ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Immediately Cured, and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost, or that those falling into improper habits than by the present. Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged; the physical and mental functions weakened; loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a swelling of the frame, cough, consumption, decay, and death.

YOUNG MEN.
Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons may, before contemning marriage.

DISEASE OF IMPURITUDE.
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, he too often seeks an unskillful cure, or an unskillful physician, who, in the discovery, derails him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone benefit him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trudging month after month, or as long as the summer heat can be obtained, until in despair he leaves him with ruined health, bright eyes, and a wasting, disappointed, or by the use of the deadly poison, Mercury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affections of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, &c., progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from whence no traveler returns.
