that should be borne by them, it overwhelms the poor by its inequality and merits our unqualified disappro-

Resolved, That we recognize Col. W. W. H. Davis, of Bucks county and Col. J. P. Following the lead of the Union State Convention, the "Democratic" State Convention which assembled at Harrisburg last Thursday week, recommended that bounties to Pennsylvania soldiers be equalized, so that the volunteers of 1861-62 shall receive the same as the volunteers of '63-64. The resolution was adopted after considerable discussion.

Now we have a word for the "unchangable democracy," especially for its newspaper press and its Supreme Court Judges. Its journals have persistently questioned the constitutionality of the act authorizing bounties, and on a case submitted, Chief Justice Woodward decided that the law was unconstitutional. However, he was overruled, and the constitutionality of the law was affirmed by a majority of the court. Had Woodward prevailed, every the government did not want any other imrepudiate, and the bonds given to volunteers would have been worthless. The soldiers can indge for themselves how much "democratic" But the resolution referred to proposes to make the General Government pay these added bounties. THE WELLSBORO ACADEMY .---

The Trustees of the Wellsboro Academy are gratified in being able to state to the public that they have succeeded in organizing a Board of Instruction, and in making such arrangements that they can confitently promise that the school will be a decided suc-tess and will not be exceeded in theroughness and range of studies, by any Institution of the kind in Northern Pennsylvania. The Board of Instruction will consist of the following Teachers:

Prof. D. D. VAN ALLEN, A. B., late Professor of Natural Sciences and Modern Languages, in the Dans-ville (N. Y.,) Seminary, is a graduate of one of the best New York Colleges, and has already earned a wide and favorable reputation as an Instructor and Disciplinarian. His varied experience of five years in prominent schools of New York has eminently fitted him for the responsible position which he is about to Holland, Vice-Preceptress, is a grada-ate of the Elmira Female Academy, in which Instituate of the Elmira Female Academy, in which Institu-tion she gained a high reputation for accurate and thorough scholarship. The Principal of the Academy says of her: "Miss H. is a young woman of the very best qualifications for the teachers' work, and she possesses, in addition, what is as available as it is rare, great enthusiasm and love for the service." Mrs. JULIET SEREWOOD and Miss H. W. TODD, both experienced teachers will be connected with the Acad-emy and give instruction in Vocal and Instrumental Music. Music. Mrs. MARY BRYDEN will toach Drawing and Painting, both in oil and water colors.

Music will be taught at the residences of the teachers, or at the houses of the pupils having instruments and residing in Wellsbore, as may be desired, and each pupil will be left perfectly free to select her own teacher, the Principal not at all interfering in that branch.

Mrs. Bryden will also occupy a studio in her own house, separate and apart from the Academy buildings. Miss Van Allen is a teacher also of large experience, has always been successful in her vocation, is well qualified for the position of Preceptress, and will no doubt, be an able adjunct to her brother, the Principal, in the well ordering and government of the School School

Of Mrs. Sherwood and Miss Todd nothing need be said to the citizens of Wellsboro. They are too well known here as excellent teachers as well as excellent women to need any endorsement by the trustees. To those coming from abroad, we will, however, say that they will justify any confidence that may be placed in them, both as teachers and christian ladies. All that is said above may also be said of Mrs. Bryden. She is a woman of excellent taste, has bad The School will be opened on THURSDAY, the 7th day of September. experience in teaching and is devoted to Painting at
