NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All advertisements, Business Notices, Marriages, Deaths, &c., to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the CASH.

HARRISBURG, PA. Saturday Evening, November 29, 1862.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

THIRTY FIVE BUSHELS OF CLOVER SEED were raised on seven acres of land in Blair county last season. This beats the yield of the same article on the same area of which we have ever heard.

ITEM.—The paragraph which adds so much life to the local columns of the Patriot this morning, on the subject of the ten cent stamp for the marriage certificate, appeared as original in the local columns of the TELEGRAPH almost a month since.

A STATED MEETING of the Friendship Fire company will be held in their Hall on Monday evening, at the usual hour. Every member is requested to be present, as important business will be brought before the company, and nomination of officers for the ensuing year.

THE PATRIOT AND UNION has the following standing card in its local columns:

"Military business of all kinds attended to. EUGENE SNYDER.

How would Mr. Snyder like to attend to the nice little military job of taking Richmond? That would be rather a good joke on Snyder, Bedford Gazette.

For the benefit of the Gazette we impart the information that "Snyder" served one term of enlistment in the army, and now has two brothers marching with the gallant Burnside to the capture of Richmond. So the "joke" of the second Gazette is of that practical order which turns the shame and the laugh on its own sneaking cowardice.

THE DEPARTURE OF THE DRAFTED MEN.—The drafted men in Camp Curtin are marching for the seat of war, as fast as regiments can be organized and despatched hence. Yesterday one regiment left for the south—to-day another will leave—and in a few days Camp Curtin will not contain a company of drafted men.

In relation to the drafted men here, we must state in this connection, that the desertions have been very large, indeed to such an extent, that some of the companies are reduced one-third and even one-half. Efforts should be made to compel the return of these deserters. In justice to those who gracefully and obediently submit to the draft, the deserter should be forced to discharge the service he owes to the state.

A MAGNIFICENT RESIDENCE.—A splendid improvement has been made on the lot just above Fourth street on the east side of Market, by Harry Thomas. The spacious building which heretofore occupied these premises, has been reduced one story, and to this an addition of a magnificent three story dwelling has been erected, with its front immediately on Market street, leaving a spacious side yard. The entire improvement is in keeping with a magnificence and extent not excelled by any other private residence in Harrisburg, and while it adds greatly to the appearance and attraction of that part of Market street, it also affords one of our most active, liberal and enterprising men a splendid home. Mr. Thomas has been the architect of his own fortune, and deserves all the success he has won, because he knows how to make a business triumph conduce to the prosperity of an active community.

CLARION COUNTY.—We glean the following items from the Clarion Banner of the 28th inst.: On the 2d inst., Mr. Pettit, a resident of Red-bank township, Clarion county, while working in a pit, fell with both feet in the fire and thus lay helpless while they were half consumed. Amputation was necessary to save his life.— On Thursday, November 20th, Mr. Solomon Aaron, of Limestone township, while engaged in working at a cider press, met with a fatal accident. The heavy beam of the press being insecure, fell upon the unfortunate man, fracturing his skull and inflicting other serious injuries. Dr. Stenart, assisted by Drs. Brown and Thompson, performed the operation of trepanning the skull, but all efforts to save his life proved unavailing, and he died soon after the operation.—On Friday last, 21st inst., Mr. Robert McCloskey was seriously injured while attempting the dangerous task during high flood, of "cabling" a boat on the Clarion river, the cable catching his legs, crushed one of his ankles and severely lacerated a knee.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIER.—The sick and wounded soldiers in the several hospitals in our city and vicinity have hitherto to some extent been supported with reading matter by the Young Men's Christian Association of Harrisburg. But their supply of religious newspapers is now exhausted, having already all been distributed among the soldiers; consequently there will now be a dearth of reading matter in the hospitals, which, lonely and cheerless as hospitals are at best, will still tend to increase that loneliness.

Therefore the Association takes this method of calling upon the citizens of Harrisburg and all who are interested in the welfare of our soldiers for religious papers; and all such papers, whether old or late, no matter what denomination, will be thankfully received by the Association, and by them properly distributed among the soldiers in our hospitals, and thus alleviate to some extent, their wants in that respect, and perhaps be the means, under the blessing of God, to lead some wayward one into the path of peace and happiness. Any persons having any papers of that kind which they wish to spare, will please leave them at the room of the Young Men's Christian Association, on Market street, opposite Gross & Co's. Drug store, or at Gilbert's Hardware store, where they will be received and carefully distributed.

SABBATH SERVICES AT THE RIDGE AVENUE M. E. CHURCH.—Love feast at 9 A. M. Public service at 10 o'clock. Sermon by Rev. Francis Hodgson, D. D. Sermon in the evening at 6 o'clock by Rev. A. E. Jones. The revival interest at this church is on the increase; and we are happy to state that citizens and soldiers are alike found at the altar of prayer, a number of whom have happily been converted to God. How pleasant will be the news to loved ones at home that their husbands, fathers and brothers in the army have joined the sacramental host, who are journeying to the place "where sickness, sorrow, pain and death are felt and feared no more."

BEFORE COUNTY.—The grave of a gallant soldier, Major Tate, in the Presbyterian burying ground, Bedford, was desecrated by some desecrator, who girdled a flourishing maple tree which was placed near the spot by some of the friends of the deceased. We venture to wager a nickel that the hand which was guilty of this act deposited a vote for Slenker and Barr.—The borough of Bedford is infested with burglars, who are committing their depredations with a high and destructive hand.—A lad about fourteen years of age, named Samuel Zimmers, on last Thursday morning, while endeavoring to get on a horse power, which was in motion, attached to a threshing machine, slipped and fell into the gearing, terribly crushing his foot and otherwise bruising him.

GO TO HIS DAY-DREAMS.—Because such wedded life, when true love hallow, strengthen and extends its bonds—the day-dreams, not of airy, vapory idealities, but of a substantial, glorious reality and fact, which makes this dreaming ever bright and beautiful. Thus we thought, as we read the compliments of our cotemporaries while announcing the marriage of Hon. Edward McPherson. It was news to us, that one so genial, virtuous and attractive, should have thus long escaped the noose of Hymen; because there was always that precise and methodical action in this "Little Mac," which led us to believe that he had a tutor in a wife, to teach him order and decorum. However, as he is no longer a Benedict, the best thing he can do for his country, is to produce material for men like himself.

THE GAME LAWS OF DAUPHIN COUNTY.—From the appearance of some of the game which was offered for sale in market this morning, it was apparent that some of our farmers are not aware of the laws which regulate such matters in this county. One of our most experienced and best hunters, who would scorn to eat a bird unless he shot it fairly, called our attention to the fact that large quantities of the game which is exposed in market is taken in traps and nets. By a law passed at the last session of the Legislature, this is expressly forbidden, and those guilty of such offence, can be compelled to pay a fine of ten dollars. Our farmers who capture birds in traps, nets or other devices, and offer them for sale in market, subject themselves to this penalty of ten dollars for every bird thus taken. That such offenders may be warned, we give them this information.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH HOSPITAL.—The sick and wounded patients in the German Reformed Church Hospital, being desirous of returning their thanks towards their bountiful benefactors and friends in Harrisburg, were called to attention by the Steward, William H. Ware. The object being briefly stated, William S. Soule was elected president, and James L. Forbes secretary.

On motion a committee of three were elected to present resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

The following named gentlemen were elected: Messrs. Alpo Appel, James F. Noeler and Edwin L. Swan. Whereupon the following preamble and resolutions were reported and adopted:

WHEREAS, The liberties of our country, being imperiled at the hands of traitors, and it becoming necessary on the part of the President of the United States to call "to arms" the loyal citizens of the land, and having responded to the call, and for fourteen months endured the privations and hardships incident to camp, march and battle, and finally being thrown among our good friends in Harrisburg, sick, wounded and disabled; it is, therefore, Resolved, That our undivided and sincere thanks are hereby tendered to the medical officers, who, by their professional skill and untiring zeal, have so ably ministered to our comforts; among whom we would mention Medical Director J. P. Wilson; also, Surgeon in charge, J. B. Crawford, and Assistant Surgeon H. D. Hunter. Resolved, That to the ladies of Harrisburg we tender our sincere thanks for the many kindnesses we have received at their hands, and although it would be impossible to particularize, and invidious, if possible, to do so; yet we cannot avoid mentioning the name of Mrs. Gov. Curtin, whose kindness has been characterized by every feature of true benevolence, and although unobtrusive, has been none the less appreciated. For 'Thou' angels visit earth's imprisoned hosts unseen, Mortals are conscious still that they with them have been. Resolved, That the grating table of substantial food and tempting delicacies, so lavishly contributed by the patriotic daughters of the city, and so tastefully arranged under the management of Mrs. Small and Mrs. Roomford, aided by a number of lady friends, calls forth emotions of thanks and gratitude; and long may they live to illustrate the priceless virtues of their sex, and in the language of the presiding sentiment on this happy occasion, we say, "God bless them."

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the Rev. Frank Moore for the able and patriotic address delivered on the occasion; also, to our musical friends, the quartette composed of Miss Sample, Miss Soller and the Messrs. M'Conrick and Graydon, who upon this, as well as upon former occasions, have "Discours'd most excellent music."

JAMES L. FORBES, Secretary. Alfred Appel, James F. Noeler, and Edwin L. Swan, Committee.

The above resolutions speak for themselves, and prove the appreciative character of our veteran soldiers, and we take occasion to add that they did honor to themselves, as well as those whom they have so nobly defended, in that they evinced themselves gentlemen as well as highly disciplined soldiers. Not a rustling leaf of discord fell to mar the occasion; and their good humor and good manners characterized their conduct the entire day, and the evening was improved by a musical soiree, divested of those vain formalities that so often mar true sociability.

THE COMPLETION OF A NEW BRIDGE.—On Friday (yesterday) the first heavy train crossed the new bridge at Union Deposit. The old bridge at this place was swept away by the freshet in June last. This is the first of the seven bridges that has been finished, and speaks well for the worthy contractor, Mr. Finly, from York county, the bridge being built in thirty-seven working days.

NO LONGER PLAIN MISTER.—We have been accustomed to boast of our democratic institutions, manners and people. Titles we have especially eschewed. Plain Mister has been the distinguishing badge of American citizenship. The richest and proudest in the land have passed through life to honored graves with no other handle to their names. Two years ago Mr. Lincoln was elected President of the United States, Mr. Hamlin was elected Vice President, and Mr. Seward became Chief Secretary, and they were Mr. Lincoln, Mr. Hamlin and Mr. Seward still. Of late, however, there have been strong indications of Mister becoming obsolete. A man may walk the streets of Harrisburg for half a day without hearing the word once used. Two friends met, and instead of Mr. Jones saluting Mr. Smith, it is "How do you do, Colonel Jones?" "Pretty well, I thank you; how are you, Major Smith?" These parties will then open a negotiation for flour or pork. They are plain merchants. Titles have of late become so common that heretofore it will be quite as appropriate to ask a stranger his title as his name. The old English practice of indicting criminals by their description, might very properly be revived. Instead of an indictment against John Smith for hog stealing, charging "John Smith, late of Dauphin county," with the larceny of one pig, it might read "John Smith, Captain of company A, 250th regiment of U. S. A.," &c., "did feloniously steal, take and carry away," &c.

The enrolled Militia has multiplied titles amazingly. It has almost sent them a begging. Gov. Curtin has conferred the honors upon his subjects with a most liberal hand. We will venture that, hereafter, Pennsylvania will have a larger supply of titled individuals than any other State in the Union, simply because the old Keystone has proportionately more men in the army than any of her sister Commonwealths. The effect upon dress is quite as noticeable as in reference to name. Two men meet to close up a trade for flour. One has military pants and the other a military cap, while the balance of their garments are plain civilian. A third comes up and accosts them, wearing a soldier's vest. The appearance of our men-folk now-a-days suggests the idea of their all sleeping in one room, and getting their clothes badly mixed when they got up. It is entirely safe to say to strangers visiting our city, who may be surprised at the grotesque figures they may witness upon our streets, that we are not quite as warlike a people as we seem.

NEGRO MINISTER.—"Troubles rarely come singly," is an adage often quoted, and seldom is its truth so fully exemplified as in the case of Mr. S. S. Sanford, so long and so well known in ministerial circles. In a very brief period, he has lost through the stern hand of death, a beloved wife, and a respected father, and at the battle of Antietam, his brother was unfortunate enough to lose a leg in his country's cause. This, together with pecuniary misfortunes, would seem enough to break any man down, but, Job-like, he bears up with commendable patience and fortitude, and we sincerely hope that the future will make good to him, the indebtedness of the past in comfort and happiness, as well as material prosperity. In reference to the late Mrs. Sanford, we have been handed the following by Mr. Cool White for publication, than whom, no one not of the family knew more of her private virtues and business capacity.

OBITUARY.—Died, on Monday, Nov. 17th, LURISA SANFORD, wife of Samuel S. Sanford, the well known proprietor of "Sanford's Opera Troupe." For many years past, Mrs. S. has acted as manager of this troupe, and her promptness in all business matters won for her the universal esteem of the public and the profession generally. Possessed of a mild and amiable disposition, a heart ever ready to respond to the appeal of the distressed and unfortunate, her loss will be severely felt by the poor, who were the continued recipients of her bounty; by the members of the profession, who will recall the many acts of kindness towards them; by the public, who will mourn the loss of a valuable member of society; and most of all, by her bereaved husband, who now mourns the loss of a fond and affectionate wife. The certain of life has rung down. Myself then wear an immortal crown Where sorrows can reach thee no more. Mr. Sanford opens his Opera House in this city, on Monday evening next, with an excellent company.

SPECIAL NOTICES

MILITARY BUSINESS, Of all kinds attended to. EUGENE SNYDER, Attorney-at-Law. Office: Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa. (o27)ly.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Union Relief Association will be held Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in the school house on the corner of Walnut street and River alley. Business of importance to be transacted. Punctual attendance requested. M. S. BRATY, Pres't. E. A. BISHOP, Sec'y. nov25-4t.

A MODE REPAIRMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition. Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted), and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

To the Afflicted.

The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism; Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood; that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicine at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency to administer it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. (au13-dlm) MRS. L. BALL.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8, 1862. Mrs. Ball.—I feel no hesitancy in acknowledging the virtues of your medicine, its soothing influence and healing power. For several years I was afflicted with dyspepsia, and during my stay in Harrisburg you cured me in the short space of one month, of that annoying and distressing disease, and at the same time also cured me of a running scrofula, which had existed for over one year without ceasing. During my years of affliction, I applied frequently to doctors of medicine, but they proved ineffectual. I have the utmost confidence and belief in the power of your medicine, and would say to those afflicted, who wish to enjoy life in its natural element, with a system renewed to vigorous nature, to try your medicine as I did. Yours, truly, GEO. J. MCCREERY, 54 North Eighth Street, Philadelphia.

Another ingredient of remarkable and wonderful virtue used in the preparation of these Bitters, is a native of Brazil, and as yet unknown to the commerce of the world. A Spanish writer says: "administered with St. Croix Rum, never fails to relieve nervous tremor, wakefulness, disturbed sleep, &c., and that it is used with great effect by the Brazilians, Spanish and Peruvian Ladies to heighten their color and beauty. It imparts cheerfulness to the disposition, vigor to the appetite, and brilliancy to the complexion." We withhold its name from the public for the present. S-T-1860-X. HE language of nature and experience demonstrate, that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food—the beauties of landscapes—the joys of companionship—the richness of literature—or the honors of station and renown—must preserve their health. The stomach is the receptacle of all nourishment, and the fountain from which all parts of the body, derive sustenance. The effect of foul injurious food entering the stomach, is to damage the digestive organs, and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshed sleep, feebled breath, low spirits, feverish burnings, constipation, incapacity to perform any mental or physical duty, &c., and are the symptoms of that horrid disease DYSPEPSIA.

Which assumes a thousand shapes, and points towards a miserable life and premature decay. The Medical Faculty has labored for generations to discover reliable appetizers and the proper means of overcoming stomachic derangements. Certain ingredients have been long known as partially effective. Among these were CALISAYA BARK & ST. CROIX RUM.

An invalid physician, sojourning in the tropical island of St. Croix, observing the habits of the natives, gathered the recipe for the final accomplishment of this most important end. The article was first used as a private medicine, when its salutary effects becoming known, it was brought out under the name of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS.

They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage. They cure most wonderful cures in stubborn cases of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Intermittent Fevers, Diarrhea, Sour Stomach Headache, Fever and Ague, Weakness, Mental Despondency, &c. As a morning appetizer and after dinner tonic, they should be in every family. They are a delightful, exhilarating stimulant, without any subsequent stupefying reaction. IMPORTANT CERTIFICATE. "ROCHESTER, December 28th, 1861. Messrs. P. H. DRAKE.—Gentlemen:—I have suffered terribly with Dyspepsia for three or four years, and tried many remedies without effect. I had to abandon my profession, and suffered greatly from everything I ate. I have now tried the Plantation Bitters—they helped me—I continued their use, and am now nearly a well man. I know of several similar cases. Respectfully yours, Rev. J. S. CATRON."

S. T.—1860—X. Intelligent persons and physicians can judge of the efficacy of the Plantation Bitters from the following partial formula. CASCARILLA BARK Was known and used in Germany for Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Cholera, Dysentery, and diseases of the Stomach and Bowels, as early as 1690. DANDELION, For Inflammations of the Lungs and Spleen in Dropsical Affections and Biliary Secretions, or Obstructions of the Abdominal Viscera. CALISAYA, OR KING'S BARK, Was unknown to civilization until the middle of the 17th century. Humboldt makes favorable mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an Antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, in his extensive South American travels. The Countess, wife of the Viceroy of Peru, having experienced the beneficial effects of this Bark, sent it to Europe in 1640. It was sold by the Jesuits for the enormous sum of its own weight in silver, and was thus called Jesuits' Powder. In 1658, Sir John Talbot employed it with great success in France, in the treatment of Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Weakness and Debility, Palpitation of the Heart, Diarrhea, &c., under the name of English Powders; and in 1679, he sold the secret of its origin to Louis XIV, by whom it was divulged. It is now a standard remedy in all Pharmacopoeias, and is employed in preparing the Plantation Bitters. Chamomile Flowers, for enfeebled digestion; Winter-green, valuable for Scrofula, Rheumatism, and Nervous Affections; Lavender Flowers, aromatic stimulant and tonic, highly invigorating in Nervous Debility; Anise, an aromatic carminative, creating flesh, muscle and milk. Much used in nursing. S. T.—1860—X.
