Medical.

DR. JOHNSON

BALTIMORE

LOCK HOSPITAL!

HAS discovered the most certain speedy and effectual remedy in the world for

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

RELIEF IN SIX TO TWELVE HOURS.

No Mercury or Noxious Drugs.

A Cure Warranted, or no Charge, in from one to Two Days.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

Young Men

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Marriage.

Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

Organic Weakness

Immediately Cured, and full vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by victims of improper indulgences. Young persons too often are apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, when he understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power or procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most horrorious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, a Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

Office, No. 7 South Frederick Street.

Left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number.

Letters must be paid and contain a stamp. Doctor's Diplomas hang in his office.

A Cure Warranted in Two

No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs.

Dr. Johnson,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

Take Particular Notice.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of Sight, Pain and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dizziness, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, and many of the evils produced.

THOUSANDS of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, loss of vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

Young Men

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and renders unfitted for either business, study, society or marriage, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man should be snatched from existence, the darling of his parents, through the consequence of indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hideous and filled with the most horrific forebodings, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

Disease

When the misguided victim finds that he has imbibed this pernicious habit, a painful disease, it too often happens that a unnerved sense of shame or dread of discovery prevents him applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone be friend him, delaying from day to day and month to month, this horrid disease makes its more alarming appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this disgusting disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whose bourne no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease through the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who copy Dr. Johnson's advertisement and make use of that Deadly Poison, Mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

Strangers.

Trust not your health, to the care of the many Quacks and Pretenders, destitute of knowledge, name or character, who copy Dr. Johnson's advertisements, and style themselves in the newspapers, physicians incapable of Curing, they regularly Educated Physicians, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair, leave you with ruined health and disappointment.

Be only Physician advertising.

Dr. Johnson's diplomas always hange in his office.

His credentials or treatment are unknown to all the Faculty.

His remarkable life spent in the great hospitals of Europe, the country and a more extensive practice than any other Physician in the world.

Dr. Johnson's Certificates of the Cures by the renowned Operator Private Practice.

Thousands cured and many other parties who had the numerous applied again and again, besides his standing as a gentleman of honor and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

Skin Diseases Speedily Cured.

Persons writing should be particular in directing their letters to his Institution, in the following manner:

AYER'S PILLS.

ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Billious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness or Constipation. As a Dinner Pill they are both agreeable and effectual.

PRICE 25 CENTS PER BOX, OR FIVE BOXES FOR $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Massachusetts.

Sold by C. A. Bannvart, D. W. Gross & Co., C. K. Keller, J. M. Lutz, Dr. Bixby, F. Wyeth and dealers everywhere.

A RARE CHANCE

FOR A BUSINESS MAN.

THE canal grocery store and Rockville House, known as the Updegrove Lock Property, situated five miles above Harrisburg, fronting east on the Pennsylvania Canal and west on the Susquehanna river road, will be sold if applied for soon.

The grocery store is not the very best stand on the line of the canal; it is unequaled by one other. A large new barn and stable has recently been built, so that each boat team can be locked up separately. Also plenty of sheds, hay houses, corn crib, two store houses for grain, ice house, hay scales, and indeed every convenience that is necessary for carrying on every business. The place is within three hundred yards of the Rockville depot, on the Pennsylvania railroad, and the Rockville Schuylkill railroad also. STERLING'S AMBROSIA

FOR THE HAIR.

A HANDSOME HEAD OF HAIR is a crown of glory. With proper care and culture it will last as a protection to the head as long as the nails do to the fingers or the eyelashes to the eyes. STERLING'S AMBROSIA is the only article yet discovered that will bring about the desired results. It is a preparation the result of science and experiment; the science pointing out what was needed, and experiment finding the required properties in certain roots, barks, and herbs. It has consumed a long time in its preparation, has been tested by persons of most undoubted reliability in this city, and is by them pronounced perfect, and the only satisfactory article, and is now offered to the public. The proprietors, determined to give it the most thorough tests, practical and chemical, and now certain that it will make the hair grow luxuriantly on Bald Heads, Preventing Grayness and Baldness, Reinvigorating and Beautifying the Hair, rendering it soft and glossy.

DR. STERLING'S AMBROSIA is a stimulating, oily extract of roots, barks, and herbs, and, aside from its neatness, permanency, and gloss, it is medically adapted to preserve and add to the beauty of the hair. The only article yet discovered that will Cure the Disease of the Scalp, and cause the Hair to Grow.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify that about eighteen months ago, I commenced using STERLING'S AMBROSIA. My hair was short, thin and rapidly falling out. I had tried many Hair Tonics, Invigorators, &c., without receiving any benefit. Soon after using the Ambrosia, my hair ceased falling out, and commenced growing so rapidly as to astonish me. Now my hair is thick, soft, and glossy, and is five feet four inches in length—when let down, reaching to the floor. This wonderful result I attribute solely to the use of STERLING'S AMBROSIA, as since I commenced using it I have applied nothing else to my hair.

The [illegible]

MISCEL[illegible]

BLOOD BATHS.—Acco[illegible] dition which is incidentally [illegible] Pliny, the ancient kings of Eg[illegible] bathe in human blood when [illegible] seized with leprosy. A similar [illegible] told of the Emperor Constantine; b[illegible] seems to have been restrained from [illegible] ploying this revolting remedy in conse[illegible] quence of a vision; and he is said to have been cured by baptism. No great weight can be attached to these ill authenticated stories; yet it is but too true that, both in ancient times and in the middle ages, decided healing virtues for the cure of leprosy were supposed to exist in the blood of innocent children and virgins, and that occasion was given thereby for numberless cruelties. It is needless to refer here to the remoter traces of the belief in the expiatory or healing properties of pure blood; they ramify far, and pass into the most ancient times. Cures of leprous people with the blood of animals, in employing which certain symbolical customs were observed, are mentioned in the books of Moses; and it might not be difficult to discover similar forms among all the nations in the world. During the middle ages the delusion about the healing virtues of human blood which must have had horrible effects in the great plague of leprosy, received a check from the impression that only the blood of those children and virgins would prove efficacious, who offered themselves freely and voluntarily for a beloved sufferer. This idea is particularly expressed in the touching tale of "Poor Henry," which forms [illegible] ject of one of the most [illegible] thirteenth century. [illegible]ness, is seized who sits in the lap of [illegible] to escape evil with the leprosy. [illegible]ough the world for death, he seek[illegible]cians of Montpelier can help. The [illegible]ssitance [illegible] he hastens to Salerno[illegible] Here one of the Masters makes [illegible] acquainted with the apparently hopeless means of cure. Sad at heart, he returns home, and prepares himself to [illegible]orrow out the remainder of his days in solitude. A girl of twelve years of age, the daughter of a countryman, conceives a passion for the unfortunate knight, attends him affectionately, and, upon accidentally hearing of the free-will suffering, cannot be dissuaded from her resolution to purchase the recovery of her master with her life. Both get out for Salernum, but the catastrophe is not fatal; Henry [illegible] rid of the leprosy, and rewards his [illegible]rous benefactress with marriage. [illegible]tory of Amis and Amelius is [illegible]me sort, [illegible] which affords [illegible] of conclusion that the su[illegible] we speak was scarcely [illegible]rter.

QUINCY ADAMS.—When John Quincy Adams was minister to the Court of Holland, he joined a society of learned men who met once a week for mutual improvement. Mr. Adams, though one of the youngest members, soon became a great favorite; his [illegible]nely-toned mind and delightful conversation won him many friends, and receiving as much enjoyment as he gave, he was always punctually present. On one occasion, however, the meeting was adjourned to Sunday evening. Mr. Adams was not there. His fellow-members noticed and regretted his absence. On the third Sunday evening it met; Mr. Adams's chair was vacant. Many were surprised that he, who was formerly so prompt and punctual, should thus suddenly break off. How did it happen? Press of business was supposed. At last the meetings were turned to week-day evening; and lo! there was Mr. Adams in his place, brilliant and delightful as ever. The members welcomed him back, and expressed their sorrow that press of business or duties of his office should so long deprived them of his company. Did he let that go as the reason? "Not business engagements hindered me," replied he; "you met on the Lord's day—that is a day devoted to religious uses by me." He then told them he had been brought up in a land where the Sabbath was strictly observed, and from all he had felt and seen, he was convinced of the unspeakable advantages always arising from the faithful observance of it.

A dog at Hertford, England, lately [illegible] a ten pound note from the mu[illegible] after drying it by the stove, [illegible] his master's hands. This is [illegible] for Hertford; but we know a dog that is accustomed to go every day to get a pennyworth of meat, which is scored against him, and one day seeing the butcher make two marks instead of one, he did not seem to notice it, but seizing his opportunity, seized a [illegible] amount, and ran home with it in a great state of glee.

Passably intelligent is that there is a Newfoundland dog in Washington that knows a trick worth two of that. His master recently gave him a basket, and said, "Carlo, take that basket and go to market." The dog trotted off and seized a paint brush, and commenced illustrating the basket with beautiful stripes. "What are you doing, Carlo, with the basket?" yelled the dog owner. "I'm going to mark it," quietly replied Carlo.
