Written for the Democrat. CAMPAIGN SONG.

Brilliant and bright is the Freeman's fight. For Liberty contending, Our cause so true we will pursue, Unflinching and unbending. We will hall the day when Seymour may, Poor Grant and Colfax meeting. Set them affoat in their old disunion boat, From Democrats retreating.

The Republican crew know not what to do, Amazed they stare with wonder, The Union now is echoing With Democratic thunder. And on their tomb they may read their doom, A sad and fearless warning. The party was laid low by a Democratic blow, One bright November morning.

Then fling on high to the bright blue sky. Our proud and starry banner, Our ship is all right, we hail the fight, With brave boys we will man her. ree cheers, hurrah, let it sound afar, Three cheers for our next election. We will bury you so deep, you woolly-heads, There will be no resurrection.

HEIMBOD'S EXTRACT OF HUCHU. - Hundrods suf-fer on in silence, and hundreds of others apply van-ly to druggists and doctors, who either merely tan-talize them with the hope of a cure or apply reme-dies which make them worse. I would not wish to assert anything that would do injustice to the at-flicted, but I am obliged to say that although it may be produced from excessive exhaustion of the powers of life, by latorious employment, unwhol-some air and food, profise menstruation, the use of tear and coffee, and frequent childbirdh, it is far oft ener caused by direct irritation, applied to the mu-cous membrane of the vigina itself.

When reviewing the causes of these distressing complaints, it is most paiful to contemplate the at-teniant evils consequent upon them. It is but sim-ple justice to the subject to enumerate a few of the many additional causes which so largely affect the life, health and happiness of women in all classes of society, and which, consequently, affect more or less directly, the welfare of the entire human family. The moria that exists for precoccus education and marriage, causes the years that nature designed for corporal developments to be wasted and perverted in the restraints of dress the early configurent of school, and especially in the unhealthy excitement of the ball-room. Thus, with the body half clothed, and the mind unduly excited by pleasure, perver-ing in midnight revel the hours designed by nature for sleep and rest, the work of destruction is half accomplished.

In consequence of this early strain upon her sys-tem, unnecessary effort is required by the delicate votary to retain her situation in school at a later day, thus aggravating the exil. When one excite-ment is over, another in prospective keeps the mind mobility sensitive to impression, while the new con-stant rotraum of farhionable dress, ab olutely for bidding the exercise indispensable to the attainment and retention of organic health and strength; the exposure to night air; the sudden change of tem-ingenture: the complete prostration produced by ex-cessive dancing, must, of necessity, produce their legitimate effect. At 1ist, an early marriage caps the elimity of nuclei and treatment. This is a buttly regardless of the plain dictates and remonstances of her delicate nature, becomes an unwilling subject of incided treatment. This is at a buttly betture of the experience of thousands of our young women.

Long before the ability to exercise i the functions of the generative organs, they acquire an education of their peculiar nervous system, compose i of what is called the tissue, which is, in common with the female breast ned lips, evidently under the control of mental emotions and associations at an early pe-riod of life; and, as we shall subsequently see, these emotions, when excessive, lead, long befor-puberity, to habits which sop the very life of their victims are nature has self-completed, their devel-ormat.
