A Startling Truth!

Thousands die anually from neglected coughs and colds, which ioon ripen into consumption, or other equally fatal diseases of sumption, or other equally fatal diseases of the Lunge: when by the timely use of a single bottle of Wistar's Balsum of Wild Cherry their lives sould have been preserved to a green old age. The Pittston Stage while unloading baggage on the towing path in town yesterday, was, by the carelessness of a passing boatman or the driver, or the stubborness of the horses, or from some other, or all of these causes, backed into the casal and upset. The passengers, including one or two Ladies, taking the alarm in time hastily unloaded themselves on the tow-path.—The baggage after a brief bath in the 'raging canawl," was all finally rescued from a watery grave.

A Peremptory Visiter.

A large, fine, but rather stern looking stranger, a day or two since, drove up to the National Bank at this place-walked inshowed his commission, and without further ceremony called for the accounts, books, bonds, notes and monies of the Bank. These have the tendency of greatly increasing the population of Nicholson and its vicinity, but were promptly furnished him ; and he proceeded to examine and count them with a rapidity belonging only to a professional. This unexpected, though not unwelco visitor, was a Government Bank detective, or financial agent. He of course found matters entirely sound and satisfactory at this institution; but may, ere this, be engaged in examining the rotton bowels of some bogus indreds of miles distant. Watching won't do them say harm.

Court Week

Usually brings to town a crowd surpasse only on circus days. Some of the events due to this quarterly assemblage are amusing while others are serious. The city boys, sey eral of whom are stopping in town, joked over the rustic mien and awkward gait of Wyoming yeomanry-of course they made sport of their betters.

In another column we give a full report of the regular proceedings of the sessi n. It seems the Prohibitory Law is not entirely a "dead letter", though it required little obser-vation to discover that it must have been vi olated last week. An affray occured on the river bank, which cost Geo. Sickler $5, and Bill Flynn a very "sore head." To enable him to borrow the V. George had to give his N. to one of the strongest Temperance pledg es that could be written. It is hoped for the the sake of all mankind-and himself-that the sake of all many and himsell—that he will not violate this pledge. Bill's wounds were stitched up and dressed by Dr. E. H. Wells; and he went his way, rejoieing in the clear gain to him of $4,50, after payment of the supresented on account of absence of the supresented on account of absence of the surgeon's sewing bill.
