But now peace is restored, the law predominates, and mob rule has been vanquished. All is quiet along the lines, and the city is once more free from the confused popularity they have already attained .-. N. Y. strangers jumbled together in one adulterated maass. 1. S. S. S. S. L.

_____ To THOSE PURCHASING GOVERNMENT HORSES. t is well enough that our citizens should be warned to be careful of whom they purchase horses having the mystical initials of "U.S." burned on their shoulders. Hundreds and thousands of horses have been sold by order of Wu. K noche, 93 Market street the Government, but these were beasts so completely broken down, that their possession is a burden which few horsemen are willing to endure. Other animals, however, have been surreptitious v driven or ridden from the armies of are sold. It is well, therefore, that these purchasing horses thus branded "U. S.," should be certain that the parties selling have a right to dispose of the stock. A few days since two very valuable horses were seized by the agents of the Govern-met at Middli town. The horses were in the possession of parties who could give not satis, factory account of them, and hence their Self-ure. creased wonderfolly the popularity of instru-ments of this class. Admirers of trae Organ music, of sustained harmonies, are no longer confined to the asthmatic or weak burged Meldeon, or the noisy, ear tearing reed organ. An iustrument is now obtainable, which is much more under the control of the performer, is capable of producing the softest tones, and yet, possesses many times the power of any Melodeon. As the Mason & Hamlin instruments having these new valuable the Automatic Swell) are su generis, like those of no other maker—and since there are other instruments called Harmoniums without these excellencies, Messrs. Mason & Hamlin have desirable for the drawing room, and they are fapidly becoming a necessity for the family. The low price at which they are afforded, brings them within the means of almost every house hold; and, as lovers of music, we welcome the Musical Review.

Our readers are referred, in connection with the above, to the advertisement of Messrs.

Mason & Hamlin, in which it will be noticed that their Cabinet Organs have received the unqualified endorsement of the most eminent organists and musicians of Boston, New York . and other cities. For sale in Harrisburg by Mr.
