

Local and Personal.

The Directors of the Tunkhannock Bridge Company have ordered an assessment of 45 per cent on the capital stock, and direct that it be paid to the Treasurer on or before the 15th inst.

The Pew in the M. E. Church of this place, will be for the next six months, on Monday, May 11th, at one o'clock P. M.

L. V. R. R.—The Pittston Gazette states that the rails of the extension of the Lehigh Valley road, above that place, are now laid across the Lackawanna and to the base of Campbell's Lodge.

Returned.—Mr. H. N. Sherman and Mr. C. De-trick, have just returned from the city where they have been for the past few days, laying in large stocks of goods.

Old Smokers, young smokers (there should be none of the latter class), and users of the weed, in all its varied reductive forms, will be glad to learn that Mr. M. R. Kohnstamm has opened at the rooms formerly occupied by Crane & Lull, an establishment for their special gratification.

The Exhibition advertised by us last week came off as advertised, on Tuesday evening, to a crowded house. Though there was an evident want of pre-arrangement, which made the delays rather tedious, the whole thing passed off satisfactorily.

Many of the actors showed decided talent for speaking and acting. The costumes of the Ladies were most elegant if not gorgeous, and excited much admiration.

Serenade.—Since moving, some weeks since, we have been considerably "demoralized and scattered." We didn't suppose anybody knew where we lived—indeed we were not entirely certain whether we lived where we do live or not, until a night or two since a serenade by several young ladies and gentlemen visited us at our home.

We were surprised to find that the singing—it was a sing-serenade—was very fine. We hope the parties will call on us when we are better prepared, in the matter of dress, to receive company.

N. B. If this distinguished mark of respect was intended for Mr. Shaw, our predecessor, who lives some distance away, we didn't hear it; for our good looking printer boy, we heard it—out fairly.

Lehigh Valley R. R.—We have been informed by the Messrs. Lee, contractors for building a railroad bridge at Falls in this county, that they have received orders from the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company to finish the construction of said bridge as soon as practicable.

A fire at Great Bend.—A small shanty owned by the D. L. & W. R. R., and occupied by a man named McLoughlin, & fire about two o'clock on Monday morning. The cause of the fire is not known, but it must have been very sudden, as three of McLoughlin's children, and a Miss McNeil, aged about 16 years, were burned to death.

Whizzing through the mountain, Barring over the vale; Bless me, this is pleasant, Riding on a rail.

Fire at Great Bend.—A small shanty owned by the D. L. & W. R. R., and occupied by a man named McLoughlin, & fire about two o'clock on Monday morning. The cause of the fire is not known, but it must have been very sudden, as three of McLoughlin's children, and a Miss McNeil, aged about 16 years, were burned to death.

New Game Law.—The new game law passed by the last Legislature, makes it unlawful to shoot, kill, trap or destroy any bluebird, swallow, martin, or other insectivorous bird, at any season of the year, Deer, fawn or elk are only to be hunted or killed during the months of September, October, and November; wild turkeys, pheasants or rabbits, from September first to January first; partridges or quails from the 20th of October to the 20th of December; woodcock or snipe from the 1st of September to the 1st of March.

Coal Trade.—Railroad communication will soon be opened between this coal field and Albany by the completion of the Albany & Susquehanna road to Binghamton. The Legislature of New York at its recent session made a further appropriation of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars towards it, and it is expected to be finished the coming summer. This will give a continuous rail to Boston.

The great event in the trade is the union of the Harlowton coal interests with the Lehigh Valley Railroad just consummated. It is not a purchase of stock, as was understood an exchange of stock, as was made between the Wilkes-Barre Coal & Iron and the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Companies assuring the coal tonnage to the road. The Navigation Company will lose a large trade there, but the increase from the region will be large.

Robbed.—James Lake, Ticket Agent at Epsytown, this county, was robbed on Friday night last of $50 and his way home by a couple of highwaymen, while on his way home from the station. The ticket office at the same station was robbed on Monday night of last week of a number of railroad tickets. A couple of boys were concerned in the theft. One of them has been arrested. He gave his name as George Jenner. The other is still at large.—Berwick Gazette.

Suicide by Drowning.—We learn that on Sunday afternoon last, Mr. Joseph Rinker, of Hanover township, in this county, committed suicide by drowning himself in the Lehigh Canal. We understand that after eating his dinner, he went to the bed-side of his wife, (who is ill), and held her good-bye. Upon being asked what he meant, he replied "you will learn after a while." He then left the house, and about two hours after his lifeless body was discovered in the canal. He was about 62 years of age, and no cause can be assigned for this strange act.—Berwick Sentinel.

Instruments Requiring Stamps.—The following are the instruments to be stamped, and the stamps to be used in ordinary business transactions: Note for notes and evidence of debts, five cents on each $100; if under $100, five cents; if over $100, five cents on each additional $100 or part thereof. All receipts for any amount without limit, over $20, two cents; if $20 or under, nothing. All receipts for the debt of trust, fifty cents on each $500 in value of the property conveyed or the amount secured; in the deed or trust, if duly stamped, the note secured must not be lost, but they should be endorsed to show the deed or trust. All assignments of estates or cancellations.

Acquitted.—The trial of Noah P. Smith, charged with shooting James Hoal, commenced on Tuesday last at Wilkes-Barre, and was concluded on Friday last by the jury returning a verdict of "Not guilty." The jury were out about three hours, and on the first ballot the vote stood—ten for acquittal and two for murder in the first degree. Finally the vote changed their verdict, and the verdict was rendered as above stated.—Scranton Daily Register.

Highway Robbery.—The collector of taxes of Harlowton township, Mr. John Whitebread, was robbed of nearly four hundred dollars last Friday, in broad noon, and in sight of carpenters at work in a house a quarter of a mile off. He stopped at Mr. Spoenberger's, where money was paid him, and was invited to dine, but started on, and soon met a young man who presented a pistol, and demanded his money. Mr. Whitebread has but one arm and is defenceless. He was knocked down and his money taken. The thief had dark hair, red face, was dressed in dark castimer suit. Half an hour before, two neighbors passed along and noticed this young man sitting on a chestnut stump no doubt waiting for his victim. Search was made, but the rascal may have reached the Lehigh valley station, six miles distant, in time for the afternoon train, or, if he is one of a gang, is lingering about that region, and knowing all the money transactions going on and the horses worth stealing.—Wilkes-Barre Times.

Luzerne License Law.—We publish in another column an act passed at the last session of the Legislature, entitled "An Act for the further protection of the wholesalers and retail merchants in the county of Luzerne," which is creating a good deal of excitement inside as well as outside of that county. Its provisions are rather too stringent for the interests of the consumer, and we understand indignation meetings are being held to express the opposition of the people to so odious and unjust a law. It protects the dealer in so far as it injures the consumer and that is too much the kind of protection the burghers give to suit the populace.

Revenue Seizure.—Inspector Mansfield, on Tuesday last, seized the distillery of Patrick Gallagher, hidden in a ravine, at Olyphant. No Whisky was found. Seven tons full of maguey were seized.—Scranton Republican.

"Look on this picture, and then on that." Here you behold the infirm step, The pallid cheek, wasting form, Unsetled food, and a social smile, Poisoned with the tales of aches, pains, Sleepless nights, and mental despondency, Thirst, laughing health, sparkling eyes, Elastic step, craving appetite, forgotten cares, Genial thought and ambitious resolves. Show the contrast and mark the picture. One took the Plantation Bitters—the other didn't. They are very beneficial for weak and delicate persons.

Magnolia Water. A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price.

"Time tries all things" and has proved that Dr. Wittler's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the remedy par excellence for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, bronchitis, asthma, phthisis, sore throat and influenza. It cures coughs and colds instantly! It soothes the irritated parts; it breaks the inflammation; and even consumption itself yields to its magic influence.

Married. COMSTOCK—HUBBART—At Scottville, March 25th, by E. E. Patton, M. E. Comstock to Miss G. P. Hubbart, of North Branch, Pa.

CARPENTER—McMILLAN—By the same, at the same place, on April 2nd, Mr. George Carpenter, of Mehoeny, to Miss Amanda McMILLAN, of Exeter, Pa.

Died. PREVOST—In Wash on township, Wyoming Co., Pa., the 29th day of April, 1868, John Anthony Prevost, in the 81st year of his age.
