TOWN AND COUNTRY

STRAWBERRIES.—A lot of Olewine's celebrated strawberries will be offered for sale at the lower market house this evening at six o'clock.

DESERTERS.-Lieut. M'Clellan left this city to-day, for Washington, having in charge thirteen deserters from the Union army. Three stragglers, and one exchanged prisoner were also placed under his charge, destined for the federal capital.

DISCHARGED. - The cases of desertion referred to in Tuesday evening's TELEGRAPH, in which writs of habeas corpus had been issued, were referred to the Secretary of War, who had both the men discharged from service. They were arrested in Tyrone, and it was alleged they belonged to the Second Pennsylvania cavalry.

Union Meeting at Huntingdon.—A Union mass meeting will be held at Huntingdon, on Saturday, June 20, at one o'clock, P. M. All who love their country more than party, are invited to attend and join in giving exspeakers are invited, and expected to address 10 A. M. and 6 P. M. the meeting on the most important questions now agitating the country.

REACHED THEIR DESTINATION .- The rebel prisoners who passed through this city last Tuesday morning, arrived at Fort Delaware, their destination, about three o'clock the next quarters provided for them on their arrival, and every Sabbath. retired for the balance of the night. The next morning they were obliged to take a bath, and, during the day, to wash their clothing, which presented a most filthy appearance. They will there hereafter. be required to take two baths daily in future. until they are exchanged. Many of these men are anxious to take the oath of allegiance and remain on Northern soil.

RECEDETING SERVICE.—From official sources, in this city, we learn that over eighty men have been recruited in this State, since the first of June, by the recruiting officers outside of the month there will be more men recruited than were enlisted in the State during the whole of last month. Every day fresh squads of recruits are reporting at this post, where mium. This is very encouraging to the recruiting officers, and will have the most cheering effect upon the volunteers now in the REQUIRE NO GUARD. -The recruits which reach here daily have quarters furnished them at Camp Curtin, where they generally remain until sent to their regiments in the field. With no guard to prevent their leaving or returning to camp, fewer desertions occur than formerly, which is convincing evidence that the men now volunteer with more earnestness than heretofore. The existing orders, however, may have some effect, which provides that the recruits shall be examined and clothed as soon as they reach the recruiting rendezvous; but they are not to be mustered into service, nor receive their advance pay, until ready to be tude, until he was called to the Christian's tire party in one day. Dix has already been in forwarded to the regiments to which they de haven, where the trials and hardships of this sire to be assigned.

THE DRAFTED REGIMENTS TO RETURN HOME. The following is a list of the drafted regiments whose term of service will soon expire, and will return home between the middle of July and the first of August. The list was obtained from the Department at the Capitol, and includes the two regiments which volunteered in lieu of the draft.

> EARLY DEATH -We have learned, with deep regret, that Thomas W. Stees, formerly a resident of this city, died at Camp Pennsylvania, near Murfreesboro, Tenn., after a four weeks iliness. The notice of his decease was received by his relatives with the deepest grief, and the sincere sympathles of his many friends are with his mother, who has, through the melancholy dispensation of Divine Providence, been deprived of a dutiful and affectionate son. A true and penitent christian, he died as he had lived, bearing up under the sufferings of the fell destroyer, typhoid fever, with remarkable fortiworld are unknown.
