Local and Personal.

Shipping Tags.—Dennison's Direction Labels or shipping tags—various sizes—blank or printed to order, for sale at this office.

It is a Fact—perhaps not generally known that the Democrat, being the only paper published in Wyoming County, is the only paper that comes anywhere near publishing any of the latest Telegraphic despatches from Birampooter Kingdom come, or any other "furin parts."

Vendue.—Samuel Hatfield, of Windham, will sell at Vendue on Tuesday, Dec. 22nd. One span horses, one yearling colt, one two-year old colt, mowing machine, wagon, harness, ploughs, and other farming utensils.

Important to Advertisers.—The Democrat being the only paper published in Wyoming County, has—we are warranted in saying—by far, the largest circulation of any paper printed in the County. Advertisers and dealers wishing to bring their goods, &c., to the notice of the Wyoming County public, will make a note of these facts. Terms of Advertising and Job Work the same as when two other presses were running here.

We're Tired of trying to make interesting local items about our unfinished bridges, the railroad, and all that, these have been rehashed in so many shapes that they begin to grow stale—if indeed they were not so at the beginning. Won't some of our friends out of town, jot down some little news items of their places for us?

Come, friends, let us hear what is going on with you.

Don't Forget that the date which follows the name on the tinted address label attached to this paper, shows—as we understand it—the time up to which the person to whom it is sent, has paid for his paper. When payments are made these figures are changed to a more recent date. Payments should be made made now and then, to save the old type from wearing out.

The same figures used for several years, as we have used them in upwards of several cases,—are about "used up," as is also, the printer's liberal stock of patience and trustfulness.

Yesterday—The First day December,—usually considered the first day of winter—ass erted its right to that distinction by giving us a foretaste of what may be expected in the way of frost and wintry winds. It is to be hoped, for the sake of the completion of R. R. and River bridges, and other improvements about town, that we shall yet be favored with some fine weather before the Frost King assumes the scepter in earnest. We have failed to note when and where the "Indian Summer" came in this Fall. In behalf of that unfortunate race we protest against these unseasonable proceedings.

The Keystone Academy.—A brief communication from Rev. Mr. Furman, of this place, in another column, in reference to the establishment of an Academy, near Factoryville, should be read by all the friends of education—and who is not a friend to education? The opinion, that a school to be permanently successful should be controlled by a sectarian religious denomination, we think, is erroneous; and is too true however, to be complimentary to that Christian charity, benevolence and toleration, which, we suppose, to be the essence of true Religion. But denominational, sectarian schools, are better than no schools at all. We hope this one will receive a liberal support.

A Challenge.—We have received the December number of "Merry's Museum," for young people, and old people, too, who have not forgotten that they were once young.

The Publisher, HORACE B. FULLER, Boston, claims that "Merry" is the best magazine of its kind now in this country, and challenges comparison. Our readers can decide this point for themselves by sending to him two three-cent stamps for a specimen.

The January number begins a New Volume, which will be further enlarged and improved. Terms, $1.50 a year in advance.

Beecher's Sermons—in the "Church Union."—Our papers having announced that these sermons would not be printed in the CHURCH UNION, we take pleasure in stating that the sermons of this week will do appear in every issue of this paper, and hereafter they are to be printed hereafter at twelve o'clock on Monday, getting the sermon of Sunday in the next day. We understand the publisher of the CHURCH UNION promises to print Mr. Beecher's sermons so long as they are acceptable to the church, and requests all other papers to publish from his own pages freely.

Our friends want a wide-awake religious paper, Christian, and full of interesting matter, the largest and most catholic paper in the world, let them go to HENRY E. CHILD, 41 Park Row, for a copy of the paper, enclosing 10 cents.

Silver plated ware.—Most people doubtless, ourselves—have felt themselves "entirely at sea" in hearing dealers in plated ware discuss the relative values of plating. So much so, that, after they have felt themselves obliged to trust to the honesty of the dealer—which is the only alternative without knowing what was claimed for the article

Mr. David McKown, a plater and dealer in silver-ware at Pittston—whose reputation for honesty in dealing, where he is best known, is well established—in his advertisement in another column of this paper, gives us some light on this hitherto mysterious subject. After reading his explanation, it must be thought so very mysterious after all. Read it and judge!

The "Hearth and Home" is the title of a new family newspaper—the first number of which will appear on the first day of January 1869,—to be published by S. M. Pettingill & Co., of New York, and edited by Donald G. Mitchel, and Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, and a corps of distinguished writers.

The Hearth and Home, we understand, is to be kept entirely from partisan or Sectarian bias, and devoted as the name indicates, to the social, every-day business cares and recreation of the home circle.

The publishers, who, as Newspaper Advertising Agents have an enviable reptation for energy and success in such matters, among the fraternity; and have extensive facilities for such and undertaking, bestow a large amount of talent and energy in this new enterprise, we have no doubt of its complete success; and speak for the he Hearth and Home a cordial welcome to many hearth stones and home circles in the land—as also, to all the editorial Sanctums—Go Ahead Pet!!

Cuck-oo-o! Cuck-oo-o!!—Those who in years past visited the old, down town Barnum-Museum in New York, will remember that among its many curious and curious things was the "Cuckoo clock"—a relic. As it went ticking off the seconds of time, every half hour out hopped a diminutive cuckoo bird, and after cuckooing sprang back into the cage—the upper story of the clock—and closed the door after him only to be opened after another thirty minutes of time had been lost forever. Those who saw this curious piece of mechanism doubtless suppose it the only thing of the kind that ever had been or would be, made. Not so. Some enterprising Yankee has gone to making Cuckoo clocks. Messrs. Burne Brothers, Jewellers and dealers in clocks, watches and silverware, of this place, have a bird of that rather beats Barnum's—This one is an every day bird, and comes forth and cuckoos out the hours as they glide off into the dim unreturning past.

Step in before the hand points to twelve and look at the sewing machines and silver and plated ware, with its elegant and tasteful designs, the fine watches, jewelry, and fancy fixings, and meanwhile keep a close watch of the garret story of the cuckoo clock, for, as sure as the minute hand moves round to a perpendicular just so sure will the bird appear and vocalize a mellow cuckoo for each hour of the day. To do this need only cost a few minutes of time—This curious clock as well as all the rich and elegant goods are on exhibition—free.—

We.—Well, we have often thought that the frequent repitition of this little pronoun, of the first person—(We are not quite certain as to the number—We know that a good natured man, a good looking woman, and two very interesting children are often involved in it) and nominative case; "we." We were about to say, that the frequent repetition of the aforsaid pronoun; (when the continuity of the sentence was broken up by that confounded long parenthesis, which we hope everybody will get over without breaking their grammatical, or rhetorical shins;) "we," must sound a little stale and harsh on the tympanums (vugarly called, ears) of some of our readers. But for the life of us, (There, now comes in the we, again,—in another shape,) we can't avoid it, unless we call ourselves—(There's another modification of that little contemptible we—gotistical word.) Snooks, or some other outlandish name, (which no one else has, or if they have it, don't care how quick some one else takes it,) But then, how would it sound (when the aforesaid good-looking woman, and the two interesting children, heretofore mentioned, went along the streets) to have all the people say; "there goes the unfortunate Mrs. Snooks, and the two little unfortunate Snookses?"

We started out to say something; and we are going to say it, if it takes all winter and part of next summer—We—We—We—We wish some of our subscribers, who are several years behind on the their subscriptions, would "pony up" between this and the holidays, so that Mrs. S. could have the wherewithal to get her a long-tailed dress—a regular Grecian bender!

Married.

BRADY—GUERNSEY—At the residence of L. B. Guernsey, Nov. 25th, by Rev. C. R. Lane, Mr. J. Brady, of Tioga, Tioga Co., Penna., and Miss Marie L. Guernsey, of Tunkhannock, Wyoming Co.

WATKINS—KEENEY—On the 26th inst., at the residence of bride's brother, 124 Cumberland St. Brooklyn, N. Y. by Rev. B. D. Sturdevant, Horace E. Watkins, of Athens, Pa., to Ruble H. Keeney, of Laceyville, Pa. No Cards.

☞ While we cannot but join in the congratulations incident to this event, which is quite likely to occur in the history of all good and worthy women, we almost feel like regretting that the name of our fair friend, Rubie, which has become so familiar on our subscription list, is about to be changed, or at least to take an addition which will be new to us.

Upwards of seven years ago—in the very infancy of the Democrat—when Rubie was a mere girl, and while her honored father yet lived, the very first name on our list for Laceyville, was that of Rubie Keeney. It has stood there ever since, and each week as it has been written or stamped on her paper it has conjured up to our imagination the goodly vision of its kind hearted and intelligent owner. The name too, suggested that beautiful passage in the Scriptures, "Her price is above rubies," &c.

But, it has been said that there is but one step from the sublime to the ridiculous—We rather think we have stepped

The brother of the bride, Col A. C. Keeney, at whose splendid residence the wedding ceremonies were celebrated, in an elegant, sumptuous and becoming style has placed us under obligations for a long necked bottle, containing a sample of the exhilerating beverage used on the occasion.

The Colonel now the largest and most successful contractor and builder of public improvements in New York and Brooklyn cities, is sound too, in his political faith—not forgetting the teachings of his Father—

May the shadow of this generous and worthy Brother, of a true and worthy sister, never—you know the rest.

WYOMING METALLIC PAINT COMPANY

The Wyoming Metallic Paint Company was organized under the general laws of the State of New York, with a CAPITAL STOCK OF TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS divided into TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND SHARES OF TEN DOLLARS EACH.

The company own the mine and land around it in fee. No royalty is therefore to be paid, THE ONLY EXPENSE TO BE INCURRED IN MANUFACTURING THE PAINTS, is simply in quarrying the rock, and reducing it in the Company's mill, situated in a stone's throw of the mine.

THE PAINT OF THIS COMPANY HAS BEEN THOROUGHLY TESTED by competent chemists and first class MASTER PAINTERS, and ALL TESTIFY TO ITS SUPERIOR QUALITY.

It contains over 75 per cent of iron. IT IS A GOOD BODY, MIXES READILY, REQUIRES BUT LITTLE OIL, TAKES TINTS, AND IS VERY DURABLE.

In view of the great abundance of material and the SMALL COST OF MANUFACTURING, and the SUPERIOR QUALITY OF OUR PAINTS, the Company expect to supply the market with a BETTER ARTICLE and at CHEAPER RATES than any other company in the country.

OPINIONS OF PAINTERS.

The undersigned, a practical painter, hereby certifies that he has used most of the mineral paints in use for years past, and that he regards that of the WYOMING METALLIC PAINT COMPANY, found in NICHOLSON, WYOMING COUNTY, Pa. superior to all others for durability and finish.

GILBERT BROWN
Nicholson, June 27th, 1868.

PIERCEVILLE Aug. 25 1868.

O. L. HALLSTEAD, Esq.—DEAR SIR: I have used the Wyoming Paints, and believe it to be the best and most durable Metallic paint in use. It has a good strong body, works easily, requires but little

Very Respectfully,
PERRY STARK.

NICHOLSON, Oct 5th 1868

O. L. HALLSTEAD Esq.—DEAR SIR; I have used and otherwise tested the WYOMING METALLIC PAINT, and am clear of the belief that it is superior to any other Mineral Paint in the country. It has a good color and mixes readily; but its strong and best features are its heavy substantial body, combined with an extremely oily nature, in consequence of which it requires at least a third less oil than any other paints in use. J. L. PECK.

NEW YORK, Oct 1st, 1868.

O. L. HALLSTEAD Esq.—DEAR SIR: I am a practical painter. Have been extensively engaged in the business for over thirty years. During that period I have used every variety of paint known to the trade, and with satisfaction pronounce the WYOMING METALLIC PAINTS, the best I have ever seen. It has a heavy body, mixes easily and takes from a half to a third less oil than ordinary paints. It can be used successfully, either for cottage purposes, rough out-door work, roofing, or as a fire-proof paint.

Respectfully &c
A G BOLWIN,
Practical Painter.

Pierceville, Aug 28, 1868

O. L HALLSTEAD Esq.—Dear Sir: I have tested the Wyoming Paint, by using it in my shop, and believe it to be superior to any other Metallic Paint in the market, has an excellent body, mixes readily, and requires only about half the usual amount of oil of other Paints. Respectfully &c

CHAS. L. JACKSON Cabinet Maker
Pierceville, August 15, 1868

O. L. HALLSTEAD, Dear Sir; I gladly add my testimony in favor of the excellent qualities of the Wyoming Metallic Paint. From practical tests I believe it to be superior to any other mineral paint in use. It has a substantial body, mixes easily, requires but little oil and makes a handsome finish.

ISAAC D CORRY, Wagon Maker
Later from Mayor Hill.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Scranton Pa. June 23 1868.

O. L. HALLSTEAD Esq—Dear Sir: Having made a personal examination of the properties of the Wyoming Mineral Paint, and tested it in most every manner, I am convinced that it is inferior to no article of the kind to be found in the country.

Very Truly Yours,
E. S. M. HILL

TOWANDA, August 1st, 1868.

O. L. Hallstead, Esq.—Dear Sir. About thirty-five years ago my father, purchased a quantity of the Wyoming Mineral Paint, with which he at that time painted a building, and after the lapse of a Quarter of a century it is fresh and good. Better evidence of quality can hardly be required.

Truly Yours, E. REED MYER
Scranton, sept. 8, 1868

O. L. Hallstead, Esq—Dear Sir: I have used the Wyoming Metallic Paint, and have great pleasure in saying that it is superior to any other mineral paints in the market. Its heavy substantial body makes it durable for outside work, roofing and &c., and the readiness with which it takes tints renders it an excellent article for cottage purposes. Altogether I regard it as the best paint in use

Very Truly Yours,
DAVID BAILEY, House and Sign Painter
