How do Ministers Live in These Days?

"How do ministers live in these days?" said Mr. Brown, the merchant, to Mr. Smith, the preacher after weighing out for him a few pounds of sugar...

"The fact is, Mr. Brown, continued, that your salary has not been raised, and I always supposed it was small enough; and now when four hundred dollars is scarcely worth as much as two hundred was some three years ago, I can't imagine how you make it out."

"That is a question which I have been asking myself lately," replied the deacon, "and I would be glad to hear our minister answer it."

"There are some ministers whose salaries have been raised to correspond with the times. But you ask those who have only the same amount of money which three years ago they thought no more than a comfortable support. I will divide them into three classes. The first are men who have some property, and they fill them back on that, and are spending it pretty rapidly. Others are getting in debt, and third are the case with too many. The third class cannot do as the first, and will not do as the second, and nothing remains for them if they will live within their means but sternly to die."

"My salary is, as you know, four hundred dollars per annum, and a house to live in. I must keep a horse and a carriage, and wear them out pretty rapidly, and the cost of keeping is, at least, with present prices one hundred a year. Then there is the wear and tear of carriage and harness, and the loss by accident to horse-flesh, which ought to be reckoned fifty more. It costs me six dollars a cord for wood, or ten dollars a ton for coal; and I must keep at least two fires. A place to study is indispensable to my usefulness, and whatever else is given up, I must have the fire in the study when it is needed. It will cost forty dollars a year fuel, and then you get that nearly two hundred of the four is used up, and you ask how I, my wife and two children live on the other two hundred. I will tell you. We live on bread and water. Tea, coffee, sugar, and butter have been, one after the other, given up, except when we have company. The old clothes are mended and worn, but my wife says that cannot be done much longer. Books and periodicals are given up; and in a hand which does dispensed charity to the poor is empty. This is the way that I and many others are living. If this was our lot, I must not complain, but I do not seem hard to be deprived of these comforts and luxuries to which we had become accustomed, while every body around us enjoys them and lays up money for old times."

"Why have you not spoken of this before?" said the deacon. "It is not pleasant to complain," was the reply. "Besides, the whole community know what my salary is, and many of them must know that I receive less favors than formerly. Three years ago, when butter was twelve cents a pound, we had as much given us as we needed, but since it has been thirty or over, we have not had a pint of milk or an ounce of butter, except we have paid the market price. It is too valuable now to give away, and the same is true of other things."

"This is no bad," said the deacon. "I will tell you deacon, when you get to the top. You are most of you farmers and you ought to pay your subscription in lumber, cheese, pork, whatever he wants, at the old prices, or else give him twice the amount if money. I am willing to begin on this plan. My subscription is ten dollars and he may take it in goods out of the store at whatever they were worth two years ago, or I will pay him twenty."

"I can't say that there is any injustice in that," was the answer. "And I will try to get people to come up to it. You pay all other laborers about twice the old prices, and I don't know why a minister should live on bread and water more than other folks." - Morning Star.

FARM FOR SALE.—Situated in Delmar township,

Tioga County, Pa., distant three miles from Wellboro, the county town; thirteen miles by plank road to Tioga and Blooming railroads, connecting with the New York and Erie railroad at Corning, Steuben County, N. Y. Said farm contains about four hundred acres, will sell a part, or in small lots, at a low price to suit purchasers. It is a fertile tract of bottom land, is believed to be one of the best grazing or dairy farms in Pennsylvania. (It known as the "Marsh Farm.") For further information, apply to the premises. Terms easy. JOHN PEARSON.

Delmar, May 24, '65.

TO THE APPLICANT.—Dr. E. B. VAN HORNE

having practiced in the East, West and South, and attended Lectures in the Old School Botanic and Eclectic Colleges by long practice and investigation proved that Homoeopathy is the most reliable of all systems of medicine for the cure of all diseases of Knoxville and vicinity. Fever and Inflammation are vital actions.

Disease is obstructed vital action. The great question is decided, where is the obstruction and the proper remedy. Dr. Van Horne by a Phenological examination of the head and other organs can detect obstruction and give remedies that act in harmony with the Laws of Life without debility.

Those at a distance wishing treatment by enclosing two dollars—giving their symptoms, the color of their Hair and Eyes, will receive his valuable remedies by mail. E. B. VAN HORNE, M. D.

A GOOD INVESTMENT!

There is no better investment than the 7-30 Loan, but all families have to make other investments in the way of Family articles, and if they can be purchased at a saving from the regular rates, it makes a good investment.

I claim to be selling all kinds of goods that I deal in, such as mentioned below, at as reasonable rates as any firm in the State, and a great deal lower than a large proportion of Agents. The advantages I claim are, a larger sale of goods in proportion to my expense than most any house in the country, also no losses by old goods or credit accounts. I do not carry a very heavy stock, but intend to keep all goods that can be sold to advantage, making no leads at all. I carry in many lines to draw trade; selling a few goods very low and making up on others, but selling all goods at a very low scale of profits, and giving small buyers as good a chance as large ones. I have superior advantages in this branch of business, and should buy as many goods as the money is Green, backs, and will not consent to compete on the same terms.

JEW PRINCIPLES.

All goods we have in the house are marked in plain figures at the price we can afford to sell them.

Particular attention is invited to the following departments, as containing a great many bargains in

SEASONABLE GOODS.

DRESS GOODS.

This Stock is large and new, at very low prices,

the reduction being from 25 to 50 per cent. from early Spring Prices.

CLOAKS, WALKING SACQUES, CLOAK

CLOTHES, TRIMMINGS, &c.

We make this a specialty, and can not be beat by any one, as our numerous customers can testify.

CLOTHES & CASSIMERES.

Of all the new and desirable Styles. All our old clothes are invited to call and examine for themselves.

We will get up notice on short notice if required, and guarantee the style of make &c., to be the best.

SUN UMBRELLAS.

All sizes—about as cheap as ever.

CHEAP PANT CLOTH

for common wear. A large stock.

HOUSEKEEPING GOODS.

Such as Table Linen, Toweling, Napkins, Table

Spreads, &c., bought at the low rates of April.

BOOTS & SHOES.

We will not be undersold in any goods in this line.

HOOP SKIRTS.

All kinds and sizes at but little more than old rates.

CARPETS.

We have fitted up a large, convenient, and well lighted room, and put in a good stock of Carpets bought at the low rates of last month, which are now selling at the prices made then; notwithstanding the great advance in goods. Any one in need of such goods can well afford to buy now as they will be no lower this season.

I shall continue to try and deserve the liberal share of trade I have yearly received from this and neighborhood counties, and if good goods sold at the best of this market, and fair dealing in every way will hold true, I will not lose time.
