DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS, CLEARFIELD, Pa. Aug. 7, 1967.

To the People of Pennsylvania:

The Democratic organization, devoted to the maintenance of its immortal principles; conscious of its duty to them, and to the Republic; proud of its years, its triumphs and its heroism in disaster, and remembering that in the face of persecution, of official frowns, of corrupt appliances and of successive defeats, its numbers bave steadily increased; again presents to you its candidate for your suffrages.

The Republican party has controlled the government for six years, and we accuse it before you, because: In the sacred name of Union, it has perpetuated disunion; In the room of the blessings of peace, it s given us hate, discord and misery; It has violated the plainest priciples of the behests of party;

The people are denied the attribute of overeignty; the military subverts the civil power; generals remove governors elected by the people, and a despotism reigns in ten States;

Congress assumes the right to say that negroes shall vote in Penneylvania, and denies to us the right to regulate our own rule of suffrage;
