Bitten by a Dog, -- Al Roberts while walking along the streets the other day was assailed and bitthe hand by a dog whose reputation as a peaceable and quiet dog is not good. We don't know what Mr. Wall, the owner, proposes to do with him; but we have heard several persons recommend cold lead, as a very proper remedy in such cases .-

Go to the place where the bad dogs go."

House Builders and others using lumber should bear in mind that there is now a large quantity of extra quality of extra thick seasoned pine boards for sale at this place, below the usual market price. We refer of course to Waltman & Co.'s stock now in charge of E. J. Keeney, who should be addressed for particulars. We have had occasion to handle a few thousands of this lumber, and without any hesitation pronounce it good and cheap.

The Indian Doctress, Marleah, or the Wild Flower, still remains in town, and we understand is treating quite a number of patients afflicted with chronic and other diseases. Her rooms are at Wall's Hotel, where she can be complted by all the afflicted believers, at all reasonable hours, night or day.

Scott's Popular Remedies are advertised in another column. They are said to be the ne plus ultra of materia medica. Every family should keep them on hand.

We have been requested to announce that E. W. Resolutions on the Pohibitory Liquor

At a meeting of the undersigned, and others, in terested in the maintenance of law and order, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, a prohibitory liquer law applying to Wyoming County was passed by the Legislature at its last session, forbidding entirely the granting of licenses. And whereas, public sentiment is much exetted, and divided upon the same, the law not being strongly and successfully maintained, but fruitless litigation resulting therefrom. And whereas, upon a careful comparison of the petitions, for a repeal of said law, with the remonstrances against such repeal, we find a strong majority of the voters and actual tax payers upon the petions for repeal;
and

Whereas, any law upon the statute book, which is whereas, any law upon the statute book, which is persistently and successfully resisted by public opinion, must lead to greater demoralization of society, than could be produced by the alleged evil sought to be removed by the law, and Whereas, many persons who signed the remonstrances against repeal, have since by letter declared their countries in their conviction in a contrary direction, their com-munications now being before us, and munications now being before us, and Whereas, in the nature of things, it is illogical and unwise to prohibit, as a crime in one neighborhood, any act, which is not only tolerated I ut sanctioned by law in the next community; therefore Resolved. That as friends of temperance and morality, we believe it would be prudent, and judicious to so far modify the prohibitory liquor law of Wyoming county as to allow license to such Hotels as are kept, furnished and deemed necessary for the a commodation of the traveling public Making the forfeiture of license an additional penalty to the now existing for the violations thereof.

BOILS.

Like the volcano, Boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. To remove the cause of such suffering it is only necessary to vitalize the Blood by supplying it with its Life Element,

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP, (a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron) will do this effectually, and give strength, vigor and new life to the whole system. Extract of a Letter from REV RICHARD S. EDES, of

Bolton, Mass,

"For years I was a sufferer from Boils, so that my life became wearisome through their frequent and persistent recurrence; finally a carbunele formed in the small of my back. During its progress large pieces of decomposed flesh were every day or two cut away, and the prostration and general disturbance of the system were great. Before I had recovered from this attack two smaller carbuneles broke out higher up, and I was again threatened with a recurrence of the sufferings to which I had so long been subjected. It was at this time that I commenced taking the PERUVIAN SYRUP. I continued taking it until I had used five bottles; since then I have had nothing of the kind. For years I was one of the greatest sufferers. Other medicines gave me partial and temporary relief, but this remarkable remedy, with a kind and intuitive sense, went directly to the root of the evil, and did its work with a thoroughness worthy of its established character."
