Township Officers' Bonds.—The law requires that Supervisors and Overseers of the poor in the several Townships, shall give bonds for the faithful performance of their duties within thirty days after election...

Don't Forget!—That next week is Court week; and that the printer is sadly in want of "groceries" for the machine. Look at the figures on the label on this paper, and see if you are responsible for any of the unwholesome, screaming noises now grating on our ears.

Wanted!—Five hundred additional, prompt paying, subscribers to the Democrat. We ask our friends to aid us in supplying the requisite number. It will do them good. It will do us good. It will do everybody good. Be not weary in well doing.

Searching.—The atmosphere in these parts, for the past week or two has been what the man with nose and linen breeches on, would call "rather searchin'."

The Borough Election held yesterday resulted in the election of a Democratic Burgess, Justice of the Peace, Constable and Judge of Election, by about the usual majorities. In the choice of Town Council, Post Masters, &c., party lines were ignored and these offices were divided.

The following are the names of the officers elected: Justice of the Peace—John A. Sittler. Constable—L. C. Conklin. Burgess—W. Stansbury.

Town Council—C. D. Gearhart, R. R. Little, Thos. A. Miller, D. Billeman, G. E. Palen. Judge of Election—F. C. Ross. Inspectors—Daniel Wright, A. M. Stark. Assessor—John Stimples.

Overseers of Poor—James Derlinghoff, J. W. Rhoads. School Directors—John Stimples, James Young, R. P. Ross. Auditors—John Rhodes, 2 years; Draper Billings, 3 years; F. M. Buck, 1 year. High Constable—G. W. Alexander.

Church Dedication.—The M. E. Church at Brooklyn, Washington Co., Pa., will be opened—Providence permitting—on Thursday Jan. 30th—Services will commence at 10 o'clock A. M. and 7 P. M. Rev. J. Ives, Chaplain of Autumn, N. Y. State Prison, will officiate, assisted by the P. E. Rev. D. W. Olmstead and others. The ministers of Wyalusing District, especially, are invited to attend.

Almost a Fire.—Occurred at the old frame building occupied by P. W. Redfield and B. M. Stone, on the corner just opposite our office. It seems that some articles of clothing got in too close proximity to a hot stove-pipe, which passes up through the floor into the second story, by which they were set on fire. It was soon discovered and an alarm given which caused quite a gathering of people with anxious faces and wooden palis. The flames were speedily quenched and the traces and palis have been their usual places.

A fire in this building would undoubtedly have resulted in the destruction of a large amount of valuable property. With the present scarcity of water and means to arrest fires in town, the surrounding buildings must have burned. Great caution should be exercised by the occupants of this tenement house which at best is illly secured against accidents by fire.

A New Literary Enterprise.—Great liberality on the part of the publishers—100,000 to be awarded to the subscribers.—Novel plan to induce a large circulation.

We have been favored with advance sheets of a new monthly magazine, issued on an entirely new plan by Messrs. Evans & Co., publishers.

From our knowledge of the parties engaged in this enterprise, we feel justified in asserting that their undertaking will be a success, and in all respects satisfactory to the public.

In addition to the articles of a fresh and interesting monthly, containing articles from the best authors in this country and Europe, as the title indicates, the publishers draw upon the whole world for topics of interest, and offer as inducements (if such were needed) a "dividend system" of an entirely original character, in which all their patrons will participate. This department is under the personal supervision and exclusive control of Mr. George B. Evans, long and favorably known as a gentleman of experience, capability, enterprise and probity. We commend to all a perusal of the "prospects" wherein the distinctive features of the enterprise are fully set forth, feeling satisfied that the result will be an immense circulation of their new monthly "The World at Home." Full particulars are sent free. Address Publishers "The World at Home," 514 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.—Philadelphia Sunday Times.

Every body—Yes, everybody that has journeyed on in the pathway of life, as far as the matrimonial pathos where he "takes in" as a fellow passenger a choice bit of humanity, five feet and upwards, wrapped up in dimity and other "finics," has had occasion, at least once a week, to reflect upon the uncertainty of all subsidiary things—except washing-day. That day is one of the fixed days—it is sure to come—unwelcome as it is—it's sure to come, and come it does—often, it seems, than any other day in the week. And it comes the huge piles of soiled "fagles"—sorted out, accordingly as they are more or less of the "earth, earth, earth." Then comes also, the cry of "water, water, more water!" Then an inundation of dirty suds and a cloud of steam rivaling that which ascends from Niagara—without the rainbow. Collapsed crinoline, troubled dresses, frizzy hair, scowling faces, scolding mother, squalling babies, late dinner, cold bites and such other interesting items make up the complement of an old-fashioned washing day, where the paternal "parent" has neglected to secure a first-class wooden washing machine and a good clothes-wringer. When we speak of a first-class machine, we mean such a one as the Agent, for the sale of the H. P. Jones' "National Steam Washing Machine," left for trial at our house, last week—which made washing day a great deal pleasanter than anybody ever supposed this day of domestic thunderstorms, madades and volcanic eruptions, could be made—We may have occasion to speak of this machine hereafter—if so—we shall speak as becomes a man with the face of bromine and mop-handles continually before his eyes. For the present we say hurrah! for Jones' Washing Machine—the friend of suffering woman-ity.

Democratic Club Meeting.—An adjourned meeting of the "Central Democratic Club of Wyoming County" was held at the Court House on Saturday evening, January 11th, for the purpose of perfecting its organization. The meeting was called to order by Hon. Wm. M. Platt, President pro. tem. and the report of the Committee, appointed at the previous meeting to draft By-Laws, was called for. The Committee, through their chairman, reported the following By-Laws, which were read and adopted:

The regular meetings of this Club shall be on the last Saturday in each month. The Club shall be organized by the President and Executive Committee at 7 o'clock P. M.; at which, there may be political discussions, reading of essays, &c.

It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Club, to preside over the order of the Vice President, to preside in the absence of the President, to see that the By-Laws are carried out, and to see that the Club is kept in order, and to make report thereof from time to time as the Club may order.

The duties of the Executive Committee shall consist in circulating Democratic newspapers, &c., in arranging the time and places for all public meetings, securing speakers, and otherwise carrying out the purposes of the organization, as the Club may direct.

The first business in order after the assembling of the Club (unless otherwise directed) shall be the reading of the Constitution and By-Laws. The President shall then give a general invitation to all present (not already members) to become members of the Club by signing the same. It shall also be the duty of each member of this Club to induce as many persons as possible to become members of this organization.

All moneys, for defraying expenses of the Club, shall be raised by assessment or subscription, from time to time as may be paid out by the Treasurer, as the Club may direct.

After the adoption of the By-Laws, the next business in order being the election of officers, the Club proceeded to the election which resulted in the choice of the following named persons for the ensuing year: President—HOW W. M. PLATT. Vice President—THOMAS OSTERHOUT. Secretary—ALVIN DAY. Treasurer—HARVEY SICKLER. Executive Committee—HOW. R. LITTLE, Wm. B. OSTERHOUT, Esq., and J. P. LORERICK.

Mr. Little being called for, arose, advertised to the present situation of the two great parties of the country. The Democratic party had outlived all the requisites and obituaries pronounced by the Radicals during the past six years. Instead of being dead and buried, as had been so often repeated in the past; it had, by a fixed adherence to principles which never die, stood upon through the storms of fanaticism and passion more like the cedars breaking away, and calm reason was again asserting its sway among the people, and triumph was again peaching upon the standards of the Democracy in every State where free elections were allowed. The radicals who for years had been distasteful and detestable, were now confounding more strongly, if possible, by their acts than their words the utter weakness of themselves and their cause, by manifesting so much anxiety to place in nomination a man who on all the great questions of the day, either had no opinions at all, or if he had, had not the courage to make them known—who kept up a stubborn reticence upon questions of vital importance to the nation—While, according to Gen. Grant, (for it was him that Mr. L. alluded) all the honors due to him as a persistent and stubborn military leader, he thought other traits of character and qualities of mind were far more important in the chief magistrate of our so long un-governed country. That principles should be more important now than epaulettes or the magic of a name. Mr. L.'s remarks were well received and highly applauded.

The President called for the reading of the Constitution, after which a general invitation was extended to all present to become members of the Club by signing the same. The reading of the Constitution and By-Laws.

On motion the proceedings of the Club were directed to be published in the Wyoming Democrat.

On motion the Club adjourned to meet at the Court House the last Saturday in this month at 7 o'clock P. M.—notice of which was directed to be given through the columns of the Democrat.

WM. M. PLATT, Pres. THOS. OSTERHOUT, Vice Pres. ALVIN DAY, Secy.

Nicholson Correspondence. NICHOLSON, Jan. 13, 1868. If it was not for the excitement growing out of the temperance question, or more properly speaking, "the Good Templar question," there would be sufficient interest for a communication at this time, from this place.

The course which has been pursued for some months past, by a portion of the Order, has had the effect of producing much hard feeling among many of our citizens which no doubt will continue for a long time. The great Templars' meeting held here on the 9th, has by no means had the effect of reconciling the ranks heretofore existing. There were a number of distinguished lecturers from different portions of our country who took part in speaking. It was said there were some 35 leading spirits of the Templar organization among them. U. V. Mace, who was chosen chairman, Dr. Virgil W. E. Little and others represented the county of Wyoming. The meeting was held in the Methodist Church. There were a goodly number in attendance, including men, women and children—but very few however who were not identified in some way with the order.

Rev. Davidson, the great "mogul" or State lecturer, being the main speaker, lead off. His address was well received, except that part wherein he accused the anti-templars of being "lethal burners," &c. making a stirring appeal to keep on and fight the battle of temperance, if the whiskeys shot them in the streets. Intimating that some of the Order may die in that way, especially in this country. Beautiful language for a Rev. reformer! The Rev. Mr. Angus, pastor of the Presbyterian church, followed with his puritanical education, proclaiming himself to be a teacher and not a proselyter, but not in possession of that extra commandment given out by our Savior, viz: charity. His advice being to do—as he does—have nothing to do with anti-temperance men, either by word or deed, and do without the necessities of life rather than deal with them.

It is that the course to be taken in promoting the temperance cause, or any other reformation, and carried by such, it strikes me that the Rev. gentlemen had better never come to this place, as the most of our good people have been taught christianity in a different way.

Dr. A. C. Blakelee was next called and said a few words in his familiar strain, which seemed more like benediction than the cause.

Dr. R. D. Mace next addressed the meeting somewhat radically, but in a pleasant manner. Dr. Virgil, of Mehoppen, next delivered a fine address, being earnest and to the point, but conservative. It was conceded by true temperance men to be the best and most telling speech for the good of the cause, taking the ground that the people must be educated to believe, in order that the restriction laws may be observed, and that persuasion would have a more salutary effect than force; his entire speech being well received by conservative men and women. It being in fine contrast to Rev. Angus' position, and one that might profit by, if he can appreciate a conservative and truly christian speech.

O. L. Halstead, Esq., next made a few remarks upon the benefits he had received in becoming a member of the order.

The speaking was then given to our truly charitable and well known townsman, P. K. Williams. His pleasant manner in addressing the audience, with so much christian like feeling, wherein he so ably portrayed the necessity assisting the degraded, and extending a charitable hand to all the unfortunate, could not help producing a good effect. It thus has brought a blush of shame to some of the un-sentimental christian teachers who preceded him, especially those who took the privilege of using such epithets as "burn burners," "assassins," &c., applying them to those who do not happen to be possessed of their ideas of reformation, and advising Templar men to hold no communication with such characters.

The proceedings were interspersed by singing and instrumental music, by Mr. Clark Sisson and wife of Abington, and was well received. A vote was taken to sustain the prohibitory law of Wyoming county, and strange to say in a meeting of the kind was carried by a great majority, which no doubt will have a nice effect upon our Legislature.

The only accident occurring in this place during the past week, was a leg broken on the person of Michael Ryan, by being run over in the street by Mr. L. Harding with a horse and cutter. Fast horses are sometimes too quick for some men, as in this case.

A Temperance Convention for the State of Pennsylvania will be held at Harrisburg, beginning on Tuesday, the 18th day of Feb., 1868, at 10 o'clock A. M., and to continue as long as it finds business or matter for its consideration. Arrangements have been made with most of the Railroad companies to furnish delegates or representatives of the various temperance organizations with free return tickets, making advantage to all such.

All Churches, Colleges, and Academies, all Temperance Societies, Divisions of Sons of Temperance, Temples of Honor, and Temples of Good Templars, County Societies, &c., the Union and all other friendly societies are requested to have themselves represented by such number of delegates as they may choose.

An Easy Wagon Seat has been shown us by Mr. A. Churchill who has the patent for this County for sale. This very simple invention has only to be used, to convert any one of our grandest traveling over our rough roads with a lumber wagon, market wagon or sleigh. It can be placed on and taken off as easily as an ordinary board seat—occupying no more space—consisting of a few india-rubber spring bands, placed below the seat in such a manner as to give it all the spring and elasticity of the ordinary elastic spring. Mr. Churchill has one of these seats on exhibition at Mr. Baldwin's Hotel where he will remain for a few days for the purpose of selling individual Townships or County rights—Farmers go and see it.
