OUR FARMERS' WIVES.

Next to being a minister's wife, I should dread being the wife of a farmer. Sometimes, indeed, the terms are synonymous...

No wonder that the poor things look harassed, jaded and toil-worn long before they arrive at middle-age. No wonder that a life so hard and angular should obliterate all the graces of femininity...

Now your farmer is a round, stalwart, comfortable animal. There is no baby waiting at his pantloons while he plows or makes fences. He lies down under the nearest tree and rests, or sleeps, when he can no longer work with profit...

Now, the uppermost idea in the minds of too many farmers is, how to get the greatest possible amount of work out of their wives. A poorer policy than this can scarcely be. They treat their cattle better. If they are about to be presented with a fine calf or colt, they take pains that the prospective mother is well cared for...

Then, to grudge such an industrious wife, decent raiment wherewith to make herself and her children comfortable, is a shame. To oblige such a woman to plead like a beggar for the dollars she could have earned a thousand times over in any family but his own...
