An Infidel and a Coward's Falschood. The following is a plain assertion from the Tory Organ, this morning:

GENCE THAT HOOKER WAS BEASTLY DRUNK AND ENTIRELY INCAPACITATED FOR COMMAND OB ANYTHING ELSE. ON SUNDAY, AND THE REPORTS THAT THE ADMY HAS ENTIRE OF THAT THE ABMY HAS ENTIRE CONFIDENCE IN HIM ARE UNFOUNDED.

-Now we only ask, that the soldiers who are at present in this city, and who perilled fact, and hence the proclamation as to the extheir lives with Hooker in achieving the success of the most consummate stragetical move ment of the war-that these brave men meet and resent this foul assault on their brave commander. Be it remembered, that the wretches who put forth this unfounded libel on Gen. Hooker are themselves the most confirmed and disgrace upon the Government.

NO ENEMY ON THE RAPPAHANNOCK

WASHINGTON, May 12

The facts connected with the flag of truce sent over by Gen. Lee, on Wednesday morning, are, as stated by himself, that he had exhausted his medicines, surgical appliance and hospital stores for the wounded, and asking for firsh sopplies. These were sent over by the way of United States Ford.

The truth of the report is now satisfactorily ascertained that some of our wounded, who were lying in the woods around Chancellors ville, were burned to death. The woods were fired by our own and the enemy's shells and the flames spread rapidly until the rains fell. Brigadier General Hays, of the Reserve artillery, who was wounded in both legs, was captured by the enemy. There was a prevailing impression at Falmouth, on Friday, that the enemy had withdrawn from our front at the time our forces left their entrenchmenhs in the rear of Chancellorsville. One of our corps commanders had occasion on Monday to send a message under a flag of truce to the rebel commander, but after a fruit. less effort he reported that although he fell in There is no doubt that Gen. Stoneman has arrived safely this side of the Rappabannock.

ADVANCE OF THE REBELS.

NEW YORK, May 12. A special dispatch from Murfree-boro, Tenn. to the Tribune of the 11th says: Trustworthy information has been received that Martin's rebel cavalry is at Forrestville, 12 miles from nere, and is reported to have reinforced Gen. ockner's division.

A lady who has arrived at Nashville reports 700 rebels at Williamsport. The latest reports state that the entire rebel force is from 60,000 to 65,000 men.

THE WAR IN MEXICO THE FRENCH STILL UNSUCCESSFUL.

SAN FRANCECO, May 11.

Dates from the city of Mexico to the 16th lt. and Fuebla to the 14th, have been received. The French had gained nothing since the 6th. They were occupying the castle of San Janoiar and six blocks of the city. On the 12th, Gen. Ortega wrote that the condition of the city was unchanged and expressed confidence that the French could not take and held it. The French French could not'ts keand hold it. The French were bombarding the convents of San Augus tine, Coma and Merced.
