CAUSE OF DISEASE.

A hungry mare, that had been accustomed to eat nothing but grass, with a young colt at her side, was fed a few quarts of corn. A painful death soon followed. Instances are by no means rare in which death has been the certain and inevitable result of a violent exercise; of driving a horse a little too fast when his stomach is full; of compelling a borse to perform a long journey without rest or food, and then allowing it to have free ac. cess to an abundance of green, succulent from in the exhausted and jaded condition in which the end of this hard journey found him ; of confining in cold airy stables when they have been accustomed to warm ones: of being shut up in foul stables, not half ventilated and blanketed warmly, and glutted with the most nutritious food and allowed no exercise; of being exposed for hours to the pelting and inclement storms of winter, without the necessary protection, after being driven furiously.

It is, doubtless, farthest from the intentions of every one to do anything, or leave it undone, which will result in injury to his animals. It is an excellent rule to see that animals are always fed and made comfortable before our own wants are supplied. When and at GREAT BEND with the through Mail Train before our own wants are supplied. When working animals are weary they must rest.—
When their meal time comes they must stop and be fed, whether they have performed their accustomed task or not. In driving on the highways let rail cars, omnibusees and their scale and their accustomed task or not. In driving on the highways let rail cars, omnibusees and their accustomed task or not. In driving on the highways let rail cars, omnibusees and significant the highways with steeping an attached, stopping at all the principal stations on that road, and arriving at Buffalo at 5 fb a. m., and at Salamanca at 11.55 p. m. express vehicles leave you far in the distance. Let the impetuous roadster disdain your deliberate pace. Let Jehu (Kings ix, 20) and a retinue of a whole township pass you in their impetuosity. They leave the highway behind them. Let dark and dreary night come on before you reach your place of destination, but let not your horses be driven beyond their natural gait.

A GREAT FARMER'S MAXIMS.

The successful life of Mr. Jacob Strawn, the prince of American farmers, attributed to the close observance of the following maxims, originated by himself.

When you wake do not roll over, but roll out. It will give you time to ditch all your sloughs, break them up, harrow them, and sow with timothy and red clover. One bushel of clover to two bushels of timothy is enough, Make your fence high, tight and strong, so clean they will eat it better than if it is not.

Be sure to get your hands to bed by seven o'clock, they will rise early by force of circumstances. Pay a hand, if he is a good one, pay him a little more; it will encourage him to do still better.

Always feed your hands as well as you do vourself : for laboring men are the bone and sinew of the land, and ought to be well I am satisfied that getting up early, indus-cines ever prescribed for health. When rainy, bad weather comes, so that you can't work out doors, cut and split your Make your track, fixing your fence or a gate that is off its hinges, or weather boardipg your barn where the wind has blown the siding off, or patching the roof of you barn or house.

Study your interests closely, and do not spend any time electing presidents, senators and other small officers, or talking of hard times when spending your time whittling store boxes, etc.

Take your time and make calculations, don't do thing in a hurry, but do them at the right time, and keep your body employed. Pr

Sore shoulders in working horses may be effectually prevented by cutting a piece of leather into a shape so as to lie snug ly between the shoulders of the horse and the collar. This sends off all the friction, as the collar slips and moves on the leather and. not on the shoulders of the horse. Chafing is caused by friction; hence, this remedy is a plausible one, and is much better than tying a slip of leather under the collar.

LEMON SHERBET .- Dissolve a pound and a half of loaf sugar in a quart of water, add the juice of ten lemons, pres the lemons so as to extract not only the juice, but the oil of the rind, and let the skins remain awhile in the water and sugar; strain through a sieve, and then freeze it like toe cream,

SAISAFARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Marray & Go, manufacturers of enamelted papers in Nushua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and mediene, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SAISAFARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SAISAFARILLA."

From Dr. Robt. Sawin, Houston St., New York.

Dr. Ayen. I seldon fail to remove Eruptions and Scrotalous Sores by the persevering use of your Sarsaparkilla, and I have just now cured an attack of Miliganat Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the Sarsaparkilla you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your Sarsaparkilla. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyos.

From Harvey Sickler, Fag., the able editor of the Tunkhamock Democrat, Fennsylvania.

Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathnome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilled physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we graarded his hands, less with them he should trar open the featering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having trued every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your Saksarakilla, and applying the loddle of potush loton, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had misshed the second. The child's eyelastics, which had come out grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must tile."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Hiram Stort, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your Saksarakhila a more effectual emedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess.
The procession are indicated to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an entirent payarean of Lawrence, Mass, who is a prominent member of the Legistature of Massachuselts.

DB. AYER. My does SIT I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and seemful to other remedies. I do not know what we can exploy with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required.

Leucorrhoen, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Screptulous Uncertainty, and are very often cured by the alternance effect of this Saksapakhila. Some cases require, however, in sid of the Saksapakhila, the skilled application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated De. Jacob Morrill, of Charimati.

"I have found your Saks at Natilia an excellent alterative in diseases of featules. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhea, Internal Theration, and local debility, arising from the scropious diathests, have yielded to it, and there are few that do sea, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."
