A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE occurred in Bedford on Moad y night last, by which the stables attached to the Mengle House were entirely destroyed. Mr. Me gle had two splendid horses burned, also a horse owned by John G. Fleck, valued at $200, a cow for which he had only as short time azo paid $30, buggy, 150 bushels of oats. 2 tons of hav, harness, and a number of snahller articles, making a total loss, with the stab le, of $1200 of which $ 00 were covered by insurance. The stube of John P. Reed also took fire and was entirely consumed. The loss is cetimated at $200, which was covered by in surance. The stable of Solumon Beimund was also consumed, loss supposed to be $300. There were no cattle in either of those last named stables, and the loss was not as heavy in proportion.

-The evidence was conclusive that the fire was the work of an incerdiary.

NEW POSTAL ABBANGEMENTS .- Two Daily Mails Military escort, comprising detachments from and from Reading -By an arrangement effected by the efforts of the P. M. of this city, the Post Governor and Heads of Departments in carriages, organization from the free will offerings of the Master General has ordered the establishment of two daily mails, between this city and Reading. One only has heretofore existed, but the interests growing out of the great reciprocities of trade and business between the two citiks. have increased the demand for additional mail facilities, and hence the efforts of the P. M. of One Hundred, and Twenty Soventh Regiment Harrisburg to effect the arrangement. Our business men will know how to appreciate the new accommodations.

The Postage on Foreign Letters -In consequence of the postages collected on unpaid foreign letters received in the United States, having to be accounted for to foreign governments, in specie or its equivalent, the Post Master General has directed that from and after the first of May, 1868.
