WYOMING CO., PA. --WEDNESDAY, TUNKHANNOCK,

paper devoted to Poli cic News, the Arts and Sciences&c. Published every Wednesday, at Tunkhannock Vyoming County, Pa BY HARVEY SICKLER

Terms—1 copy 1 year, in advance) $2,00; if paid within six menths, $2.50 will be charged NO paper will be DISCONTINUED, until all ar rearagesre paid; unless at the option of publi

RATES OF ADVERTISING

ADVERTISING, as may be agreed upon, PATENT MEDICINES and other advertisements by

Business Cards of one square or less, per year EDITORIAL OF LOCAL ITEM advertising-withaut Advertisement—15 cts. per line. Liberal terms made with permanent advertisers. EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS and AUDI-TOR'S NOTICES, of the usual length, ..... $2,50 OBITUARIES, - exceeding ten lines, each; RELI GIOUS and LITERARY NOTICES, not of general nterest, one half the regular rates.

Advertisements must be handed in by Tues-Ay Noon, to insure insertion the same week. JOB WORK

f all kinds neatly executed and at prices to suit

Business Notices.

H. S. COOPER, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON Newton Centre, Luzerne County Pa.

O. L. PARRISH, ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Office at the Court House, in Tunkhanock
Wyoming Co. Pa.

W. M. M. PIATT, ATTORNEY AT LAW Office in Stark's Bric k Block Tioga St., Tunk

T J CHASE. ATTOUNEY AND COUNSEL
LOR AT LAW, Nichotson, Wyoming Co., Pa
Especial attention given to settlement of deceson, Pa., Dec. 5, 1867-v7n19y1

M. J. WILSON, ATTOMNFY AT LAW, Collecting and Real Estate Agent. Iowa Lands for sale. Scianton, Pa. 35tf.

W, RHOADS, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, J. will attend promptly to all calls in his profession. May be found at his Office at the Drug Store, or at his residence on Putman Sreet, formerly occupied by A. K. Peckham Esq.

PORTRAIT, LANDSCAPE, ORNAMENTAL

By W. RUGER, Artist. Rooms over the Wyoming National bank, in Stark's hotographs - Photographs Painted in Oil Colors er, or no charge made.

Instructions give der, or no charge made.

Instructions given in Drawing, Sketching,
Portrait and Landscape Painting, in Oil or water
Colors, and in all branches of the art,
Tunk. July 31, '67 -v6n50-tf.

TUNKHANNOCK, WYOMING CO., PA.

THIS ESTABLISHMENT HAS RECENTLY been refitted and furnished in the latest style.
Every attention will be given to the comfort and convenience of those who patronize the House.
H, HUFFORD Proprietor.
Tunkhannock, Pa., June 17, 1868.—v7n44.

BOLTON HOUSE.

onize the House.
T. B. WALL, Owner and Proprietors:

TOWANDA, PA.

is fitted up in the most modern and improved style and no pains are spared to make it a pleasantand agreeable stopping place for all, v3n21-ly.

per yard, at

LOST OR STOLEN.

Myoming Democrat. Latest News.

Late arrival of New Goods.

Great Bargains at the New Store of Detrick. TUNKHANNOCK, PENN'A

Having just returned from the City, I am now pening an entire New Stock of

FALL GOODS

and one of the lorgest and richest assortments ever offered in this community. Consisting of RICH AND FANCY COL'RD DRESS SILKS, FRENCH AND ENGLISH MERINOS,

EMPRESS AND PRINCESS CLOTHS,
EMPRESS AND PRINCESS CLOTHS,
POPLINS, PAREMETTOS,
BLACK AND COLORED
ALPACCAS WOOL, ARMURE, PEKIN
AND MOUSELIEU DELAINS, INPORTED
AND DO MESTIC GIN GHAMS, PRINTS of Best Manufactures and Latest Styles, Ladies Cloths and Sacqueings, Cloths, Cottonades.

Drills, Derims,
Ticks, Checks,
Stripes,
Sheetings
Sheetings Shirtings, Sontags, Hoods.
Furs, Ladies' Reticules, Shopping Bags and Easkets.
TRUNKS, VALISES, and TRAVELING BAGS,

All TRANSIENT ADVERTISEMENTS and JOB Kid, Silk, Lisle Thread, Cotton Gloves, Hosiery, Notions, Toilet and Fancy GOODS,

R. & W. ELITTLE ATTORNEYS AT FANCY SOAPS, PERFUMERY. Se. Se. S ..

Black and Colored Velvets,

Ruffles,
Frills,
Fringes,
Braids,

A Large quantity LATEST STYLE HOOP SKIRTS, and CORSETTS, direct from Manufacturers, at greatly reduced prices,

FLANNELS all Colors and Qualities. READY MADE

Furnishing Goods.

CALF, KIP, and SEAVY, BOOTS & SHOES. CAIP, KIP, and SEAVY, BOOTS & SHOES,
Ladies', Misses', and Children's Kid Prunelle Morocco and Calf Gaiters, Shoes, and Slippers,
Wall used Window Pape Window Curtains & Certain Fixtures, Carpets &

tures, Carpets &
OilOilCloths. China,
Glass, and Stone Ware,
Tinwere,—made expressly for this
Trade, and warranted to give satisfaction, and FISH.

ROPES. CORDAGE. BASKETS, BROOMS. PAILS.

BRUSHES, of all kinds.
PATENT MEDICINES, DRUGS, and DYES
FLAVORING EXTRACTS, &c., &c.

A Wisconsin paper has come in little Ku Klux outrage which was recently perpetrated in Alabama. The boys were dinner. rather severe in their treatment of Mrs. Bagger, but she probably deserved it, and said the squire. ought to thank her stars that she was not seriously hurt: A horrible outrage was committed somewhere in the State of Alabama a few days ago. Our informant is a reliable colored man, who heard the particulars from a member of the "Loyal League," who got his information from a fellow who lost a cousin in the late war. It seemed that a Mr. Carpet-Bagger was attack in his own house by 1,632 Ku Kluxers, armed with double-barrelled bowie knives. They slaughtered and ate nineteen of Mr. Bagger's children before his eyes, and compelled Mrs. Bagger to cut her own head off and hang it on a hook in the cellar. She was then ordered to keep still upon pain of instant death. She happened to sneeze, and the leader of the dastardly crew immediately had a threshing machine set up, and run Mrs. Bagger through. It's very doubtful if she recovers. Mr. Bagger was then torced to swallow four tons of gunpowder and a handful of nitro glycerine. He was next dieted on live coals until an explosion took place, which subjected Mr. Bagger to such an intense pain as almost to deprive him of reason. They next shot him full of holes, made him hurrah for Jefferson Davis and Horace Greeley and finally inoculated him with the smallpox, and soaked him with strong lye. He was threatened with instant death if he revealed the names of any of the perpetrators of this outrage, all of whom are neighbors of Mr. Bagger, and who hate him because Mr. B. was a loyal sutler and cotton speculator during the war, and now lives on a confiscated plantation, with enough niggers to elect him to the Jegislature. It is feared that Mr. Bagger has sustained such internal injuries that he is not able to appear as a witness at the military commission appointed to try some ex-rebels for reading Democratic newspa-

A STRANGE CHARACTER.

Leonard Jones, a monomaniac of most riginal type, died in the hospital at Louisville the other day at the age of seventy: When about twenty years of age, Jones betrayed symptoms of the monomania, which afterwards rendered his name familiar to every citizen of Kentucky. His chief hobby was the idea that human life could be rendered immortal merely by fasting and prayer, in the promulgation of which theory he earned the title of "Live for Ever Jones." After he took to the my dress! O, I'll pay you for this! business of promulgating his remarkable views, he conceived the idea that he was a you remember, for that lettuce. living illustration of his own doctrines. The manner in which he illustrated them may be inferred from the following incident: Having been invited by a lady residing in the vicinity of Louisville to partake of a bountiful repast of soup and cle which recently appeared in the Chicago olate the proprieties of the Sabbath, or sit out the Republic. pumpkin, Live for ever pointedly declined, Union couched in spiritual language and at the gambler's table, nor cross the thresh- have entered into liberal agreements with down, when he gulphed down a tureen of unto them a parable : ' soup, and pitched into the pumpkin in such | In the paradise of the bondholder, it is adorning its dectrines by a blameless life | ed in health and tranquility, and which is house, who was first disposed to regard his statement in the fight of a jest, seeing the But when the war came, and the chief crally to the erection of every other church ble one for cultivating personal piety and marry her. The vound man and the marry her. to go into a stupendous speculation. It was Jones' first and last. Failing to secure an office by election, although for and thou should st repay me in gold." many years an aspirant for every office in "Unbeliever," cried the other, "read this," "This note is a legal tender for all State he proceded to recanvass the State on the principle that the least number of votes should elect. Although he was the loyal man, show myself willing and obedimost extraordinary character in the coun- dent to the command of the chief council try. The physicians assert that he was Thou wilt resist the laws of the land .not insane, and incline to the belief that Thou art a copperhead and a traitor .-his mind was in a state of "quasi de-form- Here, take that which is thine own, and tion on "The Editor" ran as follows, in a SUCCESSFUL SEARCH,-Mr. L--affronted his wife, who, to punish him, re. solved to act dumb whenever he was present; and so well did he maintain her resolution, that nearly a week passed away during which not a word did she utter in his presence. She performed her bousehold duties as usual, but speak she would not. He tried to coax her out of her whim, but in vain. At last he tried the following plan to overcome her resolution, by working on her curiosity - the most ungovernable of female propensities. Returning one evening from his employment, his lady sat SWEEPERS, there as usual, mute. He immediately commenced a vigorous search throughout the room, drawers, boxes, shelves; everything that could be thought of was overhauled, His wife was struck with astonishment at his unaccountable behavior, and as he proceeded in his search, she became nervously anxious to find out what he was looking for. What could it be? She looked his face, to glean, if possible, from his this community, and will be sold as heretofore, at the lowest living rates for cash or exchanged for country cover and finally approached her chair, endeavor by strict attention to my brush her dress partially aside, as if what this knife?" "I find him, farder." "No, business, to merit a continuance of he sought might be there. She could stand Hans, I believes you tell one big lie." swered-"Your tongue, and I have found "No, Hans, I vip you cause you so very

THE SQUIRE AND HIS WIFE. -The squire possession of the following particulars of a had a friend to visit him, and was very much annoyed in being interrupted by his wife, who asked him what he wanted for

"Go away! let us alone," impatiently

Business detained his friend till dinnertime, and the squire urged him to remain. The Squire was a generous provider, proud of his table; and he complacently escorted his friend to a seat. A little to left. the sniprise of both, they saw nothing on the board but a huge dish of salad, which the good wife began quietly to serve up "My dear," said the Squire "where are

"There are none to-day," replied his good lady.

"No meats? what in the name of povthe sun do you not have the vegetables brought in ? " "You didn't order any vegetables." 'Order-I didn't order anything," said the amazed Squire. "You forgot," coolly answered the busewife. "I asked what we should have for dinner and you said, "Lettuce us alone!" and here it is."

The friend burst into a laugh, and the Squire, after lurid and lubrious a moment joined him.

"Wife, I give it up. I owe you one .carpet, which I denied you." The Squire forked over. "Now let us have pieceand some dinner."

The good woman pocketed the paper,

A few days afterwards, the Squire remained working in his garden some time after the usual tea hour. His wite grew impatient of delay, and went out to find him. His excuse. when she asked him what he was waiting for threw her into a flutter of excitement.

"Some one's to come to supper!" he exclaimed. "Why didn't you tell me? I declare you are the provokingest man!" And without asking which of his friends was expected, she hastened to change her dress and "slick up" her hair for the occasion. This done, she came out and found the Squire seated at the table, readng his paper. "Where's your company?"

"My company? I haven't any company. "But you said you expected somebody to supper!" exclaimed his wife.
"My dear I said no such thing. asked what I was waiting for, and I said "Summons to come to supper"-that's what I said I was waiting for, my dear .-

And I came at once," "And you have made me go and change "No matter about it my dear. I owed,

THE BONDHOLDER--PARABLE OF THE POUNDS

The following is a translation of an arti-inexorable demand exhausting the total supply of pumpkin, announced her belief in the story of his interminable fast. In one day and bought with his $10,000 in one of his strange business freaks he al- gold $25,000 in greenbacks. And he took tution) he has been made by it an L. L. served by all the people of the United most ruined a number of gentlemen whom therefrom $10,000 and went to his friend,

But the other said, "I loaned thee gold, go thy way." And, as the loyal man would not bury raiments."

ington, and it came to pass that he receiv- day, and he couldn't take nothing back. ed permission to take from the people many thousands of dollars more every year, because license was given him to issue national bank notes at usury,

"For I say unto you, that unto every hath shall be taken away from him." Then spoke the chief council:

'This loyal fellow shall be free from all taxes and assessments."

Too Lucky,-"Hans, where you "No. farder dat is true: I is the luckiest boy you ever see." "Vell, Hans, I has to vip you." "Not cause I steals, farder?" lncky."

an admonition there is to the laborers, taxpayers, and lovers of the country in the remarks of Washburne, of Illinois, while ur- cerning the Camilla Riot: ging Congress not to delay adjourning.

would have neither money nor credit

What an admission for a leading black republican to make, on the floor of Congress and in the face of the American peo-

Profligacy, extravagance, venality, corruption, legislative jobbery were all day of last week. summed up by Washburne in the phrase, This report em "At the rate we are going," and the conerty! The vegetables, then—why under sequence was self-evident, "the government would have neither money nor cred-

Is there any wonder that the people everywhere cry for a change? A change means self-preservation-othing more, nothing less. A change is resisted by those who are by those who want power to continue their lunder of the public-by those who grow fat on the unrest and disturbed condition of the country-by those who want to destroy the republic by making the rule Here is fifty dollars you wanted for that of the people odious by those who want power to compel the people to become slaves to a money aristocracy for generations to come.

Where will the people-the laborers, rang the bell, and a sumptious repast of fish, poultry and vegetables was brought business men—be in this controversy. business men-be in this controversy.

Their course will determine the capacity of the people for self-government; and, in doubt, that the negroes and their Radical fact, whether this republic is a temporary white leaders were the unprovoked agor permanent human contrivance .- Cincin-

A LADY'S TRIBUTE TO GOVERNOR

The Revolution, Mrs Cady Stanton's paper, publishes this extract from a letter of a lady in regard to the Presidential nomination: In private conversation Governor Seymour is instructive and interesting, and is, if possible, more remarkable for his elegance of manner, and graceful courtesy in the drawing room than his matchless and magnetic power as a public speaker. Although most captivating in private life, he is in no scuse a man of forms or fashion. In his presence the plainest persons are at their ease-and feel at once that they are with a kind and good man, Democratic in all his instincts, principles and purposes. Simple and unostentatious, strictly temperate, he uses neither strong or spiritous liquors, nor tobacco; of the most refined gathered into the grainary and the storetastes and elevated morals; it is said of house in marvelous abundance. Our highhis early youth, that he was never under prolific regions have been occupied. We the influence of strong drink-never known are permitted to hope that long protracted I fencing it to keep the poor bastes out of to tell an untruth or utter a profane oath political and sectional discussions are, at it?" replied Pat. —to indulge in a vulgar story, a coarse no distant day, to give place to returning anecdote or an obscene jest—nor did he vitelling the lady of the house that he had affording an apt illustration of the position not tasted food for forty years.

affording an apt illustration of the position of the bouldholders to the people:

old of more fashionable vice. Purity of life is with him a marked characteristic. heretofore have been unsocial and exclusive will," replied Mike; "but what will I tell Finally he was prevailed upon to sit "And he taught the people and spake Educated in the Episcopal church, he has sive, have become our friends. The an- him if I don't mate him?" ever remained faithful to its cummunion, nual period of rest, which we have reacha ravenous manner that the lady of the as with the man who borrowed from a and muliplied deeds of charity. Yet free crowned with so many blessings, is, by attentions of a young man for several months D., as well as by a Methodist University in States as a day for public praise, thanksanother State. The children of the or- giving and prayer to the Almighty Creaphan asylum have been guests at his for and Divine Ruler of the universe, by house (which is a house of prayer,) and it whose ever watchful, merciful and granomination reached Utica, these children no less than famillies and individual men, lady,

THE EDITOR .- A schoolboy's composischool not far from Cincinnati: "THE EDITOR .- The editor is one of the his pound, he went and bought him, with happiest animals in the known world. He the remaining $15,000, which he honora- can go to the circus, afternoon and evenbly earned by his loyal trade, United ing, without paying a cent; also to in-States five-twenty bonds, which netted quests and hangings. He has free tickets him an income of $900 in gold or $2,500 to picnics and strawberry festivals, gets in the money of the land, about 15 per wedding cake sent to him, and sometimes cent. "And he clad himself in purple gets a licking, but not often, for he can take things back next issue, which he gen-And when he wanted to increase his erally does. I never knew only one editalents, he deposited his bonds in Wash- tor to get licked -His paper busted that While other folks bave to go to bed early, the editor can sit up late every night, and see all that's going on, The boys think it's a big thing to hang out till 10 o'clock. When I sm a man I mean to Shon struck the fence board, knocking it one which hath, shall be given; and from be an editor, so I can stay out nights. him that hath not, even that which he Then that will be bully. The editor don't have to saw wood or do any chopping, except with his scissors. Railroads get up excursions for him, knowing if they didn't he'd make 'em get up and git. In politics "And cried the Republican convention, he don't care much who he goes for if they are on his side. If they ain't he goes for field, he espied a man. Going up to him honorable - honorable -- HONORABLE! Pay 'em anyhow, so it amounts to nearly the he said: "Mynheer, I show you one little this loyal man, who is in need, with gold same thing. There is a great mapy peo- trick for nodding." As there was no ple trying to be editors who can't and ome of them have been in the profession for years. They can't see it, though. If I was asked if had rather have an education or be a circus rider, I would say, let ceived the blow on his mouth, and was me go and be an editor."

THE CAMILLA RIOT REPORT.

The National Intelligencer contains the following on the talked-about report con-

It was announced several days ago that General Sibley, the chief officer of the "He desired an adjournment at the earli- Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia, had made est possible moment, for if they went on at an official report upon the late riot at the rate they were going, the government | Camilla. Various applications have been made to the Bureau here by the representatives of the press for copies of this that the report had not been received .-It has been ascertained, however that it has been in the hands of General Howard, Commissioner of the Bureau, since Tues-

This report embraces the sworn statement of reputable witnesses as to all the details of the affair. It verifies the correctness of the statements originally made by the Sheriff and Messrs. Vanson and Johnson and B. II. Hill, and shows conclusively that the whole responsibility of the riot rests upon the negroes and their white leaders, Pierce and Murphy: that the negroes marched to the meeting in a don't give her more than 50 cents, for we fattening off the laborers and taxpayers - body, and armed and well provided with have to support our own church, you know. ammunition, and when remonstrated with Don't forget to bring my silk dress and by the Sheriff as tending to produce a se- my other shoes. Come as soon as you can. rious disturbance of the public peace, re-fused to lay aside their arms. This was the cause of the riot.

The effort to suppress the publication of the report is attributable exclusively to the fact that it would just now be seriously damaging to the Radical party in the pending canvass, as it not only entirely contradicts the falsehoods manufactured and put forth for the benefit of the Radicals, demonstrates, beyond any shadow of gressors in the Camilla riot, and were bent upon producing a violent collision between the negroes and the whites, which, except for the prompt and efficient action of the Sherifi, might, and probably would have resulted in a general war of races, instigated solely for the salvation of the imperilled radical faction of revolutionists in the North.

Proclamation by the President. By the President of the United States

THANKSGIVING.

A PROCLAMATION. In the year which is now drawing to an end, the art, the skill, and the labor of the people of the United States have been employed with greater dilligence and vigor and on broader fields than ever before, and the fruits of the earth have been him, by those who have known him from ways have been lengthened, and new and Pat? a flock of sheep would starve to death was noticeable that, when the news of his cious providence alone States and nations,

States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this twelfth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight, and of the Independence of United States the ninety-third.

WM. II. SEWARD, See'v of State.

THE DUTCHMAN'S TRICK .- While a Dutchman was passing through a city in fication of the air was such that every word Vermont, a Yankee came up to him and was auditale. said, "Shon, if you treat to the cider I will "You told me, Leonora, that you always learn you a trick." Shon agreed. Yank felt happy—no matter where you were—so then placed his hand against a fence and long as you were in my company. Then why told him to strike it as hard as he could. Shon, not thinking that any harm could befall him by doing so, struck a blacksmith's blow, but instead of hitting Yank's hysterically, but I never meant above the hand, the latter jerking it away, poor off. "Mein Gott in Himmel!" cried Shon, "what you make follish? I knocks marry a widower, and as an argument they my hand off clean up de elbow! Oh, spoke of his two beautiful children. "Chil-

Poor Shon was bound to have revenge; fence or tree near, Shon put up his hand against his mouth and said: "Strike yast as hard as you can." Mynheer struck, knocked down.

Shon jumped up, his mouth bleeding The New York Herald claims to and commenced dancing with pain.—
have cleared $260,000 during the first Sherusalem: I goes back to Holland on half of the present year.

Should propose the first sherusalem: 1 goes back to Holland on out of an old cup-board,"

Mise and Otherwise.

Too LATE. - A young couple eloped from a neighboring town, lately, and when at a safe distance from home were married. Soon after an officer was sent in pursuit, and arriving at the hotel where they were stopping, he immediately entered their room and found them snug in bed. He explained his errand, when the young lady said with a ringing report, to all of which it has been replied laugh: "Tell ma it is too late-we've been married some time, and have been in bed half an hour. Te! he! heee! Don't get out of bed for him John !"

> PARTING WORDS,-A lady parting from her husband a few days since in the cars at Albany was overheard by the passengers to utter the following paragraph, all in one breath : "Good bye Will. Write to me every day, won't you? I'll expect a letter three times a week anyway. Take good care of my Sunday school class, for I want it when I come back. If Miss Smith calls

An exchange says: "A young lady who teaches music in an academy in Western New York, sent an order to a publisher recently, in which she had spelled the words very poorly. She apologized by adding a postscript, as follows: "You must eskews this letter as I pla bi noat but spell bi ear.

A young Missourian, eulogizing his girl's. beauty, said: "I'll be doggoned if she ain't as purty as a red wagon."

The attachment of some ladies to their lap dogs amounts, in some instances, to infatuation. We have heard of a lap-dog biting a piece out of a male visitor's leg. His mistress thus expressed her compassion : "Poor dear little creature ! I hope it will not make him sick !"

A Kentucky editor advertises :- "Wanted. at this office, a bull dog, of any color, except pumpkin and milk, of respectable size, snub nose, cropped ears, abreviated continuationwho can come when called with a beefsteak and will take his pound of flesh from the man who squirts tobacco juice on the stove, and steals the exchanges.

A gentleman, seeing an Irishman fencing in a very barren and desolate piece of land, said: "What are you fencing in that lot for, on that land." And sure, your honor, wasn't

"Mike," said a bricklayer to his hodman, as we are waiting for him." "Sure and I marry her. The young man said he was not ng one day that he wanted a good chief offieer, was promptly informed by a young lady present, that she had no objections to being his first mate. He took the hint-and the married man took his bride on a tour to Switzerland for the honey-moon, and when there, induced her to attempt with him the ascent of the high peaks. The lady, who at home had never asseended a hill higher than a church, was much alarmed, and had to be By the President, Seal ANDREW JOHNSON. Curried by the guide, with her eyes blindfolded, so as not to witness, the horrors of folded, so as not to witness the horrors of the passage. The bridegroom walked by her side, expostulating with her fears. He spoke in honeymoon whispers, but the rariare you not happy new ?" "Yes. Charles, I did," she replied, sobbing

A lady who was urged by her friends to socker blitz ! mine poor frau, what will dren," replied the lady, "are like toothpicks" -a person wants her own."

A Lynchburg paper talking of certain articles worn by the ladies, says : "The false bosoms are made of fine wire sinner. "Success is a duty, but tike a great many and look and feel quite natural." You old

"Oh, mama, I wish you had been to Church

P. B. BARTLET, BBRAINARD HOUSE, ELMIRA, N. Y. PROPRIETOR.

FOR SALE CHEAP,

3000 Yds. DELAINES for 15 cts.

TUNKHANNOCK, PA. ders for paintings executed according to or-

HUFFORD HOUSE.

THIS ESTABLISHMENT HAS RECENTLY

THIS establishment has recently been refitted an will be given to the comfort and convenience of those MEANS' HOTEL.

SLATFORM SPRING WAGONS, At JEREMIAH CAMPBELLS', Tunkha nnock Pa n49-tf.

5000 Yards Best Prints, for

At the Nicholson Fair, a pocket book, containing the doltars in money, and a note dated about June lat., 188, calling for $200, payable one year atterdate to the undersigned and signed Jasper Billings of the state of the same, and will try to make the it no longer. She burst out—"Bob, what are you looking for?" He smiled and another the undersigned and signed Jasper Billings of the same, and will try to make the are you looking for?" He smiled and another the undersigned and signed Jasper Billings of the same, and will try to make the are you looking for?" He smiled and another the same, and will try to make the it no longer. She burst out—"Bob, what are you looking for?" He smiled and another the same, and will try to make the it no longer. She burst out—"Bob, what are you looking for?" He smiled and another the same, and will try to make the it no longer. She burst out—"Bob, what are you looking for?" He smiled and another the same, and will try to make the it no longer. She burst out—"Bob, what are you looking for?" He smiled and another the same, and will try to make the it no longer. She burst out—"Bob, what are you looking for?" He smiled and another the same, and will try to make the it no longer. She burst out—"Bob, what are you looking for?" He smiled and another the same, and will try to make the it no longer. She burst out—"Bob, what it no longer. Sh

Beads, Ball and Bugle Trimmings

Clothing,

HATS AND CAS of Latest tyles,

20 per cent. Cheaper than the usual rates in htis Nails. ikes, Iron.
Steel,
Horse Shoes,
Horse Shoe Nails,
Nail Rods,
Paints,
Paint Oils,
P a in t

Material, Putty, Window Glass, Kerosene Or Hall, Partor, Stand, and Hand he induced by wonderful representations and said: "Here my friend, take what I Lamps,

The undersigned having lately purchased the "BUEHLER HOUSE" property, has already commenced such alterations and improvements as will render this old and popular House equal, if not superior, to any Hotel in the City of Harrisburg.

A continuance of the public patronage is refpectfully solicited.

GEO. J. BOLTON
GEO. J. BOLTON
GEO. J. BOLTON
BUTTER,

CHEESE,

LARD,

PORK,

HAMS,

ISH.
SUGAR,
TEA,
COFFEE
SPICES, SYRUP, &
MOLASSES,

TUBS, WASH BOARDS. CARPET

These goods have been selected with great care to suit the wants of produce at market prices. Thankful for the past liberal patronage, I shall looked under it, and even went so far as to