

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All Advertisements... HARRISBURG, PA. Saturday Evening, June 20, 1863.

PRAYING IN THE HALL OF THE SENATE.—The Second Lutheran Congregation will hold divine service, as usual in the Senate Chamber to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, and also in the evening at six o'clock.

ARRIVED.—The New York 11th, 37th, 56th and several other Regiments from other States, arrived in town since yesterday, and are now encamped in and around the city.

THE FIRST CITY TROOP OF Philadelphia, this morning, tendered their unconditional service to the Governor, demanding at once to be placed on duty. They were immediately ordered to the front, where they will be of incalculable value.

FIRE BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. W. J. Lascoc, of New Cumberland, will preach in the church, corner of Fourth and State streets, this evening, commencing at a quarter before eight o'clock.

PERSONAL.—Brig. Gen. John Ewen, and staff, arrived in this city this morning, and are now stopping at the Jones House. Gen. John Ewen commands the Fourth Brigade, New York State militia, now answering the call of the President to protect Pennsylvania from invasion.

REFRESHING.—The recent rains have greatly refreshed the growing crops and all kinds of vegetation, which had begun to suffer severely in consequence of the late drought. Everything is again growing beautifully, and there is now a fair prospect of an abundance of every species of vegetation.

HAYMAKING.—A number of farmers east and north of Harrisburg, have commenced cutting their grass, and some of them have already secured a considerable quantity of hay, the weather having been quite favorable during the early part of the week. The hay crop will, however, be short this season, owing to the severe drought of the past few weeks.

DELIGHTFUL MUSIC.—The band connected with the regiment from New Jersey, now encamped in the Park, in front of the Harris Mansion, this morning entertained the citizens of the lower part of the city with a number of beautiful and stirring airs, attracting a considerable number of listeners, and affording considerable amusement to the little one.

DESSERTS.—Nine desserts were brought in from Pittsburg this morning, including the men Thompson, mentioned in another column, as escaping last Tuesday while being brought to this city. Thompson is a hard customer to deal with. He has deserted four times, been captured each time, and now wears the bracelets to prevent his slipping away the fifth time. The desserts are now in Camp Curtin, and will be sent on to their regiments in a day or two.

NEW YORK REGIMENTS COMING.—In addition to the New York 8th and 71st, already here, five others were to leave New York on Thursday, consisting of the 37th, 22d, 11th, 5th and 23d. The remaining regiments in New York were expected to leave yesterday. Major Gen. Sanford, and Brig. Generals Hall and Yates will also leave New York to join the troops now being forwarded, and will report to Gen. Couch, now in this city.

THE HOPE PICNIC.—Notwithstanding the fears entertained by a few of our citizens that Harrisburg will soon be taken, if the rebels make a raid towards this section of the State, the Hope fire company are intent on having their picnic next Fourth of July. Every preparation is being made by which visitors may enjoy themselves, and the members of the company will be there to assist in making it one of the most pleasant picnics of the season.

HORRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Six Persons Killed and Four Badly Injured.—Last evening, while the main train on the Northern Central Railway was going northward, about two miles south of Millersburg, Dauphin county, an axle broke under the baggage car, throwing the cars attached to the track, and wrecking the whole train. The engine did not leave the track. The mortality from this unfortunate accident is larger than we have chronicled for a long time, and was occasioned by an unforeseen defect in an axle, liable to occur on any railroad. The following are the killed and injured:

- KILLED. 1. Daniel Ettinger, brakeman, York, Pa. 2. Schuyler, Bradford co., Pa. 3. W. H. Snyder, Lehigh Gap, Carbon co., Penn'a. 4. John W. Gabes, Springfield Centre, Bradford co., Pa. 5. Lemuel Andrews, Troy, Bradford co., Pa. 6. Jacob Buchart, Granville, Bradford co., Penn'a.

- INJURED. 1. John Bishop, Collinsville, Allegheny co., Pa.; leg broken. 2. W. Morris, brakeman, Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad; bruised. 3. A. M. Gibson, Lock Haven, Clinton co., Pa.; injured about the head. 4. Thomas Pipes, baggage-master; bruised. Several others were injured, but not so badly as to prevent them from re-entering the cars and continuing on their journey. The dead bodies were taken to Millersburg, soon after the accident, placed in coffins, and sent to their friends.

In justice to the railroad company, we will state that every one killed was standing on the platform of the cars at the time of the accident, and had their men still in the seats provided for them; they might still be living. What a warning is this to hundreds who travel over this different railroads in this country, addicted to this habit.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Services will be held in the Baptist Church, corner of Second and Pine streets, to-morrow. Preaching morning and evening.

PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE.—The office of the Provost Marshal General has been opened in the "Orphans' Court" room, second floor of the Court House.

The soldiers of the war of 1812 are requested to meet at Brant's Hall, on Monday evening, at 7 o'clock, to make arrangements for the celebration of the 4th of July, 1863.

ORDINATION SERVICES.—The ordination of one or more ministers will take place in the Free Baptist Church, to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. The discourse will be preached by Rev. J. L. Phillips, of New York. Rev. J. W. Plannett, of Latrobe, will preach in the evening, at which time the Lord's Supper will be administered.

HEAVY REINFORCEMENTS.—The police company from Philadelphia is now under the personal supervision of the Mayor, and the policemen composing this body are to be stationed on the street corners in the city as a provost guard, each armed with a musket, in addition to his other weapons! This company has been mustered into the United States service, and is subject to the same orders as other troops now in the army. They will greatly facilitate the carrying out of the civil law, and their presence will aid in the preservation of peace throughout the city.

CAMP "YAHOO."—The camp of the 23d New Jersey men, in Harris Park, is one of the most desirable locations for a camp in this city. With an unobstructed view of the river, and the heights on the other side, the men here can amuse themselves for hours, looking through a spy-glass at the movements of the men on the hills beyond. The camp of two of the New York regiments can be plainly seen from this point, and many visitors are found in the park at all hours of the day, availing themselves of the splendid views on nearly every side at Camp "Yahoo."

ANOTHER COMPANY OF COLLEGE STUDENTS.—A company of young men from the Lewisburg University, commanded by Capt. T. B. Jones, late Captain in Col. Allbaugh's (18th) Regiment, arrived in this city on the 17th, and are now in camp waiting to be organized into a regiment. Ever since the war broke out this company has been prepared for any emergency of this kind, and was among the first to respond to the Governor's call last fall, when the rebels made their raid into Pennsylvania and visited Chambersburg. The College is noted for its loyalty, and when the rebellion first broke out, the students from the South were compelled to leave for home, the Union sentiment being too strong for them in the College.

LIST OF CASUALTIES IN THE COLDER FENCIBLES.—The Colder Fencibles, Captain Jacob Detweiler, 87th Regiment, P. V., recruited in this city, distinguished themselves in the late fight at Winchester, Va., under General McCoy. From a private dispatch received here last night, we have obtained the following list of casualties:

- KILLED. Sergeant Robert Grier. Private William Spade. Thomas Updegrave. WOUNDED. Corporal L. Shurer. Private Uriah Nichols.

There was also a large number taken prisoners; among whom are Sergeant Samuel Keller, and private William C. Barringer, of this city. Messrs. Grier, Spade and Updegrave, killed, are also from this city.

SENT TO BALTIMORE.—The rebel prisoners, which have been concentrated here the past week, (nine in number,) were taken to the depot about one o'clock this afternoon, to be forwarded over the Northern Central railroad to Baltimore.

One of the prisoners, named John D. Cruise, recently employed as brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was a member of the Pennsylvania Blues, a Maryland company, and formerly employed on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Cruise said he was willing to take the oath of allegiance; provided he was not compelled to serve against the South. He was sent back to Camp Curtin to undergo another examination next Tuesday.

Louis Kuehner, a German, not desiring to visit Fort Mifflin, took the oath. We learn that he came from Washington, but did not ascertain why he was arrested.

Wm. Lees, born in Warren county, Ohio, and by occupation a bookkeeper, was arrested at Dauphin, in this county. He refused to take the oath and was sent to Baltimore.

ESCAPE OF TWO DESSERTERS.—On Tuesday night, Sergeant Charles M. Herald, of the 62d Regiment, left Pittsburg for this city, having in his charge thirteen prisoners, principally deserters. Among the party were Thomas Lee and the notorious George W. Thompson, who has earned the extreme penalty of military and civil law half a dozen times in the past two or three years. The two men were handcuffed together, and did not at starting seem to entertain any hope of escape. When they were leaving Greensburg, the conductor passed through the train, and at his request Sergeant Herald left his seat to indicate the men referred to on his pass. His attention was thus drawn for an instant from the men, and an "orange boy" passing through at the moment, left the door of the car open. The two men sprang to their feet in an instant, rushed to the platform, and leaped from it while the train was gaining headway rapidly. Sergeant Herald finding that his men had escaped, called to the conductor to stop the train, ran to the platform, and in his state of excitement, jumped from the train also. The result of this manœuvre was the tearing of the Sergeant's clothes and his receiving such severe injuries as effectively precluded his recapture by the fugitives. Thompson is an old offender, and will not be apt to have many more opportunities furnished him for displaying his agility. The reward he has so well earned is awaiting him. The Sergeant arrived in this city on Wednesday, and states that, although "considerably demoralized," he is thankful that he escaped with his life in the reckless leap from the train.

LIEDERKRANZ PIC-NIC.—The Liederkranz singing association will hold a picnic at Independence Island, on Monday, June 22, 1863. Tickets 25 cents. [d4t-m-w-18s.

Lost.—Either in the Capitol grounds or in going to Camp Curtin, an old pocket book, containing a soldier's discharge from the 107th Infantry Regiment, Penna. Vols. The finder will please leave it at this office. d1e

SAD ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon, while a party of young men belonging to the First Gray Reserve, of Philadelphia, were in the canal bathing, in the vicinity of Camp Curtin, one of their number, named Edward M. Laughlin, a member of Co. C., was mortally injured while diving from the bank of the canal into the water. His head struck a rock on the bottom of the canal, which was very shallow at this place, dislocating his neck, and bounding his whole system. He was taken to the Pennsylvania House, in Second street, where he was attended by Surgeon Atley, of the regiment. No hopes of saving his life were entertained by the Surgeon last evening, and transportation was furnished to have him conveyed home before he should sink so low as to render it impossible for him to be moved. Mr. M. Laughlin was a printer by trade, and was one of the first to respond to the call of the Governor for the protection of the State, little thinking that his life would be required of him so early, and in the sad manner above stated.

For the Benefit of the Public.

It is not our purpose to disparage the noble science of medicine or say anything that will conflict with its legitimate usefulness, but we hold that the evidence of experience is entitled to some consideration. We refer to the astonishing virtues of simple medicines that have been introduced to the public, the attestations of thousands of sick who have been permanently cured, will bear me out in saying that the German vegetable medicines of Mrs. Westhoven now manufactured and sold by Mrs. L. Ball, hold a prominent place among the best medicines of the age for all diseases that they claim to cure, rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles and fever. They combine in their composition the experience of a long life and close observation. They can be purchased at the residence of Mrs. L. Ball, No. 27 South Pine Street, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Notice.—Orders from a distance promptly attended to.

New Advertisements. FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! PHILADELPHIA, May 30, 1863.

Dear Sir:—During the night of May 19, 1863, our Grocery and Provision Store, at North Second and Willow streets, took fire at about 2 o'clock A. M., and as the store was a two-story wood building it burnt rapidly, and before the fire engines could act upon the fire, our whole stock of goods, including much combustible material, and amounting to over $2,000, were wholly destroyed. We had one of our No. 11 Chilled Iron Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and it came out of the fire not in the least injured, except the melting of it in the name, plate and paint. The contents inside were not affected in the least, and we consider the safe just as good a protection against fire now as before, and shall use it hereafter with increased confidence. The lock works as perfectly as before the fire.

Yours truly, MOYANUS & CROFT, Late 429 North Second Street.

Attention to the above certificate is particularly requested, as it is the first trial of LILLIE'S SAFES in an accidental fire in Philadelphia. I would say to all parties who want a Fire and Burglar-proof Safe that LILLIE'S WROUGHT AND CHILLED IRON SAFES are much the cheapest and the only real Fire and Burglar-proof Safes now made; and to those who want simply a Fire-proof, I would say that LILLIE'S WROUGHT IRON SAFE is fully equal in all respects to any of the most approved makers, and is sold at fully one-third less price. All parties interested are invited to examine the safes above described at my store.
