

Local and Personal.

Go to the Drug Store in Meshoppen, Pa. for Christmas presents, for old and young.

Go to those who advertise in the Democrat - If you would buy cheap - for your materials for Christmas presents, and for your Christmas and New Year presents.

The Ladies connected with the M. E. Church of Tunkhannock, will hold a Fair and Oyster Supper in said Church on Christmas Evening, December 25, 1867. The proceeds to be applied towards furnishing the New Church.

Send us the News. - We are anxious to give our readers all the local news of the county, and would take it as a great favor if our friends would keep us advised of passing events.

Something Valuable and at the same time beautiful and appropriate as a holiday present can now be found at the Jewelry Store of P. C. Burns & Bro, where, besides all styles of Watches, Chains, Pins and Ear Rings, can also be found an extensive stock of pure and plated silver, wax, sugar bowls and spoons, butter knives and dishes, cups, saucers, holders, and a score of other articles both useful and ornamental. Go and look at them. It will do your eyes good.

Dropped Through. - The team of Mr. James Balle of Eaton, while crossing the river on the ice at this place on Saturday last, fell through at a place where the water was five or six feet deep, and were only extricated after much difficulty from their perilous position and cool bath. Mr. Balle should make a liberal subscription to the stock of the proposed bridge.

The Storm. - Everybody in this region must know that we were last week visited by an old-fashioned snow storm, which with the accompanying "cold snap" for the time, has suspended work on the Railroad bridge, churches and other buildings. Shoemakers and other having in-door employments can keep "pegging away" provided they have a supply of the auriferous.

Runaway. - On Saturday last Mr. George Stanbury's team attached to a sleigh, came furiously down the road past John Day's and Perry Mary's, crossing the bridge in safety over Swail Brook, and leaving the sleigh at the side of the road just before crossing the canal bridge at the aqueduct. The horses were caught near Michael McDermott's. Mr. Stanbury, his wife and two children were in the sleigh when the horses commenced running, but were thrown out just after passing Mr. Day's, except one child, which was left between Mr. Marcy's and the aqueduct canal bridge. Fortunately no serious injury resulted to any of the occupants of the sleigh.

Crossing on the Ice. - Several accidents have happened this week while crossing the river with teams at this place, by breaking through the ice. We have not learned that any serious injury resulted from these casualties. The snow which fell just before the "cold snap," covering the thin body of ice that spanned the river, no doubt prevented it from freezing as it otherwise would, and consequently making the crossing less secure. Teams will continue to cross, and we presume the ice bridge is growing more safe.

Bridge Matters. - At the bridge meeting on Saturday last, but about sixty shares or $1,000 of the stock was taken, excepting the 100 shares which Mr. Samuel Stark proposes to take. An opportunity is therefore afforded one or more of our citizens to make an investment in this stock, which cannot under proper management, fail to pay dividends to stockholders. As an important business meeting at this place, on Saturday next. All stockholders should attend.

It should be borne in mind too, that the annual election of officers of this company as provided in the charter, will take place on the First Monday in Jan. the 6th prox. Every stockholder should be present at the election.

The Jury Commissioners. - Messrs. Roberts and Fassett, met at this place last week and selected and placed in the wheel the names of persons for jurors for the year '68. After having filled the wheel, the required number for January Term, was drawn. We give the list in to-day's paper. This was the first drawing under the new jury law which went into effect on the 1st inst. Judge Ellwell who under the law, is ex officio, a member of the board and entitled to an equal voice in the selection - for reasons which will be apparent to all and approved by every man, does not, we understand, design to take part in the selecting in any of the Counties in his district; but to leave it in the hands of the respective Commissioners. The law provides that a majority or two members, may perform the duties of the board. We shall look with some interest and curiosity to see if this example is followed by Judge Streeter in the Bradford and Susquehanna district.

No Paper Next Week. - The whittling of time, in its progressive revolutions, has again brought us around to the paper's holiday. There will, therefore, be no paper issued from this office next week. In order to take our customary respite at this season, and not interfere with the advertising for the January Term of court, we have decided to omit the Christmas issue of the New Year day issue - both these days, this year, falling on Wednesday. Our readers during the interval between this and the new year can read and re-read the President's Message, lately published by us, and when they have thoroughly digested that, they may read the Sermon on the Mount and other portions of the Bible, not forgetting to put in practice the precepts therein contained, especially those that exhort charity to all mankind - not forgetting the poor and destitute within the range of their acquaintance. The poor are always with you; and it is "more blessed to give than receive." We doubt not the philanthropists who have an abundance of this world's goods, will be liberal in all charitable works.

Noah P. Smith Arrested. - It will be recollecting to our readers that upwards of two years ago - in February, 1865 - one James Hosi, an officious character, employed as a deserter-catcher, was shot while attempting to arrest a deserter in Newton township, Luzerne county. A reward of $1000 was offered by the Provost Marshal of the Luzerne District for the arrest of Noah P. Smith, charged with the shooting of Hosi. On Sunday last he was taken prisoner by McCassey, of Scranton, conveyed to that city and confined in the lock-up, for a further investigation of the matter.

A terrible howl has gone up from the republican press against the man Smith, but the case is not half so aggravating as the one which occurred shortly after in Exeter township, this county, when Mr. James Siskler, a private citizen, was shot dead while walking along the road, by these hell-hounds who were sent out from Scranton to scour the country in search of deserters. Mr. Siskler was a quiet and orderly citizen, not a deserter nor liable to military duty under the laws, yet these miscreants, without cause or provocation, took his life at the mid-hour of day, thereby robbing his family in mourning, and leaving dependent orphan children and a heart-broken wife to the cold charities of the world. These guilty parties were permitted to go unwhipped of justice, and an outrage continually let, with no redress - the military authorities refusing to give us a trial and punishment the guilty offenders of the law. Our readers are familiar with this horrid act of crime, committed by men charged with the execution of the laws, and it is only necessary to call attention to the fact to bring vividly to mind all its ghastly features.

The American Farmer.

We are in receipt of this excellent agricultural journal for Dec., which closes the volume for 1867. Each number contains 32 pages, handsomely illustrated, and filled with valuable reading matter for farmers. It is published at $1 per year, and at that low price ought to be in the hands of every farmer in the country. Now is the time to subscribe for 1868. Address John Turner, Rochester, N. Y.

Railroad Project. - A movement is on foot for a railroad between Owego and Skinner's Eddy, on the Susquehanna, to run up the river to Apalachicola, thence up the Appalachian to Bear Swamp, on the Monticello turnpike, and thence down the North Branch of the Wyalusing Creek to the Susquehanna, which, as an extension of the Southern Central Railroad, is not only a feasible route, but a shorter cut to the Wyoming and Sullivan County Coal Fields by some 25 or 30 miles than the winding course of the river between Owego and Skinner's Eddy. - Owego Gazette.

Dr. J. W. Rhoads would call the attention of the public to his large assortment of Christmas Goods for the Holidays. Call and get a splendid Photograph Album, at Wholesale prices, for he is selling all kinds of Holiday presents at panic prices. He has also all kinds of Pictures, Engravings, Photographs, Toys, Confectionaries, Perfumery, and in fact almost everything to please the eye and gratify the taste. Don't forget the old stand, Dr. J. W. Rhoads in the "Barwell Building" on Bridge St.

Down among the dead men. - Are, at this season, thousands who might have been alive and well had they used that great life preserver, Plantation Bitters. Let the living lay it to heart that they are the best known remedy for all dyspeptic complaints, stomach derangements, and general debility. As a delicious cordial combined with great tonic virtues, their equal cannot be found.

Dedicate Females, Clergymen, Merchants, Lawyers and persons of sedentary habits - particularly those who are weak and suffer with mental depression, are greatly benefited by these Bitters.

Magnolia Water. - A delightful toilet article - superior to Cologne and at half the price.

The Palm of Superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen, for her improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle), and a grateful public appreciates the very low price One Dollar - Every Druggist sells it.

Within the whole range of tonic and alterative medicines known, none is entitled to more consideration than the Peruvian Syrup. In all cases of debility and debilitated constitution it is the very remedy needed. The most positive proof of this can be adduced.

Married.

ARNOLD - HART - On December 5th, 1867, by Rev. F. Terry, Esq., Mr. Christian Arnold to Miss Emily Hart, all of Tunkhannock, Pa.

EASTMAN - COOPER - On Wednesday the 11th inst. at the residence of the bride's Mother in Nicholson, by E. N. Bacon Esq., A. M. Eastman of Tunkhannock, to Miss Nellie Cooper of the former place.

STEINBECK - COOPER - On Tuesday the 17th inst. at the residence of the bride's Mother in Nicholson, by the Rev. W. F. Arms, Harley Steinbeck to Miss Clara Cooper, both of Nicholson.

BURNS - COOPER - At the same time and place, by the same Dr. L. T. Burns to Miss Jennie L. Cooper, both of Tunkhannock.

JENNIE and CLARA, who, as will be seen, by the above notices have each formed a "printer's Union," were for several years connected with the office of the Democrat, where they became first-class compositors. This "Union," we think we may safely predict, will divorce them forever from the "composing stick." In its stead they will wield the rod of correction, which in their "cesses" will be Ladies' Slippers. May they never get "out of sorts" - especially of small CAPS, may their companions always find pleasure in distributing their "tip" and may they never fail to furnish their "clear proof" of constant affection and regard, with an occasional "A."

DR. WISTER'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY.

Where this article is known it is a work of supererogation to say one word in its favor, so well is it established as an unfailing remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma, diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, as well as that most dreaded of all diseases, Consumption, which high medical authority has pronounced to be an incurable disease. - Those who have used this remedy know its value; those who have not, have but to make a single trial to be satisfied that of all others it is the remedy.

The Rev. JACOB SECHLER, well known and much respected among the German population of this country, writes as follows: -

HANOVER, Pa., Feb. 16, 1859. Messrs S. W. FOWLE & SON, BOSTON.

Dear Sirs: - Having realized your family medicine to be a most valuable preparation - Wister's Balm of Wild Cherry - I feel under the necessity of recommending it to the public. - Some eight years ago, one of my daughters seemed to be in a state, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balm, and before she had taken the whole of it there was a decided improvement in her health. I have in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imitations, and to send for a good copy of Wister's Balm of Wild Cherry off throughout the country. JACOB SECHLER.

None genuine unless signed "J. BUTTS," on the wrapper. Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont St., Boston, and for sale by Druggists generally.
