NO TELEGRAPH ON CHRISTMAS DAY!

In order to afford the employees in this establishment the opportunity to pay a proper respect to Christmas Day, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow afternoon or Friday morning.

The morning edition to-morrow will be served to the subscribers of the EVENING TELEGRAPH.

Would the bloody drama have been enacted had the Abolition party acted up to the spirit of the Constitution, and let slavery alone?

Yes! most emphatically, YES! It is a historical fact, that the States which first moved in the secession treason never lost a slave by the influence of abolitionism.

For thirty years, the leading men in the South have been secretly preparing for the rebellion in which they are now engaged.

This constant growth of the sentiment of attachment to the Union—this increasing faith, under disaster and defeat, that its preservation is a necessity of our existence—is most encouraging.

But the popular instinct that upon the salvation of the Union hang all our hopes of future peace and greatness, was never so strong as it is to-day.

Some of the most influential organs of public opinion urged the policy of letting the South "go in peace."

But, what is the profit of seeking to prove to a dough-face Democrat, that Democracy, as it is represented by the influences which control negro slavery, is the cause of this rebellion?

How it works.—A gentleman just from the South informs the Indianapolis Journal that the rebel government has granted permission to all its soldiers who own twenty slaves or more, to return home to provide for the next year's planting and crops, and to look out for the operation of the emancipation proclamation.

UNDIMINISHED FAITH IN THE UNION.

The Albany Evening Journal never discovered a more remarkable fact than this, after eighteen months of weary struggle, with varying fortunes and with doubtful success, the popular faith in the Union is unimpaired and the popular determination to give it, no matter what the cost, is unshaken.

But the popular instinct that upon the salvation of the Union hang all our hopes of future peace and greatness, was never so strong as it is to-day.
