Saturday Evening, December 13, 1862. TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Harrisburg Typographical Union will be held at the Citizen Engine House, at seven o'clock.

HAVE you seen those fine goods at Keller's, seceived expressly for the Hollidays? They are disappearing rapidly, and you will miss them. Call at once. 91 Market Street.

A STATED MEETING of the Friendship Fire Company will be held in their hall, on Monday evening, at the usual hour. Punctual attendance is requested, to finish the arrangements for giving their Seventh Annual Ball, on New

A CHRISTMAS DINNER FOR THE SICK AND our patriotic and liberal ladies will busy themoccasion. What say the ladies of Harrisburg to this occasion. our proposition? We are good for a turkey.

PROMOTED -Sergeant George W. McCallister, of Co. I, (Capt. C. C. Davis' command) 7th Pa. Cavalry, has been promoted to the 2d lieutenancy of the company, in the place of Harry H. Lutz, deceased. The promotion of such men is what we must look to for the future success of the army, as caused the instant death of Mrs. Severs, whose he is among those who have labored manfully and patriotically for the victory which is to bring us peace. He is a citizen of Harrisburg, and of course the honor he has thus won by his promotion is reflected on his home and his friends.

THE SICK SOLDIERS' REST .- This establish ment, located on the vacant lot belonging to the Lutheran Church, on Chestnut street below Fourth, is now fully in operation. Sick and at the Rest, and thus far the establishment has been a perfect success.

A visit to the Sick Soldiers' Rest will repay any of our lady readers. The arrangements in ery. They were aged respectively seven and the sleeping department are of the most ample and even luxurious order. Carpeted, heated, well ventilated and lighted with gas, this apartment is capable of affording a soldier a rest as sweet, as clean and as comfortable as flames were also communicated to her clothes, could be derived in the choice chamber of any and thus they were literally consumed. This of our best hotels. Added to this apartment is another warning for parents to guard their are water closets and conveniences for bathing, all so located, that they can be reached by the sick without exposure to the weather.

We feel a special pride in the Sick Soldiers Rest, as well from the fact that it was designed to benefit those who are risking so much for the good of the people, as for its being such an patriotism of the citizens of Harrisburg.

What is wanted at the Rest, is a suitable blank book, to serve as a Register, in which to keep a record of those who seek its shelter for repose and refreshment. Such a Register might afford those passing through this city in quest of friends, the most important information. Any one desiring to denate the Rest with such a Register, will do a good service in Government and to posterity,? Our gallant army and navy must be supported by every man and woman who has any means, large or small, at their control. The United States Government, to which we owe our prosperity as a nation, security of person and property of every sort, calls on each individual to rally to its support-not with donations or gifts-though who could withhold them—but with subscriptions to her loans, based on the best security in the world, the untold and scarcely yet tried resources of this mighty continent, which were developing rapidly when the rebellion broke out, and to maintain which, as a priceless heritage to posteri-TY, this defence against rebellion is made.

There is no miscalculation, and can be no failure—the cost has been counted, and the burthen will be light to us, and gladly borne by posterity. What our Revolutionary Fathers are to us, we will be to coming generations, it we fail not in our plain and simple duty!
