Medical.

DR. JOHNSON

BALTIMORE

LOCK HOSPITAL.

HAS discovered the most certain, speedy and effectual remedies in the world for

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

RELIEF IN SIX TO TWELVE HOURS.

NO MERCURY OR NOXIOUS DRUGS.

A Cure Warranted, or No Charge, in from One to Two Days.

Weakness of the Back, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin. Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible,

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of DR. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately Cured, and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and death.

OFFICE, No. 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,

Left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number.

Letters must be paid and contain a stamp. The Doctor's Diplomas hang in his office.

DR. JOHNSON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the most eminent colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, symptoms of consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating

MARRIAGE,

Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an illtimed sense of shame or the dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment, or, by the use of the deadly poison, Mercury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affections of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, etc. progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from whence no traveller returns.

INDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Dr. Johnson, witnessed by the reporters of the Sun, Clipper, and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

IN MEMORIAM.

On the Death of Lieut. Geo. W. Kenney, of Philadelphia.

BY JOE W. FUREY.

"It is with unfeigned sorrow I apprise you of the fact that Lieut. Kenney, your son, was mortally wounded to-day in the battle of White Oak Swamp. ° ° ° ° Exclaiming 'My Saviour! My Saviour!' he sank upon the ground and was carried to the hospital in the rear."—Extract from a letter of Major Parish to Mr. Kenney.

A vacant chair in the house to-day,
Still speaks of the gallant dead;
But never again shall the grand old halls
Awake to his manly tread.

And never again shall his loving voice,
Be heard with its words of cheer,
To soothe the mother's mourning heart,
Or dry the sister's tear.

He sleeps the sleep of a brave man, slain
For the sake of his native sod;
For the sake of that starry flag, whose folds
He worshipped next to God.

He sleeps—and above his youthful grave,
In the sod of his native land,
The flag of his love shall ever wave,
Untouched by a traitor's hand.

Not in the heat of passion's glow,
Nor yet with the boaster's pride—
But with the name of JESUS on his lips,
The youthful hero died.

Oh, glorious hope! Oh, blessed sight!
There on that battle-sod,
To hear these words of life and light:
"My Saviour and my God!"

Sleep on, O soldier of the cross!
Thou hast not died in vain:
The Saviour whom thou lov'dst in life,
Will recompense again.

Thy bleeding country mourns thy loss,
And the years as they swiftly flee,
Will weave in her children's loving hearts,
Sweet memories of thee.

Then sleep—and above thy youthful grave,
In the sod of thy native land,
The flag for which thou hast died, shall wave,
Untouched by a traitor's hand.

PENNSYLVANIA HOUSE, HARRISBURG, May 3, 1863.

The Nigger Question.

"FROM AN UNUSUAL STAND POINT."

The Bible says: "To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High; to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord approveth not." It is grievously "to turn aside a man's right," and it is fearfully "to subvert a man in his cause," when you impeach his right to himself, and to the wife of his youth, and to their own children, when you hide from his eyes the letters of God's book, lest they become incendiary; and most of all when you jeer at his community of interest in the first Adam, the ancestor of us all. Subvert a man in "his cause," and in the question of his manhood from the first Adam, as no kin of his. Dispute his right in the blood in the first tenants of Eden, and you "subvert also his cause," and impeach also his right, in the second Adam, who as the Lamb of God taketh away the sin of the world. Blot his pedigree if you can, without blotting also his passport to a better country, in that title which a Redeemer's blood sealed. That elder brother was he, exclusively, and by right of Caucassian caste yours only? We know from the Evangelist that He accepted aid in bearing his cross to the pit hole, where they planted it, from a man of African home—Simon the Cyrenian. Whether that helper's hue, as well as his home, were African, it matters not. If Ethiopia "stretching out her hand unto God" had, in the veins of that hand, not the same human blood, of which the incarnate ransomer took in His humanity; then she stretches as far as salvation is concerned, that hand in vain to a barred Eden, and an inaccessible and inexorable Judge!—Subvert the Ethiopian's, the African's, the negro's, (word the name as you will,) the black man's claim to a common blood and a common humanity with yourselves; and write with a grin, before the skies, Sambo, cousin to the ape; and you have "turned away his right" in the atonement, and "subverting his cause" in the last judgment, and his citizenship in the new Jerusalem. Easily said is the scoff, when you consider its victim's disabilities, and his accusers' advantage. It is an unequal combat.—But if the taunt chance to call out a higher arbiter—what then? And Solomon warned us centuries ago: "Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker." If Sambo's mocker finds himself confronted by Sambo's Maker, the inequality shifts to another side. The mortal scoffer is startled to find the puny lance of his jest hurtling upon the thick bosses of Jehovah's buckler, and Sambo's Maker will answer your taunt, be assured. Will the sufferer on that cross, and the occupant of that judgment seat, and the King of that Paradise, calmly and mutely approve your exclusiveness, and endorse your banishment of your ransomed ones to brutalism and perdition? Paul, speaking by authority of his Master, told the Athenians, one of the superior castes, as they held themselves, of the proud Greek blood, that God had "made of one blood all nations of men on all the face of the earth." Christianity repudiates this disparagement and subversion of the African's cause and right. He is your kinsman, for he is Christ's kin. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Know ye not, that soon we are to hear these words, and from whence and where? DR. WILLIAMS.

FROM THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS OF GEN. HOOKER.

FREDERICKSBURG AGAIN OCCUPIED.

Rebel Redoubts Taken with Ease.

Particulars of the Movement.

The Enemy Forced to Fight on the Ground of Gen. Hooker's Choosing.

The Railroads Between the Rebels and Richmond Cut.

Rebel Line of Retreat Broken.

Burning of Rebel Encampments.

Highly Important Rumors.

NEW YORK, May 4.

The Tribune and Herald have issued extras containing the following news by mail from the Rappahannock up to Sunday morning.

The Tribune says at that time our left wing was in possession of Fredericksburg and of the first line of redoubts on the hill behind it, and was feeling its way to the second line. The river was crossed and the redoubts were carried with great ease and with very slight loss of life.

The rebels had marched away in the direction of Chancellorville to attack our right wing there posted, leaving at that post only 10,000 men, and subsequently not more than 5,000 to 7,000 men in their works, as was ascertained by a reconnoissance from Lowe's balloon.

A great portion of our Falmouth batteries were engaged on Sunday with the rebel batteries, firing across the river and over.

The firing both of musketry and cannonading on the right, in the direction of Chancellorville, was very heavy.

The enemy had been forced to fight on the ground of Gen. Hooker's choosing. It was believed on both wings that Gen. Stoneman's expedition to cut the railroads between the rebels and Richmond had proved successful, thus cutting off the only path of retreat.

So confident was Gen. Hooker at Falmouth of success that in conformity with his orders a force had already commenced to rebuild a bridge over the Rappahannock. The troops are in the finest spirits and everything looks propitious.

The Herald has also an extra, giving news up to 11 o'clock on Sunday morning, which says that on Saturday evening there was a brilliant fire in the rear of Fredericksburg, which appeared to proceed from the burning of rebel encampments. There was another fire in the rear of Falmouth, from the burning of encampments below Stoneman's station.

Fredricksburg was occupied at about 2 o'clock on Sunday morning by our troops. The batteries on either side of the river commenced playing upon each other about 5 o'clock, and the roaring of cannon was loud and prolonged.

The New York Herald's extra contains the following:

FIRST ARMY CORPS, May 3.—Losses in battery L—First New York sustained the following in addition to those before recorded.

Killed—Charles E. Carpenter.

Wounded—Sergeant Amos, John Geogan, and Daniel Stewart. The battery also lost eight horses. The fire of this battery told with such terrible effect upon the rebels, that it dismounted some of their guns and silenced their battery. There are excellent artillerists in the battery that punished the rebels severely, and it will be heard from again elsewhere.

It is not contraband information to state that the first division under Gen. Wadsworth, the only part of the first corps that crossed, was withdrawn from the south side of the Rappahannock during their artillery firing.

Capt. Sellinan, of Troy, chief of Brig. Gen. Phelps' staff, withdrew our pickets and not a man was left behind.

Among the rumors yesterday of operations on the right was one that we had captured 16 pieces of artillery from the rebels.

Another that the Irish Brigade had stormed and taken three rebel batteries.

Still another that Gen. Hooker rode along the lines cheered by the brave soldiers who admire him.

Another that a shell struck within thirty feet of him when he was thus riding.

Another that our cavalry were tearing up railroad tracks in the rebel lines, destroying rebel property and crossing their country, creating consternation and dismay where they made their raids.

Another that our forces on the right drove the rebels on Friday, then fell back and planted batteries at intervals, which mowed down the pressing and deluded rebels like grass before the scythe.

Another that we advanced more than one mile yesterday, compelling the rebels to fall back, and that we are still driving them with terrible slaughter to them and comparatively small loss on our part.

When General Hooker took command of the army the men were out of spirits and out of potatoes. The latter was supplied to them in generous quantities, and now they are in most jubilant spirits, confident of success, and willing to endure any hardships and any perils to accomplish that desirable end and thus crush the rebellion.

A Sergeant of Livingstone's battery, whose leg was shattered by a shell in the fighting at the right, when being carried to the rear said: "Thank God, I have always done my duty." Afterwards he said: "Livingstone's battery have always done their duty."

The weather is most excellent for military operations, and the details of one of the most brilliant military successes the world ever knew will reach you soon. Wait a little longer. The roads are everywhere good enough for mules and in most places good for wheels, but Gen. Hooker will not permit lumbering wagons to obstruct the advance of his reinforcements.

Major Cameron, paymaster, paid the 33d Massachusetts while the regiment was on the march and the cannonading was progressing. He has just come down from the front, having paid the 136th and 54th New York, the remainder of the regiments not being accessible.

The rebel prisoners who went down to Aquia Creek yesterday were not so penitent as they should be. One of them, in passing Stoneman's station, gave three cheers for Gen. Jackson.

The Richmond Dispatch says the other day while melting the iron of shells in Richmond, which had been picked up on the battle fields, one or two shells exploded with terrible force, doing great damage.

Eleven o'clock, A. M.—At this hour there is heavy cannonading on the right, and the quiet of the Sabbath in the forest must be disturbed up there.

FROM WASHINGTON.

A Heavy Fight at Warrenton Junction.

Defeat of Forrest's and Black Horse Cavalry.

A REBEL SPY KILLED.

THE WHOLE FORCE ROUTED.

WASHINGTON, May 4.

The following dispatch was received this morning at General Heintzelman's headquarters, from General Stahl:

FAIRFAX STATION, May 3.—A heavy fight occurred this morning near Warrenton Junction, between a portion of my forces under Colonel Deforrest, and the Black Horse Cavalry under Moseby and other guerilla forces.

My forces succeeded in routing the rebels after a heavy fight. The rebel loss was very heavy in killed and wounded. Templeton, the rebel spy, was killed and several other officers are wounded, but not dangerously.

LATER.

May 4th.—The rebels who fled in the direction of Warrenton were pursued by Maj. Hammond, of the 5th New York cavalry, who has returned and reports our charge at Warrenton Junction as being so terrific as to have thoroughly routed and scattered them in every direction.

I have sent in twenty-three prisoners of Moseby's command, all of whom are wounded, some badly. Dick Moran is among the number. There are also three officers of Moseby's.

The loss of the enemy was very heavy in killed, besides many wounded, who scattered and prevented being captured. Our loss was one killed and fourteen wounded. Major Steele of the 1st Va. Reg. is slightly wounded.

I have sent in this morning to the provost marshal 28 prisoners and 60 horses captured in this reconnoissance.
