LAY STILL, SONNY."-A Parkesburg (W. Va.) paper says that several gentlemen of the Legislature took the cars at Grafton late on the evening of the 6th ult. for Wheeng, and smong the number was Mr. G., of some that large proportions physically, and a Mr. D of proportional undersize. These two ger lemen took a berth together, it seems, in a sle ping car. The little man laid behind, and the good natured, waggish Mr. G. before. Mr. L. was sleeping and snoring furiously. Mr. C. more restless under the legislative bordens, sion arose and was sitting by the stove, when an elderly lady came aboard and desired a sle ping berth. "All right, madam," said Mt. G. 'I took a berth with my son, and you in occupy my place in that berth where my key is sleeping. Taking Mr. G. at his word, thinklady disrobed herself and lay down with the boy. After a quiet repose of some time, the boy (Mr. D.) became restless from some coul, and beg n'to kick around, to the annoyance if the old lady So in a maternal way she patted the boy on the back and said: "Lie still, sowny; Pa, said I might sleep with you." "Who are you?" said the legislator; "I'm no boy! I'm a member of the West Virginia Legislature!" It is said the old lady swooned.

A Soldier's Opinion.—Jest Bensen, a gallant young soldier of the On Hundred and Fifty-first New York, was not linated by the Democrate of Orleans county for School Commissioner. But he spurns the ribe, in a letter to the electors of the county, i which he says: I will not accept such nomu ition or consent that my name shall be used whon the Demoeratic ticket. I ever have been and now ain a Republican and was an earn at supporter of the Administration of Abrahama Lincoln, went to the army and lost my right arm in defence of the old flag, and cannot not turn my back upon the principles for which I suffered, or not politically with the men who traduced that good man while living, and used every effort in their power to deprive the soldier of his right to vote while fighting for his ountry. I shall vote and work for the Unfor licket, and hope to see it austained by the peop it and shall consider its success a greater 1 for than to be elected to the office of School lommissioner by the men who refused me the g tht to vote when absent in the army.

The following resolution, a lipted by the Convention which nominated out State ticket, has just been endorsed by a majirity very nearly as large as that given to Lircoln last year. Road it:

8. That mild and generous method of recon struction offered by the President to the people lately in rebellion, in the judgment of this Convention has not been acce sted in the spirit of honest loyalty and gratitudy, but with such evidences of defiance and bugility as to impel us to the conviction that they cannot safely be trusted with the policieal rights which they have forfeited by their treasers until they have proven their acceptance of the result of the war, by incorporating them in a astitutional provisions, and securing to all & en within their borders their inalienable richts to life, liberty and the pursuits of happineral

Concerning the result of the election in Iowa, the Tribune says :-

"Their opponents, keepin; the Democratic name and organization out, of sight, beld a Boldiers' Convention, and thereby presented a ticket headed by Gen. Thomas H. Benton, (nephew of Old Bullion,)himself a professed Republican who had been State Superintendent of Education, had a good military record, and was every way calculated run well. The ticket was made up mainly f such as he, with the least possible Coppers ad taint, and the platform had one plank No Negro Suffrage! Colonel Stone, who header the Republican ticket, took the bull squarely by the borns, avowing himself an advocate of impartial suffrage, and asking support on that ground; and he is re-elected by 15,000 g ajority, while the residue of the ticket will average 20, 000."

TERRIBLE.—The Obio St terman, the organ of the Democrats of that Late, says that "a vote for Gen. Cox, (the Republican candidate for Governor,) will be a vote in favor of taking the Declaration of Independence for our political guide." No greater calamity -in Democratic eyes-could happen to the country, than taking the Declaration of Independence for our political guide.

The Berks county Press, a speaking of the heavy Union gains in some; arts of that county. says, only "give us the grilant Hartranft as our candidate for Governo; in 1865, and the Democratic majority will be much more reduced if not extinguished altogether."
