Township Officers' Bonds .-- The law require that Supervisors and Overseers of the poor in the several Townships, shall give bonds for the faithful performance of their duties within thirty days after election-or on failure to do so the office become vacant. The writing or preparation of these bonds. often imposes an amount of drugery upon some in-telligent but good natured Justice of the Peace, or other person, which he would gladly avoid but can-

We have recently prepared and printed blank bonds expressly for these officers. The Clerk, or proper person for each Township should procure at the expense of the Township, a dozen or two of these blanks to be used as occasion requires-which wo'd prove not only a saving in expense to the Townships but a relief from an unpleasant task to the good na-

Snow Storm, -- A regular 'old northeaster' set in sometime yesterday morning, very early—
"afore de broke of day"—and at this writing snow has fallen to the depth of eight or ten inches, and is atill continuing to fall We have had very excellent sleighing a goods part of the present winter, and sleigh-riding parties have been of frequent occurrence, affording pleasant pastime to the young people of our village. The sleigh bells make sweet music for the lovers of fun and frolie, and the young lads and lasses of "sweet sixt een" and upwards, ap pear to enjoy it "hugely."

"Oh, the bells, the silver bells;
What a world of merriment their melody foretells." Accident by Falling .-- Miss Mary House of this place, while returning home from the Fancy store of Mrs. Lease, her sister, on Monday evening last at the corner of Tioga and Brilgs streets, slipped and fell upon the ice-dislocating and breaking the hones of the ankle. This accident has so far caused her intense pain, and will be likely for some time to prevent the use of the injured limb. Dr. J. W.

Lyman was called and set the bones. Several Rows, riots, fights and disturbances of the peace, of a minor character, have occurred in this vicinity, within a few days past. It is to be hoped that the doors to the jail cells will soon be disturbers of the quiet and good order of the com-

The Ladies' Friend for February .-- A beautiful steel engraving, representing the hiding of lrushes, opens this number of the " Oneen of the Monthlies" It is a very fine picture indeed. The double steel Fashion Plate is as refined and elegant as usual. Then we have two pretty damsels peeping through the curtains on St. Valentine's day in the morning - and also a fine engraving of "The Meteoric Shower at Sea." The engravings of the Fashions, Patierns, Fancy Work, &c., are numerous and excellent. The music this month is the Popular song, " Paidle Your Own Canoe." The Liverary matter is "The Romance of the Old Maid;" " A Dead Man's Rule," by Elizabeth Prescott; "Little Feet," by Florence Percy; "Disillusion;" " Some Things Mrs. Shrimp Saw, by Frances Lee; " Jean Clifton's Letters," by Bella F. Burton ; "Friendships of Sisters," &c.; Edito-

(By Request) ON THE DEATH OF THE DETRICK CHILDREN.

I saw beside a grassy tomb. Four little coffins fair : And many gazet as if the bloom Of Eden withered there.

The little coffins short and wide. Received a sigh from all; For four sweet children, side by side, Were shrouled in their pall.

The father and the mother at their heads Like marble stood with grief, And many pearly tears were shed,

Which seemed to give relief. They raised the napkin o'er them spread. Which hid them from their view; Then bending o'er the coffins' head,

They gazed a last udieu.

A DDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBIL-A itated whose sufferings have been profrom hidden causes, and whose cases require treatment to render existence desirable. If suffering or have suffered froth involuntary sentering or have suffered from the supering of have suffered from the supering supe tation of the beart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometiaes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick some rise to the top? Or is a seediment at the bottom after it has stood awhite? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your memory impaired? Bo you wish to be left alone to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yoursel? Are your spirits dull and flagging given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your block weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia. If you a series uights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, veneral diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in pergans of generation, when in perice the the table man. Did you ever think that those bold, defaint, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousaces, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

The same of the state of weakness in those organs that have due to the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiecy, lunary, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected.
