HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Evening, December 19, 1862.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

THE WORD COUNTRYMAN need only be mentioned to remind my customers where to get the delicious—91 Market street.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—An infantry sword, scabbard and belt, and an excellent gun blanket. The articles are entirely new, having never been used. Apply at this office.

THE LATEST OUT YET.—A large and varied assortment of Fancy Goods, adaptable for Christmas and New Year Presents, just received and sold cheap at the New Drug Pharmaceutical and Variety Store of S. A. Kunkel, No. 118 Market street. See advertisement in another column.

ALL READY.—Our friend John Small, the clerk in charge of the House of Representatives, is once more ready for the meeting of the Legislature. Few public officers are more invaluable than Mr. Small. He is, in fact, indispensable. His experience, his courtesy, his ability and his industry all combine to render him, perhaps, the most useful scribe that ever received a dollar from the State.

THE RUBIA MILLS of Messrs. Tabor & Place, manufacturers of Government and other various brands of coffee, having been burned out in the recent great fire in New York City, corner Greene and Houston streets, have now an entire building, No. 553 and 555 Washington street, where they are putting up from fresh stock their popular roasted and ground coffees for the various markets.

BALL OF THE FRIENDSHIP FIRE COMPANY.—The members of this veteran organization announce that they intend to give a ball on New Year's Eve, for the purpose of accumulating a certain sum of money to aid in liquidating the debt which now hangs like an incubus almost on their necks and usefulness. Since the absence of so many of its members, the receipts of the company have been materially diminished. This absence, too, makes it necessary that the managers of this ball should throw themselves on the liberality of the citizens for the support of the ball in question. We cannot commend the Friendship Fire Company to our readers and the patrons of balls too highly, as one deserving of substantial support and recognition.

THE ARSENAL EXPLOSION.—It was a foolish and malignant spirit which induced the concoction of the story in relation to loose powder in the Arsenal; but Gen. Russell completely explained the whole affair yesterday, which was not the character of an explosion that the Patriot endeavored to impress on its readers. The fact is that there is no more danger of an explosion in the Arsenal than there is of a collapse of the Lager Beer vault opposite. All the powder in the establishment is in the shape of "fixed ammunition," that is secure in packages and boxes, removed from all contact with fire, and located where no possible danger of an explosion can occur, except it would be by a conflagration which might consume the entire building.

MR. GEORGE FORBES, the Superintendent of the Arsenal, is one of the most attentive and reliable men in the city. His whole care and attention are devoted to this establishment—his character as a man is at once security that no accident will occur from carelessness, and any of our citizens who desire to convince themselves of the perfect safety of the magazine in the Arsenal, can be satisfied by visiting that establishment and judging for themselves. The whole statement about loose powder covering the floor, &c., is an exaggeration of the meanest kind, as it does not contain a single word of truth.

A RELIC OF THE LATE COL. SIMMONS.—A few weeks ago, Mr. Samuel G. Powers, a sutler in one of the Pennsylvania regiments, while on business in Washington, accidentally met with a rebel prisoner who had in his possession a military field glass, which he represented as having been the property of the Colonel of the Fifth Pa. Reserve. In reply to a series of inquiries, the prisoner substantiated his original assertion that he had purloined the article from the person of Col. Simmons while that officer was lying wounded and helpless on one of the battle fields before Richmond. His statements proving satisfactory and conclusive as to the identity of the article, it was purchased by Mr. Powers for the sum of $5. Subsequently that gentleman consigned the glass to the care of Comtesse General W. W. Irwin at this place, with the request that he should present it to the widow of the late Colonel.

THE GENERAL, accompanied by a friend, discharged this agreeable duty last evening, at the residence of the recipient of the gift, the presentation resulting in an occasion of the most pleasant social intercourse. Mrs. Simmons received the souvenir of her deceased husband's gallant services in the field, with those sentiments of true appreciation and sympathy, characteristic of a commingling of womanly tenderness and stern patriotism, now so necessary, and which has been so universally manifested, in this war. She informed the donor that the value of the article would be more highly prized in view of the fact that, with the exception of the deceased Colonel's overcoat and saddle, it was the only one of his effects which she had been able to secure; his watch, pistols, &c., having been taken by the rebels, who doubtless rifled his clothes of every thing valuable.

Mrs. Simmons lives in retirement with her beautiful daughter on Front street. She is a lady of rare intelligence and cultivated education, and feels keenly her sudden bereavement.

REV. ISAAC B. GATES will preach at the headquarters of the Provost Guard (Exchange) on Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, and in the Mission Church at 7 o'clock in the evening of the same day.

"THE LAST BORN OF SUMMER," "The Orphan's Prayer" and "The Young Patriots," are the titles of some of the new and choice pieces of music received at Knoche's music store, No. 93 Market street.

NEW LIVERY.—By a card in another column, it will be seen that our friends Murray & Adams, well known to admirers of horse flesh, have recommenced their career in the livery and carriage business. Their reputation heretofore has kept pace with the progress of their fastest steeds, and we trust it may continue unexcelled.

NEW SLEEPING CARS.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company deserves the greatest credit for keeping up with the demands of travel, as well as responding to all the calls of the government. Among late additions to the road we may mention that two new sleeping cars, of the most luxurious description, have just been manufactured for the company. These cars are shortly to be placed on the road, and attached to the several night trains.

CAMBERLA COUNTY.—Another Fatal Accident from Fire Arms.—On Tuesday last two small boys in Cambria city—one of them a son of Owen McCaffrey, aged about five years, and the other a son of Peter Ryan, deceased, aged about four years—got possession of a loaded pistol, with which they were amusing themselves, when the pistol went off in the hands of young McCaffrey, the ball taking effect in the abdomen of young Ryan, inflicting a mortal wound, from the effects of which he died on Wednesday evening. The father of the little boy Ryan left home more than a year ago in the ranks of the 55th Penna. Volunteers, and was recently drowned while on picket duty in South Carolina. His mother is also absent from home at present, the little boy being left in the care of his uncle, John Ryan.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.—This morning a female character of unenviable notoriety, whose affinity with ardent spirits has occasioned her almost daily appearance before the Mayor, for an indefinite number of weeks, received gaitolous lodgings in the School of Reform for such characters. Her vulgar, sensual look, when brought up for sentence, betokened low and debased instincts—a corrupt and callous heart, destitute of even the slightest ray of intelligence or emotion.

TWO SOLDIERS arrested yesterday afternoon and confined during last night, were heard in their own defence. One of them had been pulled for drunkenness, the other on suspicion of entertaining sundry designs upon the pocket-book of his companion. These suspicions, however, were obliterated by the protestations of his brother in arms, who indignantly repudiated the idea of treachery on the part of soldier No. 2. Both individuals were relieved of further indemnity by an oral admonition from his Honor, to go forth in peace and contentment.

"I'D RATHER STARVE THAN EAT THAT!"—Well, some creatures have stomachs adapted to starvation on a mild scale. But it is not that kind belonging to persons who, when fifteen minutes out of bed, come to the breakfast table and turn up their nose at a fat chop, or a hulled mackerel. It is a very senseless martyrdom, it starving one's self to death, and a silly thing to declare that you can't eat this, or that you abhor that. Whatever is edible can be used as food by every being, save perhaps a rare few, whose stomachs have some queer chemical combination in fluids and membranes. Exercise will produce appetite, and that once vigorous and demonstrative will find a zest in the most vulgar dishes, so called. Pork and beans on the plate of a lady who rides in her own carriage, would be vulgar. Or cabbage at the dinner of a verse-writing Miss, would render her verses ever after commonplace. Still, cabbage and pork and beans have much to do with civilization and society. A change of diet is the basis of health, and will do more for red cheeks, attractive eyes, and "splendid" hair, than all the recipes in the pharmacopoeia. Don't be particular as to your eating so long as it is well-cooked and clean. There may come reverses yet for the most independent of us, when the bill of fare will be—Breakfast, Salt Pork fried and potatoes; Dinner, Salt Pork boiled and potatoes; Supper, Salt Pork cold and potatoes. The appetite would crave it, would eat heartily of it, even become attached to it, as the leech does to a local inflammation. Don't starve until you witness the end of the war—that is if you can avoid it.

AN AMERICAN WRITING FLUID.—An agent is now in town introducing to the consumers Rose's Chemical Writing Fluid. It is claimed for this fluid that it is equal if not superior to any other now in use. The Barks county Journal says:—"In every essential particular, it is superior to anything of the kind yet made in this country. Arnold's celebrated fluid not excepted. See what judges of ink say: We, the undersigned, having used Rose's American Writing Fluid, manufactured by the American Ink Co., Binghamton, N. Y., consider it a superior article, and heartily recommend its use to the public: Daniel S. Dickinson, Att'y Gen. N. Y. O. W. Chapman, Dis. Att'y, Broome Co. N. Y. Phillip Phelps, Dep. Comptroller, N. Y. Hon. A. H. Reeder, Easton, Pa. Hon. H. D. Maxwell, Easton, Pa. Wm. Hackett, Cashier Easton Bank. J. George, President Lebanon Valley Bank. Geo. Gleim, Cashier Lebanon Deposit Bank. C. Mark, Teller Lebanon Bank. John Stahl, Ass. Judge, Lehigh Co. A. W. Butler, Bookkeeper Manoh Chunk Bank. J. Knab, Postmaster, Reading, Pa. Wm. H. Rieker, Treasurer E. P. B. B. David McKnight, Mayor, Reading, Pa. C. B. Sittler, Associate Judge, Reading, Pa. G. B. McKnight, Cashier Union Bank, Reading, Pa. T. R. Morgan, Cashier Broome Co. Bank, N. Y. In addition to these are the names of all the County officers of Carbon, Lehigh, Northumberland and Lebanon counties, besides hundreds of others to numerous to mention. Sample bottles are being left by the agent in all the principal offices in the city. Dealers will have an opportunity to buy, as the fluid is only sold to the trade by the agent.

THE LARGEST and best stock of China, Metal and Paper Powder Puff Boxes, Brushes, Soap, Cosmetics and Perfumery ever offered in this city, now open at Keller's, No. 91 Market street.

DRESS RESTAURANT, THIRD STREET ABOVE MARKET.—Just received from Philadelphia, another invoice of that celebrated Lager Beer. Mr. Dress has also on hand Venison, Partridges, Oysters, &c., and a lot of Soukrant for sale in quantities to suit families.

HIS FINAL REST.—A sick soldier, accompanied by some of his friends, stopped at the Bombardier House last evening, for the purpose of resting and gaining strength for his journey homeward. His rest was gained in reality. The hero died. The severity of his wounds and the fatigues of travel were too much for him. Even among strangers there was pity for the dead, and sympathy for his sorrowing friends. His rest will now be glorious.

GENS OF ART.—There is now on exhibition at the music store of Wm. Knoche, 93 Market street, near Fourth, two oil paintings which are really gems of art. One is a fruit piece—the other a display of flowers almost rivaling nature. They are the work of Mr. Rosen, an artist who has established a deservedly high reputation in paintings of this style. They must be seen to be properly appreciated.

MR. KNOCH has on hand a large assortment of engravings, embracing all the latest European importations, plain and colored in the highest style of art, which will be framed in any style of moulding, or sold as they are at New York prices. Also, an endless variety of goods suitable for holiday presents—fine looking violins, guitars, drums, fics, fagotelets, music of all kinds; and the best and cheapest pianos, melodeons and harmoniums to be found any where. Persons who are about making purchases are respectfully invited to call and see for themselves.

ARRIVAL OF SANTA CLAUS.—This distinguished friend of the little ones has arrived in this city, and taken up his headquarters for the holidays at the variety store of S. H. Ettla, in Second street above State. Santa's pack of sweets and nicks-nacks generally this year is unusually large and attractive, and decidedly cheaper than to be found at any other establishment in the city. The toys are principally manufactured in Germany, and are something decidedly novel in their way. The rush of doating papas and mamas with their juveniles, to Ettla's Emporium, is immense, but Santa's pack seems to be exhausted, and every visit reveals some new curiosity to attract the eyes of the purchaser. The greatest variety of dolls ever offered in this city. Visit Ettla's, by all means, and pay your respects to Santa Claus.

AMUSEMENTS.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE is now without competition. It stands unrivalled, established by the will of a man that is refined and intelligent. Its success is a tribute to art. The patronage which its enterprise commands, is an acknowledgment of its genius. No other troupe ever achieved a similar triumph. Still, when it is remembered that no other troupe combines a like varied talent, the highest order of professional perfection—the mystery, if there is any mystery in such achievements, is at once explained. Sanford caters for the refined, the intelligent and the discriminating. He nor his troupe do not blacken their faces to play the negro buffoon. There is an effort to delineate character, while they take advantage of music and poetry to render what might otherwise be repugnant, pleasant. The bill for this evening's entertainment, at the Opera House, sparkles with gems. It is perhaps the very best that has been presented for the season. Let none fail to be present.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE LEHIGH SINGERS ASSOCIATION will give a Social Soiree, at Frisch's Hall, on Monday evening, Dec. 22, 1862. Tickets fifty cents. Amusement is the order of the day, and the Liederkreis is never behind. The lovers of fun should be on hand. d18 3*

BEAUTY.—The perfection of beauty even in the most beautiful woman, is gained at her toilet. There the use of Burnett's Kalliston is indispensable; it eradicates all unightly objects, such as tan, freckles, and pimples, and gives the complexion a clear and blooming appearance.

Prepared by JOSEPH BURNETT & CO., Boston, and for sale by dealers generally, at 50 cents a bottle. For sale by C. K. Keller, Druggist, No. 91 Market street, sole agent for this city. d18-1w-eod-wit

FIFTY YEARS AGO.—On a Christmas morning, fifty years ago, might have been seen a care worn and lone traveler wending his weary way on foot along Front street, the business thoroughfare of the comparatively small village of Harrisburg. This man located here and commenced in a small way the manufacturing of nails. From this humble beginning he amassed a fortune, and his sons at this day adorn some of the most enviable professional positions in the country. We also, with the permission of the reader, revert to the heavy dry goods business done on Front street at that day, prominent among which was Eppy & Jacobs, and now in this year of 1862, can be found the cheap dry goods store of Ulrich & Bowman, at the corner of Front and Market streets, who are using their best judgment, combined with all the facilities known to the trade for obtaining dry goods at the lowest possible prices for their customers. d18-2t.

FURS, FURS, FURS.—Another new lot of furs received. 50 muffs at $3.50. 100 muffs at $3.50, $4.50, up to $10. 100 sets of furs, from $2.50 to $5, $8, and $10. A large lot of black cloth cloaks, at $4, $6.50, $10 and up to $25. Children's wool stockings at 12 1/2 c., grey and white wool stockings for children at 25, 31 and 37 c. Grey and white wool stockings for ladies. 100 dozen of cotton and wool socks, all prices; handsome assortment of double shawls. Cashmere and Kentucky jans, all prices; real German linen pocket handkerchiefs; for gentlemen; ladies' collars and linen pocket handkerchiefs, cheap. 50 pieces of new styles delaines. Splendid assortment of needlework bands. 25 dozen hoop skirts, from 75 c. up, and a great many other goods at

To the Afflicted.

The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westover's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Balms for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, simply calling upon them. These need be no pretension in regard to my competency to administer it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, betw. on Second and Front. (au13-d1m) MRS. L. BALL.

Mrs. BALL.—I was afflicted with the liver complaint for several months, and a pain in my breast, with a very bad cough; in fact my system was out of order very much. I heard of your curing so many afflicted as I was, and even worse, that I concluded to give it a trial. I can now cheerfully recommend it to all. I had one of your excellent plasters on my chest, which gave me relief in a short time. I feel now well, and cannot help but feeling thankful for taking of your medicine. I would say to all who are afflicted with any of the above, they can be consulted with at any time at the Herr House. MISS MARY BRICKERT. HARRISBURG, Dec. 19.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition. Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (excepted,) and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

THE ALLEGHANIAN VOCALISTS

SWISS BELL RINGERS

LATELY returned from a four years' tour far and wide, and having, since their return, given SIXTY-TWO SUCCESSFUL CONCERTS in the city of New York; also visited Washington, Baltimore, and many of the principal cities of the Western States, in all of which their Concerts have been attended by the largest, most fashionable and delighted audiences that ever greeted musical artists, would now respectfully announce TWO of their highly popular MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENTS as above.

Their Repertoire embraces a choice collection of vocal Quartets arranged in their own peculiar style, also a variety of the sweetest English, Irish, Scotch, German and Spanish ballads, extant, Humorous Songs, Duets, &c. Arias, Cavatinas and Sonatas, from the works of the most popular Italian and French Masters. In addition to their usual choice selections of Vocal Music, they will play, each evening, several pieces on the celebrated SWISS HELLS.

The ALLEGHANIANs beg leave to state to their numerous friends and patrons of former years, that about four years ago they added the SWISS BELLS to their already superior Concerts; and the Press, as well as all competent musical critics, have pronounced their Bell playing superior to anything of the kind ever heard in this country, not excepting that of the original Swiss Bell Ringers who appeared in the United States about fifteen years since.

Admission 25 cents, B-arrived Front Sea's 38 cents; Children, accompanied by their parents, 15 cents. Commences at 7 1/2 o'clock.

During their sojourn in foreign lands, the concerts of the ALLEGHANIANs were honored by the attendance of hundreds of thousands of delighted listeners—Kings, Queens, Nobles, and the most distinguished men of the age patronized their entertainments, and lavished upon them the most flattering demonstrations of approval.
