Negro Suffrage.

The Harrisburg Patriot publishes the following draft of a memorial to the Legislature protesting against Mr. Sumner's proposed amendment to the Constitution, authorizing negro suffrage regardless of the well known and expressed wish of a large majority of the people of the country. We have before alluded to this subject, and would again urge upon the citizens of this State the importance of moving actively to avert the nefarious schemes of such fanatics as Sumner, Wilson, Butler, and other leading Radicals in Congress. Let them rise in their might and declare in no uncertain tone thus far shall the waves of Radicalism flow, and no farther. We do not believe that the people of Pennsylvania are yet ready for negro equality and suffrage, and if they would avert the pending evil they must meet the issue now, by instructing their servants in the Legislature not to ratify the amendment which is maturing under Sumner's manipulations. In every county, city, town and village throughout the State the memorial should be circulated, or something like it, and thus create a public sentiment which our Legislators cannot mistake and will not dare to resist. This question is no longer one of politics, as between Democrats and Radicals. It presents an issue on which members of both parties can stand side by side in defense of the ancient rights and privileges of the State. It is a question of resistance to a further centralization of power on the part of Congress. The amendment proposes to take from the States the power of defining the qualifications for franchise within their borders, and places it in the hands of an irresponsible set of men known as the Congress of the United States. We trust there will be a prompt awakening to the importance of this matter and a resort to the proper measures to defeat the intended usurpation of the rights of the people of Pennsylvania. The following is the form of the remonstrance referred to, and should be copied, universally signed, and sent to Harrisburg.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met:

The undersigned, citizens of _____ county without distinction of party, do most respectfully but earnestly and solemnly remonstrate against the ratification, in your honorable bodies, of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as Article XV, which provides that "the right of any citizen of the United States to vote and hold office shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State, on account of race, or color, or previous condition of slavery of any citizen or class of citizens of the United States." We do protest against the ratification of the same, for the reason that under the Constitution, as it now stands the people of the several States have complete control over the question of suffrage, and the people have not been consulted as to whether they are willing to part with this important privilege, and in the language of the platform upon which General Grant was elected to the presidency, we do insist that "the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States." We therefore, do most solemnly remonstrate against the ratification of the proposed amendment, known as Article XV, by the present Legislature. Respectfully submitted,

Negro Suffrage Bill.

The House, it will be recalled, some days ago passed a joint resolution to give negroes the right of suffrage. That bill went to the Senate. On Tuesday last the Senate had the resolution under discussion and passed it, after a prolonged debate, in the following shape:

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives, etc., two-thirds of both Houses concurring, That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, either of which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be held as a part of said Constitution—namely:

Art. 15th. No distinction shall be made in the United States, among the citizens of the United States, in the exercise of the elective franchise, or in regard to holding office in any State, on account of race, color, or nativity, property qualification or creed.

Art. 16th. The second clause first section, second article of the Constitution of the United States shall be amended to read as follows:

Each State shall appoint, by the vote of the people thereof qualified to vote for representatives in Congress, a number of electors equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress; but no Senator or Representative or persons holding an office in the United States shall be appointed an elector; and that Congress shall have power to prescribe the manner in which such electors shall be chosen by the people.

The joint resolution now goes to the House for concurrence.

Dr. Mudd, who was tried as an accomplice of Booth, in the murder of President Lincoln, and sent to the Dry Tortugas for life, by the Military Court, has been pardoned. Dr. Mudd had the misfortune to be called on by Mr. Booth, after he had committed the deed, to get his broken leg set. The Doctor performed the operation, without knowing how it occurred, and Booth then left, and Mudd was arrested in consequence, as an accomplice. There is a strong effort now making to get the other citizens released who were sent there by the same illegal court.

Good For Dinah.—The upper class negroes of Washington, it is said, refuse to participate in the grand inauguration ball to come off in Washington, alleging that the white women that will attend, are not respectable enough.

A young girl, about thirteen years of age residing in Cornwall Village, New York lies in her sleep on Sabbath evening of last week, in a fit of somnambulism, and walked along the railroad track some eighteen miles to State bridge, where she was found, still asleep, sitting by the roadside.

Those who look upon a national debt as a national blessing will be especially gratified to learn that during the month of January just closed, over $15,000,000 was added to our national blessing. Surely, at this rate, we will soon be the best blest nation in the world.

Men ought to be chaste and continent in California, if pecuniary interests have any influence upon their moral movements. In that State, if a man commits adultery, and his wife gets a divorce in consequence, all his real estate becomes her property.

A good joke is told of a rising young lawyer in Troy, whose eloquence had cleared a chap charged with uttering counterfeit money, and the grateful man gave $50 for his service. He tried to use some of the money after the fellow had left town, and found that every dollar of it was counterfeit.

The recent judicial decision in the McCarthy case, at New-Haven, is interesting if a man neglects or refuses to provide for his family, he can be treated as a pauper and sent to the Alms House to labor for the support of his wife and children.

A Man in Benedict, Maine, sells a large quantity of apples every year for just 50 cents a bushel. He might get four times as much, but declines to take more because he thinks that is just about what apples are worth. He declines to sell more than four or five bushels to any one man.

General Grant's Speech.

One great advantage of a President-elect's saying but little is that the little he does say is sure to be scanned with eager, curious attention. To meet the public inquisitiveness respecting General Grant. Below will be found what is telegraphed from Washington as a word-for-word report of his speech in reply to the committee that delivered to him his certificate of election:

I can promise the committee that it will be my endeavor to call around me as assistants such men only as I think will carry out the principles which you have said the country desires to see successful—economy, retrenchment, faithful collection of the revenue, and payment of the public debt. If I should fail in my first choice, I shall not at any time hesitate to make a second, or even a third trial, with the concurrence of the Senate, who have the confirming power, and should just as soon remove one of my own appointees as the appointee of my predecessor. It would make no difference.

There is one matter that I might properly speak of here, and that is the selection of a Cabinet. I have always felt that it would be rather indelicate to announce or even to consult with the gentlemen who I thought of inviting to positions in my Cabinet before the official declaration of the result of the election was made, although I presumed that there was no doubt about what the declaration would be. But after consideration I have come to the conclusion that the great number of requests which could be invited to place in the Cabinet without friends of some other gentleman making an effort to secure the position; not that there would be any objection to the party named, but there would be others who they had set their hearts upon having in the place. I can tell that from the great number of requests which come to me, in writing or otherwise, for this particular office or that one, from different sets or delegations. If announced in advance, efforts would be made to change my determination, and therefore I have come to the conclusion not to announce who I am going to invite to seats in the Cabinet until I send in their names to the Senate for confirmation. If I say anything to them about it, it will certainly not be more than two or three days previous to sending in their names. I think it well to make a public declaration of this to the committee, so that my intentions may be known.

This certainly is no great display of intellect; but candor constrains us to say that it is no ordinary exhibition of character. The man who thus quietly holds his tongue upon his own unassisted judgment, evinces a resolute self-reliance which is one of the most respectable qualities that can be possessed by a man clothed with great responsibilities. His judgments may in some cases be mistaken, but they will at least be his own.—World.

A Carpet-bagger.

No one will question the ability of Hannicutt, of Virginia, to understand and describe a "carpet-bagger." He understands this class of persons, their habits, manners and peculiarities, as thoroughly as did Audubon the habits and peculiarities of the various kinds of birds. Hannicutt has slept with the carpet-buggers, ate with them, traveled, preached, prayed and lumbagged with them. He has aided in inflaming the passions of the negroes against the whites, and pointed out to his associates from other States the spots in Virginia where their blows could be made most effective. Thus posted as to the carpet-buggers, the following sketch from the brush of their late comrade cannot fail to be accepted by the community. Elder Hannicutt says: "A few strangers squatted in Virginia for the whole and sole purpose of making their living and fortunes by office-holding. These men, without means, without any established characters to recommend them to the confidence of the people, without any employment or business to help build up the State in any way; loafing around, prying into everybody's business, having none of their own; looking out for any vacancy of office which may be made; trying to shove others out that they themselves may creep in; trying to pull others down that they may go up; trying to snatch the bread out of honest men's mouths that they may fill their own greedy stomachs; trying to undermine honest men's business that they may sneak into their places; trying to crush out truth and honesty to make way for lying and robbery." The point and moral of this are, that the whole aim, object and purpose of the Reconstruction acts are to put Southern States into the hands and keeping of this class of persons. It may well be characterized as a scheme to "crush out truth and honesty" and "make way for lying and robbery." We thank thee, Hannicutt, for teaching us that word.

Pa the Taxes.

The laboring men of this nation—the tax-payers—were promised that "times should be easier" upon Grant's election; that public confidence would be restored and money and labor become abundant.—We would ask these dupes of Radicalism if these pledges have been fulfilled? The money market is now so stringent that enormous rates are paid for the use of money;—in some cases to our knowledge twenty to twenty-five per cent. In the face of these facts our public expenditures, both State and Federal, are increasing at an alarming rate. Fraud and corruption are more rife than ever.

As illustrative of this, we would call the attention of our readers to the fact that the increase of the public debt in January was $15,498,456.83. Just think of this ye toiling masses; groan and sweat under your burdens, and see the lordly bond-holder gather in his gold from untaxed bonders which he bought at a ruinous discount.—Many of you voted to continue Radicalism in power, now pay your taxes.—Ec.
