HARVEY SICKLER, Editor.

TUNKHANNOCK, PA.

Wednesday, Sep. 4, 1867.

ADVERTISING AGENTS, EXCHANGES, and all others interested, will please note the CHANGE OF TITLE of this paper, from THE NORTH BRANCH DEMOCRAT TO WYOMING DEMOCRAT.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, GEORGE SHARSWOOD, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, Wm. B. OVERFIELD, of Tunkhannock Township.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER, JAMES G. FASSETT, of Windham.

FOR CORNER, Dr. A. J. TRIPP, of Centremoreland.

FOR AUDITOR, Hon. HENRY LOVE, of Mehoopany.

ABSENT.—The Editor is away on business at the time of going to press. Of course when he's gone—the devil stop pay in the printing office.

In Suspense.

As an "honest," earnest seeker after the "new and enlightened views" which the editor of the Republican of this place pledges himself to "promulgate" in this benighted region; we, last week, modestly ventured to ask of that reformer and "overthrower of antiquated prejudices," a few simple questions. Instead of receiving plain straightforward replies, we are told that our questions are "impertinent" and that "we will be told all about it next (this) week." Thus have we been left, by this dispenser of light,—on a dark subject—in "outer darkness" for seven long days.—The suspense is well nigh intolerable. Do, Mr. Editor, turn on a faint ray of light, "From Africa's sunny fountain"

The stopper of which, for this region, you are now controlling.

Our Candidates.

We place at the head of our columns today, the ticket put in nomination by the Convention which met at this place on Monday last.

All our candidates are so well and favorably known, that no extended remarks on their merits are deemed necessary.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER. Wm. B. Overfield, of Tunkhannock Township, seemed to be regarded as the most proper man to look to the interests of the people of the County. Mr. Overfield possesses qualifications which in view of the large expenditures we are now making in the way of building and repairs to the public buildings, the people of the County cannot in justice to themselves, overlook. Being one of the best practical builders and workmen of the county, he is the man of all others best fitted for the position to which he is nominated. The tax payers of the County will endorse the action of the Convention by electing him with a handsome majority.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER. James G. Fassett, of Windham, one of our most intelligent and honorable young men was selected. Much might be said in his favor; nothing can in truth, be said against him.

FOR CORNER, Dr. A. J. Tripp, of Northmoreland, was without his knowledge or consent, put in nomination for this office, which, though not ordinarily a profitable one, is nevertheless a very necessary, and in certain contingencies an important one. He will have the business of sitting super visum corpore in the case of a certain defunct black-and-tan-colored party about the second Tuesday of October next.

FOR AUDITOR, The Hon. Henry Love was chosen by acclamation. Nothing that we could say would add to or detract from the merits of one who is so well known and highly esteemed as is Judge Love.

Our ticket as a whole, is a strong and good one. Fellow Democrats, let's go to work and give it a rousing majority!

NOT INTOXICATING.—A Maine Judge decided that beer is not intoxicating within the meaning of the statute, and that any amount of beer which has to be drunk in enormous quantities to produce drunkenness does not come under the head of "intoxicating liquors," as specified in the liquor law.

The Durkin Murder.

ARREST OF THE SUPPOSED MURDERER

It became noised about yesterday that a telegram had been received, stating that a man, arrested as the supposed murderer of Dr. Durkin, was aboard the express train from New York on the D., L., & W. R. R. due here at 4 P. M. The news created considerable excitement. The train was an hour and a half late, in consequence of an accident to the locomotive, but this only increased the excitement. Mr. Lorenzo Zeidler was in charge of the prisoner, and before they could cross the street they were surrounded by a crowd so eager and boisterous that it almost seemed as if the prisoner's safety might be endangered.—No attack was made on him, however.—The officers started up Lackawanna avenue with him, with the idea of putting him in the city lockup, but it was finally thought better to take him to the Wilkes-Barre jail, and he was accordingly taken to a room in Zeidler's building, and detained until the 7:10 P. M. train, when Lorenzo Zeidler took him to Wilkes-Barre.

The prisoner's name is understood to be James Delameter, though he sometimes calls himself Robinson and sometimes Dougherty. He was arrested at White Hall, N. Y. where he has been since the same night. He is supposed to be the same man who was heard of soon after the murder at various points on the Penna. Coal Company's R. R. and the Delaware and Hudson canal, and who was at that time unsuccessfully pursued by officers from this city. It is said that the brakeman on the Lackawanna & Bloomsburg R. R. can identify him as the man who came up from Wilkes-Barre with Dr. Durkin on the night of the murder—May 14th. Mr. John Zeidler also recognizes him as the companion of the Doctor when the latter called for his key at 10 o'clock on the night of the 14th.

The prisoner's wife—whom he left early in June for another woman—says he told her that he killed the Doctor and got from him $800. It was through his wife that Delameter was discovered to be in White Hall.

On the other hand, the prisoner stoutly asserts that he was never in Scranton before, and that he can account for every hour of his time from the 22d of April to the day of his arrest. He says that he commenced work in the mines of A. Pardee & Co., near Hazleton, April 22, and worked there steadily without losing a day, until the 3d of June. He gives the name of the "boss" in the mine, and asks to have him called and examined. Of course, if credible witnesses from Hazleton corroborate this, it will establish an alibi and clear the prisoner. He says he went from Hazleton to Berwick and Wilkes-Barre, and thence to New York, and from there to a small town in Ulster county, where he met a girl with whom he lived illicitly, for a few days, and then started for Whitehall, where he arrived June 11th, and where he has remained ever since. The prisoner is about 30 years old, and by no means a vicious look fellow. He cannot read or write, but is ready of speech, and shows no signs of nervousness or fear. He served in the New York Militia and 120th New York Volunteers, during the war.—Scranton Republican.

AN ITEM FOR CANDIDATES.—The highest achievements of a politician is the judicious kissing of babies. It goes straight to the mother's heart and makes her a zealous canvasser for the balance of the campaign. In kissing babies of a larger growth, especially if they are pretty, and the persuasion female, there is danger of being regarded as one having an eye to personal attractions. But with little babies the case is different, and the act is an undoubted compliment to the little darling's mother.

The Radicals are exceedingly disgusted at Grant for accepting the appointment of Secretary of War. Every body else seems to be satisfied.

Let's hear from you, friends!

THE $325,000 Additional State Tax. The Radical officers at Harrisburg, have made a bold effort to replenish the Treasury, and one, as we think, by no means justifiable by any law or usage.

A year or two ago, the Radical Legislature repealed the State tax on real estate, and left the tax on personal property, about $300,000 stand. The Geary organ at Harrisburg frankly admits that the tax on personal property may not be necessary, and certainly it is not, but because the Legislature last winter, wisely or unwisely, neglected to pass the bill proposed by the State Treasurer, to apportion that amount among the several counties of the Commonwealth, therefore these officers gravely undertake to increase the valuation on personal property to such an extent over and above the valuation of the township assessors as to raise $625,000! Now, what reason was there for this arbitrary addition of $325,000 to the State tax.

For the last year or two there has been on an average nearly three millions in the Treasury of the State, and when we remember the rich drippings that fall from so large an amount, which cannot be less than $60,000 per annum in addition to legal salaries, we can hardly wonder that there should be some zeal on the part of the officers to collect taxes.

Perhaps also when these Radical officers found that the State sustained an annual loss of over $300,000 by reason of borrowing $23,000,000 at six per cent., exempt from taxation, to pay off a tax loan of a similar amount, at five per cent., they concluded to resort to this mode of proceeding to make it up.

Whatever may be the reason giving for this gross outrage upon the tax-payers, it cannot relieve the Radicals from the charge of having repealed the State tax on real estate only with a view to deceive and humbug the people.

Had the Democratic party remained in power, the State tax on real and personal property, would have been repealed years ago, and the State debt reduced $5,000,000 below what it is.—Columbian.

New Advertisements.

SIGNIFICANT.

The new system of Advertising adopted by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., Advertising Agents, No. 40 Park Row, New York, is attracting a good deal of attention.

The following extract from a speech delivered before the N. Y. State Editorial Convention, (lately held at Penn Yan,) by a prominent Advertising Agent of N. Y. city, goes to show that he at least acknowledges its advantages.

From Jamestown, N. Y. Journal of Aug 2nd Edited by C. E. BISHOP, Chairman of Committee on Advertising Agencies.

"Mr. Pettinelli spoke in opposition to that plan from the publisher's stand point alone. He showed the publishers that by this system of contracting they were giving lower rates than they gave their own home customers or others equally as prompt and good customers; that they were selling one portion of their paper to be used to compete with and underbid the other columns; that the owner of the space thus sold could come right in and beat the publisher's prices and take his business away from him; that if the publishers, fully understanding this, still wish to continue so irregular and business like a system he (Pettinelli & Co.) should of course cease trying to get advertising for the papers at their regular rates and go into the other system of contracting—which he could stand if the printers could."

The anxiety on the account of newspapers is unexcelled. There is not one in twenty which would not prefer to receive all their foreign patronage on this plan, when it is fully understood. It is too generally recognized as thoroughly beneficial to all parties concerned to be injured in the least by anything which may be said against it by interested parties.

Advertisers should send for a circular giving full explanations.
