HARRISBURG, PA.

Tuesday Evening, June 23, 1863.

FOR THE EMERGENCY.—Adjutant George W. Newman, of our city, has hoisted his flag for recruits at the office of C. M. Shell, on Market, near Third street, where he will receive recruits by authority from the Governor.

SUSPENDED.—The Union Sunday School in Clark's Valley, has been suspended for the present, in consequence of the prevalence of small pox in that neighborhood. The disease has now, however, almost disappeared.

MORE GOVERNMENT HORSES.—This morning about forty Government horses passed out office on their way to the drove yard, near Camp Curtin. We learn that they were brought from Lewistown, in Millin county. They looked fully as well as the horses brought in yesterday, though not quite so fleshy.

THE NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY.—There has been no interruption in travel or transportation on the Northern Central railway since the late raid into Pennsylvania. The company are receiving freight for York, Baltimore and all points north of this city, and dispatching them regularly and promptly from their station in the Pennsylvania railroad depot.

ROLLING STOCK.—The Pennsylvania railroad company have an immense amount of rolling stock standing along the road, in the neighborhood of the Round House. For nearly a mile each way, cars are laying on the side tracks on both sides of the main road, many of them loaded with traffic from the West, directed to eastern markets. The business of this road is steadily increasing, and will compete with any railroad in the United States.

STRAGGLERS AND CONVALESCENTS.—The Pittsburg papers notice the arrival of fourteen men there who were in the hospital at Cumberland, and fifteen men who were cut off from General Mitroy's command at Winchester. Very few convalescents have reached this city as yet from Winchester, though a number of passes were granted to the patients by the Surgeon in charge of the hospital at Cumberland, giving the men ten days leave of absence to allow them to get out of the way of the rebels.

A CROWDED HOUSE.—Brant's Hall was crowded last night by the amusement loving people of the city, and from the cheers, laughter and applause, we surmise they were well pleased with the performance. As a traveling troupe this band of minstrels are not excelled by any other in the country, and the list of performers presented to the public is a sufficient guarantee for a full house wherever their inclination leads them. Go early this evening if you want a good seat.

RESIGNATION OF THE RECTOR OF ST. STEPHEN'S PARISH.—We understand that the rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Parish, Rev. B. Leacock, a few days since, tendered his resignation to the vestry of the parish. At a meeting of the vestry it was unanimously agreed not to accept the resignation, and that a leave of absence from the pulpit of four months be granted Rev. Leacock. If at the end of that time, the Reverend gentleman insists on urging his resignation, the vestry of St. Stephen's will have no other alternative but to accept.

DESTITUTION AMONG THE REBELS.—Several refugees from Berkeley county, Virginia, who witnessed the terrible conflict at Winchester last Sunday week, assert, as a positive fact, witnessed with their own eyes, that the rebel soldiers ate with avidity, potato peelings, apple cores, and other offal, found in the slop barrels of the citizens of that neighborhood. This fact would indicate that the rebels are really in want, especially of vegetable supplies, and that the present raid into the North is a military necessity, in order to replenish their exhausted stock of supplies.

THE 20TH REGIMENT, P. V. M.—The Twentieth regiment, Pennsylvania militia, organized in Philadelphia, has attracted much attention in this city, from their fine appearance and soldierly bearing. This is one of the largest regiments that have responded to the call of the Governor, numbering one thousand men. The following are the field officers and non commissioned staff of the 20th regiment:

Col. Wm. B. Thomas; Lieut. Col. W. H. Sickles; Major Benj. L. Taylor; Adjutant, A. H. Snyder; Surgeon, J. N. Sutvely, M. D.; Quartermaster, John J. Franklin; Quartermaster Sergeant, G. E. Hall; Sergeant Major, S. D. Hollman; Commissary Sergeant, Thomas P. Watson.

PATIENTS REMOVED FROM YORK HOSPITAL.—On the 15th inst., the patients in the United States army hospital at York were removed to Columbia, it being deemed a place of greater security, and out of the way of the rebel cavalry, then supposed to be in Pennsylvania marching in the direction of York and this city. The unexpected arrival of so many sick and wounded in Columbia created considerable surprise, no one appearing to be aware that they were coming. The Odd Fellows Hall, in that town, was soon filled up, however, which makes a well-ventilated hospital, and is a very good substitute for the one they left so hurriedly at York. Seventy-eight patients were transferred to Columbia from York where they now are, enjoying the hospitalities of a town which knew but little of the sufferings of the soldier until recently, and they deserve praise for the care they have taken these invalids since they have been in that midst. The hospital is in charge of Dr. P. M. Cleary.

THE BRIDGE PROPOSALS.—As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, the contract for building the bridge at Goo's mill and Cooper's Ford, over Wicomico creek, in the upper end of the county, has been awarded to A. S. J. Lenker, of this county. They propose to build them for $1,885 each, being several hundred dollars less than any other bid.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.—A mounted soldier came dashing up Third street this afternoon, as though the evil one was after him, but he was halted very suddenly by Officer Campbell while crossing Walnut street. He was dismounted and placed in jail by the officer, who took charge of his horse, and will probably release the soldier after he has been sufficiently punished for fast riding through the city.

FROM MECHANICSBURG.—The Russell Light Cavalry, Captain Singiser, arrived here this forenoon on the Cumberland Valley train, direct from Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county. They number sixty-four strong, and will soon be joined by a number of others from their county. We understand there is an infantry company already organized and officered in Mechanicsburg, but they are waiting for the moneyed men of the borough to organize and offer their services before they are ready to go.

THE ROADS OF TRAVEL.—Since the alarm created by the invasion of Pennsylvania, the various railroads leading to this city have been taxed to their utmost to furnish transportation for the troops pouring into the city. The Lebanon Valley, Pennsylvania Central, and Northern Central roads run extra trains day and night, and the large bodies of militia they have thrown into Harrisburg, within a week, is unprecedented. But the work has not diminished, and men are coming in as fast to-day as they were one week ago, and just as eager to share in the success or defeat of our forces in the field, as those who preceded them.

ORGANIZATION OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEER MILITIA.—The formation of this regiment was completed yesterday. Four of the companies attached to this regiment are from Schuylkill county.

The following are the field and staff officers: Colonel, Jacob G. Frick; Lieutenant Colonel, David B. Green; Major, George L. Fried; Adjutant, William L. Whitney; Assistant Surgeon, Martin; Chaplain, E. H. Austin. Col. Frick is among the most active and gallant men in the Commonwealth, and has already rendered important service to the Government. At the head of his new organization, he will increase that service and add additional fame to his present splendid reputation as a loyal man and a soldier.

OFFICE HOURS.—All persons having business with the Provost Marshal General, Col. J. V. Bonfort, are referred to the following figures, denoting the opening and closing of his office, second story of the Court House: Office open in the morning at 8 o'clock and closes at 12; re-opens at 2 and closes at 6 1/2 P. M.

The Provost Marshal of the 14th district, (Captain J. K. Clement), has his office on the same floor, which is open from 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. The office of the Provost Marshal of the post, (Lieut. J. M. Opyjoke), is also on the same floor; Office hours from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Sundays, open from 9 to 10 A. M., and 4 to 5 P. M. All deserters, prisoners, stragglers, etc., brought to this city, are generally handed over to Lieut. Opyjoke, who has them forwarded to the place ordered by the commander of the post, Capt. E. I. Dodge.

INSTANCES OF LOVE OF COUNTRY.—Numerous examples of patriotism are shown to the world by the present war, and we give one, as a specimen of Western Pennsylvania's patriotic sons. Among the three hundred and thirty volunteers from the neighborhood of Erie, who reached Pittsburg last week, were a number of farmers who had left everything in their hurried departure. One old man was shearing a sheep when he was hailed by the passing troops. He left the sheep half shorn, hunk up the shears, fell into the ranks, and is now engaged near the smoky city willing to lose his half shorn sheep that remain at home, while his country is in danger.

We give another instance of love of country, which happened at a railroad station near Pottsville, quoting it from the Mines Journal, as representing Eastern Pennsylvania's devotion for the welfare of its country. It says that "a young Irishman who had joined one of the companies from Ashland to defend the State from invasion, was seized by his father at the Plains, and dragged from the cars, when he was also seized by his mother. He rescued himself, and they seized him again, when he struck his father a blow, and attempted to get off again, but while struggling, the cars departed. He is now justification for a son striking his father, but if any excuse can be offered in palliation, it is when the son is struggling to defend the home and fireside of his parents from a ruthless foe, in just such a case as this."

ANSWER OF A HONORABLE TRIP.—On Saturday, Col. Young of Reading, discovered his horse to be missing from the place where he tied it, in Market street, and he instantly proceeded to investigate matters, and have the thief arrested before it was too late. After searching for the missing animal some time, he began to lose faith in ever finding his noble steed again, and was offering liberal rewards to any one who would return him the horse. As a last resort he called on the Chief of Police, Campbell, to try his vigilance in catching the horse thieves. Barney started off after the thief, and while in the vicinity of Camp Curtin discovered him in the distance making tracks for a safer locality, where suspicion would not be attached to him. But the officer had got the scent, and Mr. Thief, who tried to be a soldier, was a "gone sucker," for he was lying in the Walnut street prison half an hour after, with testimony against him strong enough to send any man to the penitentiary for a period of several years—in fact long enough to learn the art of carpet weaving in this prison loom. The horse is a valuable one, and well worth a larger reward than was given for its recovery.

WANTED.—A few recruits to complete the Twenty-sixth regiment, Pennsylvania Militia. This regiment is organized, armed and equipped. Apply to Col. W. W. Jennings, at Camp Curtin.

NEARLY FULL.—The Cavalry Company, now being organized and stationed in Camp Curtin, is rapidly filling up and will soon be full. A few more men will be taken by applying at the Exchange building, Walnut street, without delay. VAL. B. HUMMEL, Captain.

THE FIRST REGIMENT.—The 26th Pennsylvania Volunteer Militia has completed its organization, and is the first in the field from Camp Curtin, in response to the last call of the Governor. The following are the commissioned officers of the 26th: Colonel—William W. Jennings, of Harrisburg; Lieutenant Colonel—Joseph S. Jenkins, of York county; Major—Lorenzo S. Greenwalt, of Lebanon.

WISSAHICKON CAVALRY.—The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, also Philadelphia Enquirer, have both reported that the Wissahickon Cavalry, Captain Conly, have left for home. It is not so. They were sworn into the service the next day after they arrived, and are in active service, completely armed and equipped, both horses and men. It is but justice to them to say that they are the second company mustered into the service.

REBEL PRISONERS.—Six rebel prisoners, captured in the Seventeenth District last week, were brought to this city yesterday, and confined to Camp Curtin. Three suspicious characters were arrested on the 21st inst., in the Sixteenth District, and delivered over by the Deputy Provost Marshal, Mr. John Busby, of said district. They were captured near Gettysburg. Two more suspicious looking individuals were brought to this city yesterday by a guard of cavalry. They were captured on the Cumberland Valley, and are alleged to have been in the rebel service. One is a discharged soldier, who appears to have seen hard service in rebellion.

DAUPHIN AFFAIRS.—This quiet village has participated, to a great extent, in the excitement consequent upon the advance of the rebels towards the Susquehanna, and serious apprehensions are still entertained that the rebels will advance through the mountains and strike the railroad and the beautiful bridge which spans the Susquehanna at that point. Two valuable cows were killed yesterday morning by a train of cars on the Schuylkill and Susquehanna railroad. The depot of this road has been removed to a point nearer the village and the track of the road has been relaid, so as to avoid the necessity of a bridge and trestle work, which had become decayed and unsafe. The change will be a decided improvement in the road.

SPECIAL NOTICES.—PENNSYLVANIA MILITIA and Recruiting Claims, United States Pension, Bounty, Arrears of Pay, and Subsistence Claims, &c., made out and collected by BURENE SNEYDER, Attorney-at-Law, Office: Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa. [27-1y

TO THE PUBLIC.—The confusion incident to the expected rebel invasion of last week has now subsided; and, through the energy of Governor Curtin and those in the military department of the State, large numbers of soldiers and portions of our own State, have arrived for the defence of the State Capital, and for the expulsion of the rebels from the border of the State. Through this security, business is gradually falling into its regular channels. In the dry goods department C. L. Bowman, at the Southeast corner of Front and Market streets, is prepared to see his customers, and offering more than ordinary inducements to buyers. Call and see. No empty shelves—no humbug.

BARGAINS IN DRY GOODS.—We will sell a lot of bargains at 15 and 20 cents! and from different warranted fast colors, 20 cents; a large lot of ladies' and children's stockings; bargains at 15, 20, 25 and 30 cents; a lot of cheap summer dry goods; a lot of grey barge from auction at 10 cents per yard; a splendid assortment of white cambric; all kinds of figured and plain Swiss muslin, Nanosocks, Victoria lawn, and Jaconets; the best assortment of white goods in the city; just received, a very large lot of hoop skirts; a splendid assortment of gentlemen's white shirts, half hose and pocket handkerchiefs, at all prices. Those in want of goods would do well to call, as we intend to reduce our stock, and much of our goods will sell less than the market price. S. LEWY.

TO THE STRANGER.—If the strangers that are now in the city wonder why our citizens are so very healthy, we would say in reply that Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines are still successfully used, and that all who take of them are satisfied as to their virtue. Now is the time for all going into the army to have their blood cleansed, and in a short time they will get fat and hearty. No one need have the Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, a Cough or a Cold. Thousands have been cured, and so may you. Satisfy yourselves by giving the medicine a trial. Call at No. 27 South Pine street, Harrisburg, Pa. Orders from a distance promptly attended to, and oblige me, MRS. L. BALL.

New Advertisements. FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! PHILA. DELPHIA, May 30, 1863. M. C. Sadler, Esq. Dear Sir: During the night of May 19, 1863, our Grocery and Provision Store, at North Second and Willow streets, took fire at about 2 o'clock a. m., and as the store was a two-story wood building it burnt rapidly, and before the fire engines could act upon the fire, our whole stock of goods, including much combustible material, and amounting to over $2,000, were wholly destroyed. We had one of our No. 11 Chilled Iron Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and it came out of the fire not in the least injured, except the melting off of the name, plate and paint. The contents inside were not affected in the least, and we consider the Safe just as good a protection against fire now as before, and shall use it hereafter with increased confidence. The lock works as perfectly as before the fire. Yours truly, MCMANUS & CROFT, Late 429 North Second Street.

Attention to the above certificate is particularly requested, as it is the first trial of LILLIE'S SAFES in an accidental fire in Philadelphia. I would say to all parties who want a Fire and Burglar proof Safe, that LILLIE'S WROUGHT AND CHILLED IRON SAFES are much the cheapest and the only real Fire and Burglar proof Safes now made; and to those who want simply a Fire-proof, I would say that LILLIE'S WROUGHT IRON SAFE is fully equal in all respects to any of the most approved makers, and is sold at fully one-third less price. All parties interested are invited to examine the safes above described at my store. GEO. W. FAUSON'S, Agent, 110 Market street. jell-2law3w
