NOICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All advertisements, Business Notices, Marriages, Deaths, &c. to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the CASH. Advertisements ordered in the regular Evening Edition are inserted in the morning Edition without extra charge.

HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Evening, December 17, 1862.

A SPLENDID exhibition of fine goods for the holidays at Keller's, 91 Market street. Call and see.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—An infantry sword, scabbard and belt, and an excellent gum blanket. The articles are entirely new, having never been used. Apply at this office.

MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—The regular monthly payment will be made on Friday afternoon, (19th inst.) at the Sheriff's office between the hours of four and six.

GEO. BERGNER, Pres. O. EDWARDS, Sec'y.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—We have just received a fine lot of leather goods, ladies' and gents' dressing cases, shaving cases, ladies' companions, a splendid variety, satchels, caba satchels. A large assortment of fine cigar cases, watch cases, pocket-books of all kinds. Remember, we allow no parties to undersell us, quality of goods considered. Keller's Drug and Fancy Store, No. 91 Market street.

NURSES AND SURGEONS.—That those who have sons or husbands in the army, and who are apprehensive that they are among the wounded of the battles near Fredericksburg, may not be influenced by fear that such as these will be neglected, we are happy to state that the Government has made the most ample arrangements in regard to Surgeons and nurses. The army under Burnside is supplied with a medical corps of superior ability, both as regards experience and numbers, while the force of nurses is very large. These facts are considered important not only to those wounded, but to the friends of all such as have been disabled before Fredericksburg.

PENNSYLVANIA CENTRAL.—Pittsburg to Boston.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will probably be enabled, in a short time, to make a thorough connection between Pittsburg and Albany and Boston, avoiding both Philadelphia and New York. The route will be as follows: Pittsburg to Tyrone, Pennsylvania Central Railroad; Tyrone and Lock Haven (in progress), Tyrone and Lock Haven Railroad; Lock Haven to Williamsport, Philadelphia and Erie Railroad; New York to Elmira, Elmira Railroad; Elmira to Binghamton, New York and Erie Railroad; Binghamton to Albany (in progress), Albany and Saratoga Railroad; Albany to Boston, Western Railroad.

The total distance from Pittsburg to Boston will be about 650 miles, of which the Pennsylvania Central Railroad will control over one-third.

A SOLDIER was shot at Port Royal on the 1st inst., for having deserted from the Ninth Maine Volunteers. The rebels returned the deserter to the federal lines, on the plea that a man who deserts cannot be trusted. Of course, the poor wretch was tried, convicted and shot for his offence. There was a trick in this return of a deserter becoming of the rebels. They requested the federal officer to make the same disposition of those who desert the rebels, but in this of course they will be disappointed. There is always reason and justification for the desertion of a soldier from the rebel armies. Those desertions are an evidence of returning loyalty—and are not of a character to be compared to the desertions from the Union army. On this account, the rebels will fail of their trick in returning the deserter whose execution we record in this paragraph.

WHAT BECOMES OF BOOKS AND MAIL MATTER SENT TO THE SOLDIERS.—The Louisville Journal is informed on good authority that upwards of six wagon loads of mail matter, books, pamphlets and papers, have been sold and destroyed at Bowling Green within the last month. A large portion of them were sent for the use of the sick soldiers. Who are the persons that committed the outrage? Under what authority and for what purpose was the thing done? And what has become of the money received for what was sold? Answers to these questions must be rendered. Earnest appeals are constantly made for reading matter to be furnished to the thousands of sick soldiers at Bowling Green, and yet here "at one fell swoop," the results of the generous and benevolent labors of many men and women for the promotion of the comfort and amusement of the poor sufferers are ruthlessly destroyed!

THE PROVOST GUARD should present their complaints to the local of the Patriot—in a horn. After months of unwarred toil—paralyzing the streets and lanes—posted on the corners—guarding the depots—maintaining the order and defending the decency of the city, they are now handsomely repaid by the abuse of the local of the Patriot. Virtuous local—patriotic scribe—temperate reporter! How just—how manly thus to assail the character of a set of men as a body and as an organization, simply because individual derelictions of duty have occurred!

Of course we do not interfere to defend the Provost Guard. The four companies composing that Guard are a manly, orderly, generous and gallant set of men. That they were not sent hence to fight in the field is no fault of the Guard—that they are cowardly necessarily for their absence from the fray, is a base assumption, a mean charge. On more than one occasion these men have been in positions equally as dangerous as that of participating in a fight with the enemy. At such times they carried themselves like men—and at all times, the Provost Guard have never failed to win the good opinions and esteem of the citizens of Harrisburg.

THE HARRISBURG HOSPITAL.—A number of sick and wounded soldiers in Camp Central Hospital were transferred to the city hospitals yesterday, leaving the hospital tents, which they have occupied up to the present time, vacant. Quite a large number of the patients now in hospital are convalescents, and it is gratifying to learn, will soon be able to rejoin their regiments in the field. We are not aware, as yet, whether any of the wounded engaged in the late battle of Fredericksburg will be brought to this city, though such may be the case.

CASUALTIES IN THE 127TH REGIMENT.—The following additional names have been accepted of the wounded in the Dauphin county regiment:

- E. J. Bomberger, Co. "E," 127th—hand.
E. Gump, 127th Pennsylvania Volunteers.
F. Alexander, 127th "
J. Shaffer, 127th "
E. Miller, 127th "
B. Price, 127th "
Sergeant Small, 127th "
M. Weinbrenner, 127th "
Corporal Culp, 127th "

COLUMBIA HOSPITAL.—Thos. Wolter, Co. "G," 127th P. V. Alpheus Frey, " "

STARBUCK HOSPITAL.—J. T. Koerber, Co. B, 127th.

WHY THE DIFFERENCE?—In an order issued from the Headquarters of the army of the Potomac, one sentence reads that "no wine, beer or ardent spirits, unless they be for hospital or subsistence stores, or the private stores of an officer, (in either of which cases they should be so marked), will be allowed to pass the guards of any camp or barracks in this command." Here is express permission given to officers to engage in tippling, an indulgence in which by the soldiers is forbidden, and would meet with severe punishment. Why this discrimination? Why this sanction intemperance among one class and vigilantly guard against the other? Every day's experience teaches us that it would result in the moral welfare of our young officers, and to the advantage of the physical and mental capacity of the entire army, if not a drop of liquor passed within the limits of the camp. The sight of drunken officers is becoming painfully frequent, and we know of instances where persons of this character are kept in places of high trust—men whom, outside of the general government, no one would trust with even small affairs. A drunkard may by accident do his duty, but to risk the success of a campaign to his management is an outrage upon common prudence. Observing men affirm that drunkenness of important officers has, on several occasions, caused us important losses, and we trust that in the future every offender of this character, if there be no time for his trial by court-martial, will be quietly relieved.

SPECIAL NOTICES.—MILITARY BUSINESS, Of all kinds attended to. EUGENE SNYDER, Attorney-at-Law. Office: Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa. [27-1y]

$5 REWARD.—Lost on Saturday, a yellow Bull Terrier Dog, with black nose, had a white collar on the left side of his neck, and has a white breast. Answers to the name of "Turk." The above reward will be paid for the recovery of the dog, or information that may lead to his recovery. Information to be left at the Mayor's office. d16-d17

BEAUTY.—The perfection of beauty even in the most beautiful woman, is gained at her toilet. There the use of Burnett's Kallistion is indispensable; it eradicates all unsightly objects, such as tan, freckles, and pimples, and gives the complexion a clear and blooming appearance. Prepared by JOSEPH BURNETT & Co., Boston, and for sale by dealers generally, at 50 cents a bottle. For sale by G. K. Keller, Druggist, No. 91 Market street, sole agent for this city. d18-1w-eod-wit

To the Afflicted. The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have had on hand a quantity of invaluable Salvars for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Filio. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency to administer it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. (au13-11m) MRS. L. BALL.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3, 1862. Mrs. Ball:—I feel no hesitancy in acknowledging the virtue of your medicine. Ever several years I was afflicted with dyspepsia, and during my stay in Harrisburg you cured me in the short space of one month, and at the same time also cured me of a running scrofula, which had existed for over one year without ceasing. During twenty years of affliction, I applied frequently to doctors of medicine, but they proved ineffectual. I have the utmost confidence and belief in the power of your medicine, and would say to those afflicted, who wish to enjoy life in its natural element, with a system renewed to vigorous nature, to try your medicine as I did. Yours, truly, GEO. J. MOOREHEAD.
