TOWN AND COUNTRY.

MILITARY RELIEF COMMITTEE.—The regular monthly payment will be made on Friday afternoon, 8th inst., at the Court House, between the hours of four and six.
GEO. BERGNER, Pres't.
O. EDWARDS, Sec'y.

LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS.—The subscriber, having opened a room at No. 94 Market street, below Fourth, will oblige all persons wishing tailoring done. Having an experience of eight years at the business, I feel confident in giving satisfaction. I will promptly attend to cutting men's and boys' clothing in any desired style.
GEO. A. KLUGG.

EV. LUTHERAN SYNOD OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA.—This body will convene in Middletown on Wednesday evening, May 20th. Rev. Mr. Fletcher is busily engaged in providing quarters for the members of Synod. Nearly one hundred persons are expected to be present.

HON. JAMES M. SHELLES, of Juniata county, has been announced as a fit candidate for Governor, to be supported by the loyal men of Pennsylvania, but has his prospects for nomination fatally affected in being recommended by such a vile echo of treason as the Middletown True Democrat. Praise from such a source would truly be the character of an angel.

THINK OF THE PRINTER.—Our friend, H. A. Mish, has placed us under obligations by sending us a magnificent lot of the best Asparagus we ever examined. He is among the most successful gardeners in the county, and at his stall in the market house, our readers can find the choicest and earliest vegetables of the season. Give him a call to-morrow morning.

A LARGE NUMBER OF REBEL PRISONERS, captured near Fredericksburg, with an equal number of rebel deserters, arrived in this city last night. They took the oath of allegiance at Baltimore. When they reached here, some of them, former residents of this State, proceeded to their old homes—others went on their way to the west, for the purpose of finding work, and a small number still remain in this city.

PRESENTATION.—Daniel Hoke, engineer between Altoona and Harrisburg, was recently presented with a handsome clock for his engine, by a few of his friends who are intimately connected with him in the discharge of his duties, as a mark of their esteem for him as a gentleman, and for the faithful manner in which he performs the duties of his situation. Mr. Hoke is regarded as a careful and expert engineer, and the testimonial was a fitting present to a worthy employee.

REBEL PROPERTY SEIZED.—U. S. Marshall Earl Bill on Friday seized, under the Confiscation Act, a fine farm of 300 acres, in Logan county, Ohio, belonging to Charles Yancey and Richard Yancey, of Lacey, near Harrisburg, Virginia. The farm has been during the past year cropped by two men named Farris and Stamfield, and the rents collected by an agent named A. Dickenson. These men have been enjoined from paying any money into their hands, or rent accruing to the Yanceys.

GALLANTRY OF A HARRISBURGER.—A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing under date of May 3rd, pays a high compliment to Col. Peter H. Allabach, now commanding a brigade in the army of the Potomac. He is reported to have made three desperate charges at the head of his brigade, in which he inflicted the most serious damage to the enemy. Col. Allabach is a brave man, and may be regarded as among the most gallant men in the army. The Herald says that no troops were ever led better or fought more daringly than those which Col. Allabach took into action.

TO BE HELD RESPONSIBLE.—Major Joseph Darr, commandant at Wheeling, has issued an order of which secession sympathizers along the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will do well to take notice. It is in these words: "Having such intelligence as to make it certain that the bridges on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Burton, were destroyed by persons in sympathy with the present rebellion against the Government of the United States, general warning is hereby given to all such, that if the road is again damaged in any particular, all well known secessionists in the immediate locality where the damage is done will be held directly responsible, and such punishment will be inflicted upon them as will put an effectual stop to all deceptions of this character.

NEWSPAPER OFFICE MOVED.—The Monitor office, Kittanning, Pa., was mobbed on last Wednesday night. The Indiana Register says: Fourteen cases of type were scattered through the streets and alleys of the town, and other damage done. The Monitor was started about five months ago, by J. Alex. Fulton, well known to many of our citizens, and it has throughout been notorious for its opposition to the war for the Union, and continually found fault with the National Administration in its efforts to suppress rebellion. It has done much to embitter the public mind and sentiment, and it has gathered the first fruits of the war. We do not, however, approve of the mode of suppressing Mr. Fulton's paper. Nor will we countenance the doings of mobs under any circumstances. If individuals have violated the laws, they should be punished by the laws. Because an individual does wrong is no justification for others to exercise unlawful means in punishment of the offender. "Let justice be done though the heavens should fall."

THE CITY ZOUAVES, Capt. Awt, were mustered out of service this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

AN ADJOURNED MEETING of the committee of management for the reception of the 127th Regt. P. V. will be held at the Brady House this evening at 7 o'clock. The punctual attendance of every member of the committee is earnestly requested.

THE RIVER, this morning at 8 o'clock, was eleven feet above low water mark. We understand, too, that the Juniata river, yesterday, rose six feet in five hours; and at last accounts it was still rapidly on the rise. The Susquehanna is also rising steadily. From these facts we may anticipate a flood of unusual power and volume of water. The appearance of the weather also indicates that the rain has not entirely ceased, and that we may expect a further heavy fall of water.

A DISGRACEFUL EXHIBITION.—Officer Fleck, to day at noon, found a woman lying in Third street in front of Sanford's Opera House in a beastly state of intoxication. She was just able to give her name as Mary Fry, and was committed to prison for thirty days by Alderman Peffer. Officer Fleck was compelled to convey her to prison on a wheelbarrow. Truly it was a disgraceful sight, thus to see the degradation to which whisky brings all who indulge in its use.

HOW THE NEWS IS GIVEN TO THE PEOPLE OF HARRISBURG.—The Tory Organ this morning boasts gleefully over the fact that it gave its readers the first account of the disaster which is alleged to have overtaken Hooker. This is true; but it forgets to state that it showed no disposition to give its readers the cheering news which reached the city early yesterday morning, that Hooker was fast pressing on to Richmond, and the prospect was, that he would reduce and capture the rebel capital. That news was not given by the Tory Organ, because its friends asserted that it was false. They hoped that it was not true, and this was their only foundation for pronouncing it false. The news of the disaster of Hooker was no better authenticated than the news of his victory, and yet the Tory Organ preferred to publish the intelligence of defeat. Of course it could not help doing that. It was in accordance with its hope and feelings. But then it should not boast of its infamy.

A FITTING SUGGESTION.—We submit the suggestion contained in the following communication to the consideration of those having power in the premises. It emanates from one whom it becomes to make such a suggestion, and is worthy of the respect of all who believe in the efficacy and the influence of prayer:

HARRISBURG, May 9th 1863.
May I suggest through your paper that there may be a meeting in every church in this town on some early day to supplicate the Almighty to crown our arms with victory at Fredericksburg. I suggest that a meeting of the clergy-men be held and they select a day.
Respectfully, yours,
LAYMAN.
George Berger, Esq., Editor of the Telegraph.

We heartily and sincerely commend this suggestion. Not only at the altar of every church, but from every heartstone, and from every sincere heart, earnest prayer should now ascend to God for interposition in our behalf as a nation. He alone can give us the victory over our enemies. If our cause is not worthy of His approval and encouragement, it is unworthy of our effort and sacrifice. We repeat, then, that we trust this suggestion will elicit an immediate response.

TO THE PUBLIC.—C. L. Bowman, of the late firm of Critch & Bowman, respectively announces to the public that he will open to-day and during this week, a large and beautiful assortment of new spring and summer dry goods; and while he makes his best bow for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the old firm, he hopes by additional inducements to invite the attention of those who wish to purchase cheap for cash. It will interest buyers to know that he is prepared to sell delaines, calico and muslin at three to five cents a yard cheaper than the ruling rates. Yours &c., C. L. BOWMAN, Southeast corner of front and Market streets.

A Communication.
Although our confidence in mankind may have been abused, in this naughty world of ours, it is ennobling to see patient, honest, rectitude laboring on and striving to better the condition of our fellow creatures. In this connection our attention has been called to the merits of Mrs. Washoven's German Vegetable Medicines, and the success attending those manufactured by our favorably known citizen, Mrs. L. Ball, No. 27 South Pine street, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. In view of these valuable medicines, which can be procured from Mrs. Ball at a small compensation, we have thought it our duty to say this much for the benefit of the afflicted.

We have taken over on the 1st of April the balance of goods bought of Mr. Boger, to our own store, where we will continue to sell the balance left at very low prices, until the whole are sold. Among these goods are 1,000 yards remnants, delaine and calico, 16, 18 and 20 cents.
400 yards remnants, lawns and other dress goods, 16, 18 and 20 cents.
200 yards of barge and lustre, 20 and 25 cents.
1,000 yards of linen crash, 16, 18 and 20 cents.
100 yards of brown and grey cloth for summer coats.
1,000 yards of linen, cotton and wool pants stuff, cheap.
30 dozen of the very best spool cotton, white and colored.
1,000 papers of the very best of Smith's needles, 5 cts. a paper; also stockings, gloves, pocket handkerchiefs, hoop skirts, all kinds of combs, patent thread, tapes, socks, either by the dozen or piece. We have also on hand yet about 10 pieces of CARPET, which we will sell at 75 cents per yard.
20 pieces of straw matting, cheap.
20 pieces of splendid figured window curtains.

THE PUBLIC are cautioned against the sale of SPURIOUS articles of LYE for making SOAP, &c., now offered for sale. TAKE NOTICE.
THE UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT, Western District of Pennsylvania, No. 1 of May Term, in 1862, in suit of THE PENNSYLVANIA SALT MANUFACTURING COMPANY vs. THOS. G. CHASE, decreed to the Company, on November 15, 1862, the EXCLUSIVE right granted by a patent owned by them for the SAPONIFIER Patent dated October 21, 1855. Perpetual injunction awarded.
