Millheim, Friday, Mar.

Terms—$1.25 Per Annum.

More snow on Wednesday. Call at this office for job printing. Venue notes for sale at this office. EASTERN comes on the 28th of March. Millheim is to have a new school building. H. A. Larimer's sale amounted to almost $19,000. Twenty-four inches of snow fell on Monday and Wednesday. We are under obligations to Hon. W. K. Alexander for documentary favors. THERE is no season of the year when it is safe to discontinue advertising. Wall Paper by the Cord, at the Hardware Store of Musser & Hunkle Bros., Millheim. About twelve inches of snow on Monday, has put the sleighing in good trim again. The Convention at Spring Mills was a success, as was also the Concert on Saturday evening. THE doxology is sung in churches, in order to afford men a chance to put on their rubber shoes, overcoats, &c. Rev. John W. Leckie will preach his last sermon at Millheim, next Sunday evening. Communion services. Just read E. H. Kister's card, and then cut it out and preserve it, and when you need anything in his line, just give him a call. Old fashioned, quiet, Clean New Berlin, having slept for a Century, has at last woken up and is making an effort to start a National Bank. The stock Books of the Millheim Bank and Loan Association are receiving new subscriptions daily. Better call soon if you wish to secure any stock in the first series. March comes in with twelve inches of snow, consequently we may expect that it will go out like a lamb. This is not intended as a personal insult to "Mary's little lamb." Mr. J. A. Rankle, of the firm of Musser & Hunkle Bros., cut his knee with a hatch on Monday, and has been limping ever since. The cut is not serious, though very painful. J. P. Coburn, Esq., sold his bay horse, "Billy," to Daniel Rhodes, Superintendent of the Snow Shoe R. R. Co. and purchased a Brown Bashaw horse of Mr. A. S. Valentine. And now the Millheim Telegraph suggests that Sunbury be made the terminus of the L. C. & C. R. R. until the extension to Danville is completed. Not a bad idea, George. The School Exhibition on Saturday evening proved a success. The Hall was not quite full but still quite an audience was present. All seemed well pleased with the efforts of Prof. McCurdy, and his pupils. Some two weeks since, Mrs. D. C. Witt, of this Village, tipped over a boiler full of hot water, scalding her feet very badly. She has been confined to the house ever since, and the greater portion of the time to her bed. Prof. Fechner, after a four weeks stay in our village, returned to his home in Selinsgrove, on Monday. Prof. Fechner, as an instructor of Bands, has no superior, and very few equals. We understand that an effort is being made to persuade him to locate permanently in our midst. We trust the effort may be successful, as nothing else is needed to make the Millheim Cornet Band second to none in the State. We were agreeably surprised when Mr. J. A. Kittell, Superintendent of our office last Wednesday afternoon. Jimmy looks quite natural; a little stouter than when he sojourned among us but otherwise he is just the same genial, good natured, gentlemanly Democrat he was when he left here. He contradicted the rumor in regard to David Williams being dead, having ridden with him in the cars from Pittsburg to Tyrone, on Tuesday night. Mr. K. will represent Howley & Co. at the letting on Saturday. It is to be hoped that Messrs. Howley & Co., and D. Williams will get their old contracts, as they have more money in them than they have received, and should have an opportunity to "get even."

The Job Printer of this Printing Establishment cleared the Poster hook yesterday for the first time in '75. Bring in your orders for posters. The bridge over Penns Creek, at the Forks, gave way on Friday night last. We understand the Supervisors have been able to save all but the frame under the centre.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bowers, of Akron Ohio, formerly of Aaronsburg this county, celebrated the 20th anniversary of their wedding by a china wedding.

Mr. J. W. Glenn, retired from the Primary Department of the Millheim Schools on Wednesday, as he intends to move during the present month. Mr. Reuben Zerby succeeds him.

ANY person who takes up stray cattle and neglects to advertise the same in one paper in the county within ten days thereafter, subjects himself to a certain penalty prescribed by law. Please make a note of this.

Elias Kremer's sale to morrow. Also, L. B. McEntire's, at Spring Mills. Isaac Loge, Administrator, will sell 8 Acres of Timber Land at Lambert's Hotel, in Aaronsburg, on Monday, and the Executors of Andrew Stover, deceased will sell his personal property next Thursday.

We have spoken about wood a great many times during the winter, but there are still quite a number of those who promised wood on subscription who have not "come to time." If they do not intend to bring the wood will they be kind enough to hand us the money for their subscription and we will buy wood with it.

The Bellefonte Republican is very much troubled as to what Hon. W. K. Alexander will do with his salary. As they are meddling with what is none of their business, they will probably know more about it when Mr. A. condenses to enlighten them. One thing is certain, Mr. A. did not promise half of his salary to the county, as the radical candidate did.

At Hugh Larimer's sale, in Penn Twp. on Thursday last, a pair of butch-chains, still in good order, were knocked off to Gib Larimer. These chains were made 50 years ago for Gib's father, and after the death of the latter, were bought by Hugh Larimer at the sale of deceased's personal property, and now they have been bought back again by his son Gibson of Pleasant Gap.—Centre Hall Reporter.

Prof. J. F. Shauger, graduate of Fowler & Wells, Phenological Institute, New York, will lecture in the Town Hall, Millheim, Monday evening, March 6th, on Phenology, Physiology and Health. The Prof. comes very highly recommended as a delineator of Character, and the Lecture will undoubtedly prove very interesting. The Millheim Cemet Band will be present and discourse some of its excellent Music during the evening. Admission 15 cents. Children 10 cts.

Mr. H. A. Larimer called at our office yesterday and expressed himself very much pleased with the result of his sale. He returns his thanks to all who were present, for their spirited bidding and prompt compliance with the conditions of sale. He expects to locate at Centre Hill, where he intends to engage in the Mercantile business. We are sorry to lose Hugh from our Township, and trust that he may meet as warm friends in his new home and business as he leaves here.

DURING the year 1874 there were but three persons killed on the Philadelphia and Erie Railway, two tramps trying to steal a ride and one employee. It is doubtful if any road in the country of the same number of miles in length can show as good a record as this.

Mr. Wm. Flory, of Penns Creek, married a wife on the 28th of November, and on the 30th of January he married another. This may suit William, but it does not seem to suit all parties concerned, and, as a consequence, he pineth in "durance vile," on a charge of bigamy.

Mr. Harvey Mann, proprietor of Mann's Axe Factory, near Bellefonte, was injured at Mingo Station, four miles from Stuebenville, Ohio, on the 19th of February. A broken rail threw five cars down a twenty foot embankment. Mr. Mann received injuries which resulted in death last Saturday.

His remains were brought to his late home and interred in the Bellefonte Cemetery on Tuesday. He was in the thirty-seventh year of his age.

Madisonburg Shorts. The Public Schools will soon close. School Exhibition on Saturday evening.

Mr. Michael Rishel, is slowly improving. Owing to the cold weather, the Sunday Schools are poorly attended.

A protracted meeting of the Evangelical Association was held last week.

D. K. Miller, will locate at Jacksonville, and engage in the mercantile business.

There are quite a number of our young folks troubled with what they call the "monkey." Mr. D. K. Miller, of the firm of Ocker & Co., will leave this place before long. We are sorry to see Mr. M. leave us.

Mr. Daniel Baney, of North Madisonburg, purchased an engine, which we expect to see in operation this week yet. Success to Mr. Baney.

American are a Nation of Dyspeptics. We live fast, dissipate and ill-temper. We drink all kinds of alcoholic spirits, and swallow, without mastication, pork, grease, and every kind of life-destroying, system clogging indigestible food. Dr. Walker's Vegetable Compound will remove the evil effects, and the recovered patient, with pure, vitalized electrical blood flowing through his veins, will have a clearer head and a cooler judgment, which, added to experience, will cause him to abstain in the future.
