TOWN AND COUNTRY.

LOCAL items were very scarce to day. There was absolutely nothing doing as a matter of fact worthy of being dignified or recognized by a place in our columns.

A TENDER Love Epistle. - In one of the boxes of cartridges sent from the Allegheny Arsenal, distributed to the soldiers at Wheeling, on Wednesday morning last, was a note informing the recipient of the box that "the arsenals girls is well at present, and send their love to you and all the rest of the solgers." The missive was signed by two of the aforesaid "arsenal girls."

Something of the ravages of war may be gleaned from a fact which we learned from an officer of one of the New York two years' regiments, who was in this city yesterday, en route for his home. He stated that these regiments in all, comprise thirty eight organizations; that when they entered the service, they were all full, but that they do not now number, in all, inducted into office to-day. ten thousand men. This is a fearful picture of slavery and treason are maintained by the lead-day, and made the following appointments: ers of the Democratic party, who are now the only men who defend the one and justify the T. Brooks, Meadville, —— Cooper, Chamother. Will our thinking friends ponder this bersburg. We have not been able to learn the fact?

NO ARRESTS OF SPIRITUALISTS. - A paragraph appeared in the Tory Organ of Saturday, copied from the Burlington (Iowa) Argus, which makes a statement that the present proprietors of the Tory Organ knew to be false when they adopted it. The Argus says that this Government is controlled by spiritua ists, and that in all the arrests made by the War office, not a duties faithfully. Instead of printing the extract from the Burlington Argus without comment, the Tory Organ should have confessed its spiritualism, and informed the public of Iowa that notwithstanding even this spiritualism, it was not exempted from ar rest when supposed to be guilty of treason.

KUNKEL'S

VEGETABLE VERMIPUGE CONFECTIONS. Beware of Counterfeits and Base Imitations

'HE great popularity of Kunkel's Vegetal le Vermifuge Confections, from its reliable efficacy in expelling worms from the human system, and its agreeable taste and pleasant system, and its agreeable taste and pleasant form, inducing children to eat it with a relish, a quality that no other worm medicine ever possessed, has induced several unprincipled persons to get up base imitations of this valuable article. I therefore caution all persons to be ware of those vile compounds, for they will produce great irritation in the system, terminating in violent spasms and death.
