The Impachers motto—Wade in. The American hot house—Congress. Forney don't like the platform of the Democratic Convention.

The Democrat.

HARVEY SICKLER, Editor. TUNKHANNOCK, PA.

Wednesday, Apr. 15, 1868.

Democratic State Ticket.

Auditor General, CHARLES E. BOYLE, of Fayette. Surveyor General, Gen. WELLINGTON ENT, of Columbia.

Keep it before the People—Prophecy Fulfilled.

"If these infernal fanatics and Abolitionists ever get power in their hands, they will override the Constitution, set the Supreme Court at defiance, change and make laws to suit themselves, lay violent hands on those who differ with them in their opinion, or dare question their infallibility; and finally they will BANKRUPT THE COUNTRY, AND DELUGE IT WITH BLOOD."—Daniel Webster.

The Pennsylvania Legislature adjourned yesterday. The people will breathe freer again.

IMPEACHMENT.—The impeachment trial of the President is still in progress at Washington. The defence has been examining witnesses since Thursday last to disprove the material charges brought against the President.

When Butler was a Breckinridge Democrat he professed to be very much in love with the South—and his subsequent conduct shows that he was spoungy about her.

Seward remarked some years ago, that the late elections in the North indicate that the women have fooled him.

Winfield Scott's house at Elizabeth, N. Y. has been sold for $11,900.

Gift Jewelry stores are increasing in New York.

Miss Chapin, (pretty, but 28,) preaches at Mount Pleasant, Iowa.

Gen. Butler, it is said, is writing the military history of General Grant. Perhaps, when he has finished it, he had better try his hand at his own.

A devoted damsel in New York scraped off the ends of a quantity of lucifer matches, swallowed the poisonous substance, and died.

The death of Phineas H. Young, son of Brigham Young, is announced by Salt Lake papers. He was an excellent painter, it is reported, and was aged only twenty.

Not all self-made men are famous, nor are they all remarkable for intelligence. For as the Boston Post sagely states, a man may be self-made who has made a goose of himself.

A genuine Irish jaunting car is the latest novelty on Broadway, N. Y., where it is employed as a public conveyance. The vehicle was manufactured in Dublin, Ireland, is gotten up in the finest style, and attracts much attention.

The Lisbon Journals record the death in that city of a man named Jose Santerneo, at the age of one hundred and thirteen. He was born in 1755, the year of the great earthquake, which destroyed a large portion of the Portuguese Capital completely.

The entire Democratic ticket was elected in St. Louis, Tuesday. Eight of the ten councilmen are Democrats.

The Democrats, for the first time in six years, have a full and complete victory in Leavenworth, Kansas.

Dr. Livingstone is alive and well. A bloodless duel was fought at Kokonisi, Tuesday, between two young men. Neither were injured. The matter was adjusted by friends after the first shot.

A heavy frost fell at Montgomery, Ala., Tuesday night, which it is feared has seriously injured the young corn, cotton and fruit.

A Washington correspondent ventures the assertion that Jefferson Davis has determined not to return to Richmond if Mr. Wade is in the White House, on the ground that the removal of Mr. Johnson is unconstitutional, and relieves him of his obligations to Mr. Johnson's administration to stand a trial.

Only sixty witnesses have as yet been summoned by the President's counsel in the impeachment case.

The St. Louis Evening Dispatch has changed hands, and hereafter will be conducted as a democratic paper.

Gen. Hancock.—General Hancock has issued an order taking command of the new department of the Atlantic, embracing the States of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, the New England States, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, and the District of Columbia, headquarters at Washington.

Breaking up of the North Carolina Congo Convention.

A correspondent writing from Raleigh, N. C., gives the following, as the closing scene of the Mongrel Convention of North Carolina:

A Mr. Littlefield took the chair and gave out "Old John Brown lies mouldering in the ground," two lines at a time, and the whole congregation sang it after him. Then the whole concern advanced to the chair, singing and dancing and shouting. They rang the fire-bells while the constitution was being signed, till half the citizens turned out supposing the town was on fire, and broke up in an orgie impossible to describe.

Among the features of the proposed constitution are the following: That whites and negroes shall be forced to attend the same schools.

That whites and negroes shall be drilled together in the militia—probably whites officered by blacks.

That white children are to be apprenticed to negroes.

That marriage between whites and blacks are to be legal.

The worst criminals are being pardoned out of the penitentiaries, that they may vote the Radical ticket.

Accidentally taking up Frank Leslie's paper the other day, my eye fell on the following sentence:

"The whites in the South being compared to negroes, numerically two to one, if they are ruled by the latter, why—they deserve to be. Is there a sane man in the United States who does not know that nine out of ten of the white men of the South cannot vote at all? And those the intelligent, the upright, the honorable and the true. While almost as a rule those who can, or rather those who do, vote, are the base and the perjured."

Another thing: The Radicals pause at no measure which will insure their success and our ruin. For instance, the negro Harris, member for this county, was nominated for Congress and would unquestionably have been elected, but he received orders from Washington, accompanied by a thousand dollars, to decline the nomination, which he did. There is nothing Radicals dread so much as to see negroes sent to Congress. Even the saints in Boston could not stand that.

"On the Whole Satisfactory." "Our special telegraphic correspondence this morning presents a very full view of the election fields of yesterday and the day before. It is on the whole, satisfactory."—Press, April 8.

Glad to hear it. Let us see whence the Press derives its satisfaction. The Democrats have carried Connecticut by a largely increased majority.

Michigan has declared against the hitherto pet measure of the Radicals—negro suffrage—by from 20,000 to 30,000 majority.

Cincinnati has gone partially Democratic at least. Last year the Radical majority in that city was nearly 5,000.

Sandusky has given 3,000 Democratic majority.

Evansville, Ind., has gone Democratic—first time in 23 years.

Milwaukee gives 1,500 Democratic majority; gain of 1,000.

La Crosse has sided with the Democracy by a majority of 100.

St. Louis, for almost the first time in its history, has given a Democratic majority. Leavenworth, Kan., elected Moorhead, Mayor by a majority of from 400 to 500. We might multiply these successes almost indefinitely.—Ex.

Abuse of Germans, Irish and Catholics. Whilst the Rads of the Pennsylvania House were rushing the Registry bill thro' so disgracefully on Thursday evening, they became wild with frenzy and belched out their love for the nigger and hate foreigners without reserve. On Friday, in the Senate, whilst Thorns' Philadelphia amendment was under discussion a similar scene took place. John Hickman, of the House, declared that "an intelligent negro was better entitled to the elective franchise than the Irish Catholic." Landon, of the Senate, is reported as saying that "the negro is better entitled to the elective franchise than an Irishman;" and Fisher, of the same body, from Lancaster, is charged with declaring the "Democratic party was composed of bog-trotting, ignorant Irishmen, and swag-bellied licker beer Dutchmen." These blackguardism and falsehoods will answer as excellent finger boards to point out to the people of Pennsylvania the true character and design of the Registry bill—an infamous measure concocted for the express purpose of disfranchising not only the naturalized citizens of the States but every man who labors with his hands and is poor.—Patriot.

$1,000 per Minute! is about the amount of taxation which the people of this country are paying to support the ruinous policy of the Kemp Congress! One thousand dollars per minute! and what for? Not to promote prosperity—or a reunion of the sections—or the re-establishment of trade and commerce—or the old kindly intercourse of the States—but to enable a corrupt party to keep power in the government, by oppressing white people, and elevating the negroes to be the ruling power in the State! But for this there would have been, long ago, a thriving trade, as of old, between the North and the South, peace, prosperity, and happiness. Instead of this, Northern labor is idle—but the TAXATION of Northern industry is active. If you like this state of things, sustain a corrupt Congress in keeping it up! If you do not, help us to put it down. This is your only chance, if you are under the heel of the African, it is your own fault, and you will deserve no pity!

In every city and town of importance in Pennsylvania, in which the Democracy rule by virtue of a majority of votes, the Radical leaders have concocted bills and asked the Legislature for special legislation designed to secure municipal authority for the minority through a partisan arrangement of Wards, unequal representation, &c. Such contemptible tinkering and gerrymandering ought to be severely denounced by every honest legislator.

WHY IS IT?

For nearly three years Jeff. Davis has been under arrest, and under the indictment of "high treason," for endeavoring by force of arms, to dismember the Union, and take the "life of the nation" and all this time his case has been under the perfect and exclusive control of the Republican party and yet, though persistently urged by his counsel, he has not been able to secure a trial, and is to-day at large on bail.

Although the trial of Davis, for treason against the government, "the life of the nation" is put off, from time to time, upon one excuse or other, the trial of Johnson for "treason against the Republican party" so far as in the power of Congress, will be rushed through without giving him time to breathe. Why is this? Is treason against the "best government the world ever saw," a less offense than treason against the Republican party? Is the life of the nation of less consideration than the life of the Republican party? From the acts of the party leaders, we are forced to the conclusion that they regard it so. For they may endeavor to cover it up with other issues as they please, it is too apparent to be concealed, that if Johnson is convicted and removed at all, it will be for political offenses against the Radical party.

Of the CONNECTICUT election said the Times on Saturday: "The result will be regarded as an important indication of 'popular sentiment on impeachment, reconstruction, and the nomination of General Grant.'" Well, how about the "important indication, of popular sentiment" in reconstruction, impeachment, and above all the nomination of General Grant?—World.

GRANT, GRANT was to win the day for the Radicals in CONNECTICUT. He has been "a failure to the party"—will he, too, be impeached?

Mrs. Gaines, widow of General Gaines, who has had a suit pending in the U. S. Supreme Court, against the city of New Orleans, for the last 35 years, claiming a large extent of territory occupied by the city, has at last gained her suit.—The decision was given by the Supreme Court last week, at Washington.
