

THE AGITATOR.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

Wellsboro, Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1865.

New Advertisements.

Mr. Chapman has appointed Thursday, Dec. 7, a day of Thanksgiving and prayer.

Mr. J. Morgan, of Toronto, Canada West, will please accept thanks for copies of the Toronto Daily News.

The Ladies Societies of the M. E. Church will meet at the Parsonage on Tuesday evening, Nov. 28th.

There is a splendid assortment of the celebrated Fulton Gold Pen, long and short nibs.

Mad Dog.—A dog supposed to be mad was killed near Knoxville, last week, after having bitten several persons.

Notice.—The Covington Temperance Society will be addressed by Messrs. J. B. Niles and M. H. Cobb, Thursday evening, Nov. 23.

The Tioga railroad is following the fashion of the time, and smash-ups and collisions are becoming very common.

Two cheeses sent to New York from the East (Knoxville) Factory lately, sold for 19 cents a pound.

Loss of Personal Property.—The Administrators of Royal Rose, late of Rutland, deceased, will sell a large lot of personal property.

The State Normal School at Mansfield continues in a prosperous condition.

J. G. Clark, the Vocalist.—By reference to an advertisement elsewhere, it will be seen that Mr. Clark has changed his appointments somewhat since last issue.

Dr. J. C. Jackson, of Danville, N. Y. will lecture at the Methodist Church in this town, Thursday evening, Nov. 30th.

Mr. A. B. Hooker, of Genesee College, will read a poem on the same evening, at the same place.

As Overlaid.—Some person left a letter for us at the Post-Office last week, enclosing an envelope containing $1.

The Oil-Hunters.—"Jacob's Well" reached a depth of 600 feet Saturday night, and Mr. Schiefel's contract is fulfilled.

The well is pumping, and a show of petroleum obtained. The seed bag does not keep out the surface water, however, and it may have to be raised and a new one fitted.

Can't you hold the hold of this matter, and do something to stop the career of rowdism in Wellsboro?

Undoubtedly we could take hold of "this matter, and do a little something to check the career of rowdism.

No doubt it would be vastly pleasant to many to have all the battle with wrong and disorder fought by somebody else.

By selling Engravings, Card Photographs and Stationery: Our Stationery Packets excel all others.

Special attention given to collection of Penalties, Bounty and Back Pay, and all claims against the National or State Governments.

Muffs! Muffs! Muffs!!! The patent Sealow Muff can be obtained only at Wellsboro, Nov. 8.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.

We are in receipt of this Popular Lady's Magazine for December. It is a splendid number. The principal engraving, "Papa's Papa," is one of great beauty.

The December number of this favorite magazine is a superb one. The leading steel engraving, in illustration of the text, "Children's children are the crown of old men."

The little birds sing East, and the little birds sing West, to use a well-known line from Mrs. Browning's beautiful "Rhyme of the Duchess May."

A scarcity of teachers throughout the county renders further examinations necessary.

A preliminary meeting of the Soldiers of Tioga county will be held at the Court House in Wellsboro, on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 9th, 1865.

Will hold Societies in Tioga County, at the times and places following:

At the McHenry House, Wellsboro, Pa., 14th Street, by Rev. B. C. HUGHES, D. D. WILLIAMS, of Wellsboro, and Miss CHARLOTTE A. HAYES, of Conduitsport, Pa.

In Rutland, on the 5th inst., ELIAS H. ESTES, of Southport, died.

Requires immediate attention, and should be checked. If allowed to continue, it leads to irritation of the Lungs, a Permanent Throat Affection, or an incurable Lung Disease.

Having a direct influence on the respiratory system, it is the most effective remedy.

Will find Troches useful in clearing the voice when taken before singing or speaking, and relieving the throat after an unusual exertion of the vocal organs.

Obtain only "BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES," and do not take any of the worthless imitations that may be offered.
