A CURIOUS CASE OF POISONING.—In Chicago, a few days since, a physician was called to see a lady who had evidently been poisoned under the following peculiar circumstances: She is employed in the manufacture of millinery goods, and is frequently in the habit of biting off the thread while sewing, not knowing that all articles of the kind are saturated with arsenic, as a portion of the coloring matter.-She had absorbed into the system a sufficient quantity of the poison to have proved falshad it not been for the timely interference of medical aid. This should be a sufficient warn ing to all persons engaged in the millinery business against the dangerous practice.

I went to the hospital and saw the body after it was prepared for burial, and made some inquiries about her. She was of rather more than ordimarked features, so that with the aid of man attire she had quite a masculine look. She enlisted in the regiment after they went to Missouri; and consequently they know nothing about her history. She probably served under an assumed name. She was in the battle of Springfield, where General Lyon was killed, and both as a man and a soldier, and the speak of her in terms of respect and affection She was brave as a lion in battle, and neve flinched from any duty or hardships that fell to her lot.
