Osterhout E.q. of this points on this question, each is striving to get aid MENS' from Wyoming. The sorrel torned mark to get aid ford, has the impudence to come into Wyoming and contest the field here, with the local candidate-and with a good prospect of success. He has been making speeches, and visiting the brethren at different points, many of whom, strange as it may seem, are PANTS, still credulous eaough to think he is honest. With those who are not deluded with this idea, he operacts with the same weapons made use of by the "Penn R. R. Co.," in producing so sudden a change DRAWERS, in himself. In the use of which none are more skilful than he now is. Some busy bodies have even hinted that he, in the end, will make merchandise of Neck-ties, Mr. O., should he get the nomination in this County It is more than probable however, that he will carry the County on his own hook, even as against Osterhout. He already rules the Radical roost ir. Bradford, in defiance of their best men there.
