WAR MELTING.

At eleven o'clock this forenoon the Court House bell proclaimed that a meeting of the citizens was desired to make proper preparation to meet any rebel force that might invade our borders, and this city in particular.

On motion of Wm. T. Bishop, Gen. Simon CAMERON Was called to the chair, and the Rev. Mr. Jackson and Joshua Wiestling acted as Secretaries. Gen. Cameron explained the object of the meeting and urged immediate action. He also suggested that committees be appointed to wait upon the Governor and Gen. Couch, and ask them to be present and explain what in the defence of the city. His remarks were listening to the wonderful and best living loudly applauded.

Messrs. Geo. Bergner, Dr. A. Patterson and Judge M'Kinney were appointed the committee to wait on the Governor.

Messrs. Wm. Bostick, Sheriff Boas and Hon. John C. Kunkel were appointed to wait on Gen. Couch.

A committee to wait on Mayor Roumfort was also appointed, consisting of Col. T. C. Mac-Dowell, D. J. Unger and Weidman Forster. On motion, it was resolved that one hundred acouts be sent up the valley.

Col. F. K. Boas offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved. That we individually and collectively pledge the last dollar and last man in defence of the State in its present emergency. Mr. Bergner, from the committee, introduced the Governor, who appeared before the meeting to prepare at once for self defence. The Gov- place, of the Good Will picnic. ernor announced that there need be no fear of raising any amount of money needed; that he had received a dispatch this morning from the banks of Philadelphia, offering one million of dollars in defence of the State.

Gen. Couch was next introduced by the com immediately, prepare fortifications, &c , and he had no doubt that the rebels would be driven back.

Col. Kunkel offered a roll which he had pre pared, the signers of which pledged themselves to defend the city to its uttermost.

The roll was at once signed by a large num ber, headed by Gen. Simon Cameron.

Mr. Snyder had also prepared a roll calling the young men to turn out, which was also
