PERRY STARK NICHOLSON, Oct. 5th 1868 O. L. HALLSTEAD ESQ — DEAR Sire; I have used and otherwise tested the WYOMING METALLIC PAINT, and am clear of the belief that it is superior to any other Mineral Paint in the country. It has a good color and mixes readily; but its strong and best features are its heavy substantial body and best leatures are its heavy substantial body, combined with an extremely oily nature, in consequence of which it requires at least a third less of than any other paints in use.

NEW YORK, Oct 184, 1863.

O. L. HALLSTEAD Esq.—DEAR SIR: I am a practical painter. Have been extensively engaged in the business for over thirty years. During that period I have used every variety of paint known to the trade and without healtstin pronounce the WYO. trade, and without hesitation pronounce the WYO MING METALLIC PAINTS, the best I have eve seen. It has a heavy body, mixes easily and take from a half to a third less oil than ordinary paints. It can be used successfully, either for cottage purposes, roughout door work, roofing, or as a fre-proof paint.

Respectfully &c. Respectfully &c.
