In CAMP.—The wagon train of Gen. Milroy's division which arrived in this city yesterday, are encamed a short distance back of the town. They will probably remain there several days in order to rest their jaded horses and mules, which were nearly exhausted by their forced march of 120 miles in 48 hours without sleep

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—This body met this morning in the State Capitol. Debinger, a Clymer man, from Philadelphia, was appointed temporary chairman. Nothing of importance was transacted this morning. The indications are that Clymer will receive the nomination Col. Matthews, of Berks, is in command of the after a warm contest.

TROOPs have been coming in all day, and the stirring notes of the drum and fife are heard hourly, betokening the arrival of more men for the protection of the Keystone State. Trains from all directions have their cars filled with men, who have volunteered to defend the capital, and drive the rebels from the free soil of Pennsylvania. The 7th New York Volunteers. at the time this article was written, had not arrived, but were expected hourly. The first militia regiment will probably be organized this

THE OIL SHIPMENTS .- Nearly two thousand barrels of oil passed through this city on Tuesday. The receipts were a little over twelve hundred barrels at Pittsburg, on Saturday last. This does not look like a decrease in the oil trade, and the immense shipments of oil east ernment.

MARTIAL LAW. - Why is martial law not declared over the city? This question is frequently asked. It would prevent all cowards and copperheads from leaving the city. We men and children away, but all able bodied inch a soldier, and a revolver thrust in each men should be compelled to stay and shoulder a musket. Let such order be enforced at once.

Another Falsehood.—The Tory Organ says return to his command. that he saw trunks and boxes marked George Bergner at the depot yesterday waiting to be shipped away. This is a malicious falsehood, supposition of their being rebel spies. Had they no permission from General Lee to stay? The proprietor of the Telegraph asks no quarters from General Lee nor the copperheads of Harrisburg. He will defend himself.

CAPTURE OF TWO REBRIS.—Yesterday a rebel prisoner was tent here from Chambersburg, cartured in that vicinity. He gave in his name as John Woods, of Company B, 5th Virginia Cavalry. No interesting information could be Gen. Couch, who had him placed in Camp Curtin; where he will be safely confined until further orders.

Another suspicious character, supposed to be a rebel, giving his name as Leeds; was captured creased his speed down the street. As he neared near Marysv. ille. He was closely questioned, but his answers were very confused, and he appeared so non plus ed that he was sent to Camp Curtin, to be confined until a further hearing.
